

Bill Townsend To Renew Social Dancing Classes; Course Starts Wednesday, To Continue 10 Weeks

By Herb Nachman
Bill Townsend, special journalism student, has announced that he will renew his social dancing classes beginning Wednesday.

The series of classes will last for 10 weeks and will be conducted in cooperation with the intramural department. Beginners classes will be held on Wednesday from 7 to 8, intermediate 8 to 9 and advanced from 9 to 10.

Comprehensive courses in conservative or smooth fox trot, American and Viennese waltz, Cuban rumba and conga, continental tango, and Brazilian samba will be given.

N. C. Little Symphony To Collaborate With Other Groups For Easter Concert

Symphonic music at its best will be heard Monday night when the North Carolina Little Symphony combines forces with the St. Cecilia Choral club, The Raleigh Male chorus, the Oratorio society and other Raleigh choral groups, in presenting an Easter concert.

Soprano, Beatrice Donley, contralto, David Wilmot, tenor, and Edgar Vom Lehn, bass. In addition to the concert by the little symphony which members of this area will hear during April, this Easter program is an extra feature and all North Carolina symphony membership cards will be honored.

The program will include the music of Handel's "Dettinger," Te Deum, Brahms' "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "The Blessed Damosel," which is the musical setting of Rossetti's famous poem. Soloists for the evening who will sing with the orchestra and the chorus will be Geneva Wilson, soprano, Beatrice Donley, contralto, David Wilmot, tenor, and Edgar Vom Lehn, bass. In addition to the concert by the little symphony which members of this area will hear during April, this Easter program is an extra feature and all North Carolina symphony membership cards will be honored.

Hot Partners
He has entertained at various resort hotels with such famous partners as the former premier ballerina of the Chicago Grand opera, a dancer from the Shubert show, "Blossom Time," and an actress and dancer from the New York hit, "Pal Joey."

Last quarter he entertained at the Carolina hotel in Pinehurst. His classes are free to students and their wives.

FORMER U. S. Ambassador to Japan, Joseph C. Grew (above) tells the Senate Armed Services Committee in Washington that "without the shadow of a doubt" the United States needs both universal military training and the draft. Grew charged that "one of the greatest blunders in history was the recent demobilization of our armed forces below the safety point."

New Students Must Give DTH Addresses

All newly-registered students who live in private residences should notify the Daily Tar Heel circulation department, 2nd floor Graham Memorial, of their addresses in order that they may receive copies of the paper. Those residing within the corporate limits of Chapel Hill should list their residence address, while all others should list their mailing address.

This procedure is not necessary for students residing in dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses, Victory Village, quonset huts, or in university-

'I Hate Southern Cooking' — Shane; Is Going To Virginia To Try It Anyway

Richmond, Va., March 26—(UP)—New York magazine writer Ted Shane will be accompanied by a body guard and taster when he comes to Virginia for the state's annual chef's tourney March 29 and 30.

Shane wired back that he couldn't be a judge. "I'm on a diet," he moaned, "no meat."

Last year Shane penned a treatise on Southern cooking that almost set off another regional skirmish. It's title was "I Hate Southern Cooking," and the Northern author needed the Dixie folk with comments like this:

The Virginia State Chamber of Commerce aimed to change Shane's opinion. The chamber invited him to come to Fredericksburg and act as a judge in the Virginia chef's tourney.

"Their Southern chicken is immersed in cement and immolated in deep fat," and "After eating a hard-baked, corn stick, you'll know what is meant by the staff of life."

Shane wired back that he couldn't be a judge. "I'm on a diet," he moaned, "no meat."

In fact, Shane said the next time he came South he would take along a hamper of what he called "good old Northern chop operated trailer courts. Any returning off-campus students who have changed their address should notify the department of this change.

He reconsidered the offer however. He telephoned the chamber that he would arrive in Virginia Saturday and would be glad to judge the vegetables and desserts.

And who is the body guard and taster? Mrs. Shane, who'll judge the meat.

Easter Bonnets Safe in South

The weather man says he will be kind to Easter bonnets this year, although it will be a bit chilly in the Midwest and East. Although it may be too cool for some of millady's Easter finery, the weather will be generally sunny throughout the nation Sunday.

The United States weather bureau says the west coast will be clear in spite of some high thin clouds. A storm is gathering in the Pacific, but is expected to wait until after the holiday to strike.

In the South, the weather will be clear with temperatures rising to the 70's. Fair weather is expected in most of the plain states, but temperatures may be in the 40's all day in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Predictions on the East coast are for fair and cooler weather, or partly cloudy and cooler.

VA Says Veterans Under P L 16 Must Finish School Uninterruptedly

According to a recently released memorandum from the Veterans administration all veterans under Public Law 16 must complete their training, if possible, without interruption.

The bulletin said that training must be continued through the summer sessions unless the necessary courses are not available at the present institution or at any conveniently located and acceptable institution.

Training may be temporarily interrupted if the veteran is not physically able to continue or has some other good and sufficient reason.

Withdrawal from an institution for personal reasons, such as to take a vacation or to accept temporary employment, or other reasons not approved by the VA will cause the vets file to be placed in a discontinued status, and it will be necessary for the Advisee and Guidance section to re-establish need for vocational rehabilitation under PL 16 before he can be re-entered in training.

If a trainee is placed in a discontinued status due to his own volition and his pension has been cut off he will not be able to re-enter training under PL 16; however, if he has eligibility and entitlement remaining he will be permitted to re-enter under PL 346.

The VA urged that all PL 16 vets go to the VA office in 111 Peabody and fill out a certificate of intention, telling whether they intend to attend summer school. This blank must be filled out within 10 days.

The VA also warned that all PL 16 vets should go by the VA office within 10 days and fill out a schedule blank for the spring quarter.
