

BERNARD H. ANDERSON

Dr. Anderson Given Post in Department of Biblical Study

Dr. Bernard H. Anderson of the Department of Religion at Colgate university has accepted appointment as associate professor of biblical literature in the Department of Religion on the James A. Gray foundation here, according to Chancellor Robert B. House and Dr. Arnold Nash, head of the Department of Religion.

Dr. Anderson's appointment is the first one on the Gray foundation which was established here last year.

Regarded as one of this country's promising young biblical scholars, Dr. Anderson is now engaged in writing a commentary on the Book of Esther and has already published a number of articles in learned journals.

He received his B. A. degree at the College of the Pacific in California in 1936 and his B. D. and M. A. degrees at the Pacific School of Religion. He held the Two Brothers fellowship at Yale university in 1945 when he was awarded his Ph. D. degree by that institution.

Dr. Anderson will come to Chapel Hill in June and will teach in the first term of the summer session. He will give lectures on "The Making and Meaning of the Old Testament," "The Making and Meaning of the New Testament," "Varieties of Religion in American Life and Culture," "Christian Tradition from Augustine to the Present Day," "The Prophets of Israel," and "Jesus and the Gospels."

Mexico Planners Will Meet Today

Students interested in or already planning to attend summer school in Mexico City or thereabouts are invited to meet together this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Horace Williams lounge of Graham Memorial.

Purpose of the session will be to make travel arrangements and discuss the schools and accommodations in the Latin capital. At present there are two American summer school colleges in Mexico City as well as a number of other GI accredited institutions in other parts of the country.

Former President of Student Body Expresses Opinion on Mag Banning

A letter has been received by "Spike" Saunders, alumni secretary, from Garland B. Porter, president of the Carolina student body in 1922, regarding the abolition of the Carolina Magazine.

According to Porter, "I incline to the view that no one student body should be empowered to abolish the magazine which has lived longer than any one of those students will probably live and which have hardly reached the vantage point of enough years and experience to condemn a publication that has served as a stepping stone to some important members of society and the literary world."

Porter, who is connected with the Southern Advertising and Publishing company in Atlanta, was president of the UNC student body in 1922.

Wilkinson Schedules Talk For Tomorrow

John Wilkinson, Republican candidate for the United States senate, will give an address in Gerrard hall at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Wilkinson, a University graduate of 1931 and prominent attorney of Washington, N. C., is appearing here under the auspices of the Young Republicans club and the Carolina Political Union.

A meeting of the YRC will be held in Graham Memorial today at 1 o'clock to discuss plans for a dinner to be held prior to the speech. Students desiring reservations are asked to attend the meeting.

Dr. E. J. Woodhouse, political science professor, will introduce the speaker. Bill Hipple, YRC president, will preside.

Wilkinson's address will concern his policies as a senatorial candidate and will include a discussion of the Mundt-Nixon bill now before Congress.

The senatorial aspirant now serves as vice-chairman of the national Young Republicans club and president of the state Young Republicans club.

Laboratory Theater To Give 'Mr. Luck' In Graham Memorial

Tonight at 8:30 the Laboratory Theater of the Carolina Play-makers will present the first of two free performances of Mildred Howard's original full length play, "Mr. Luck," in the main lounge of Graham Memorial. The play will be presented again tomorrow night.

Director Eleanor Ringer says the true leading role in the comedy is Mr. Luck, a small black cocker spaniel, played by Bonnie who is owned by Barbara Malone.

Cast Listed

Betty Gwyn Finley will play Frances Taylor, and Bob Barr, who has appeared this year in "Saint Joan," "An Enemy of the People," and co-author of "Sweep It Clean," will play Dr. Taylor. Edna Dooley, recently in "Fashion" and "The Inspector General," will appear as Mrs. Taylor, while Pat Palmer, comedy star of "Sweep It Clean," will play Lois Taylor. Margie Cameron will play Carolyn Taylor, Ellen Smith will portray Mary Lloyd Taylor, and Mac Shaw, recently in "Cyrano de Bergerac," plays J. Hubert. George Upchurch, also a member of the "Cyrano" cast, is Joel.

Murray McCain will appear as Timothy Thistlethwaite, and Danny Hughes, also a "Cyrano" cast member, will portray Baskin Sims, the local politician and newspaper owner.

First Original Show

The full length comedy will be the first original play to be produced by the laboratory group, and it is the first modern comedy to be staged by the company since its organization two years ago.

The scene of the play is the Taylor home in a small town in Kentucky. It centers around Mr. Luck, a small dog, who is the bone of contention in the Taylor household.

TWO MORE ISSUES

The last issue of the Daily Tar Heel for the spring quarter will be published Friday in order to give everyone (including staff members) a chance to study for exams. The newspaper will return at the beginning of the first summer session, on a bi-weekly basis which will continue until fall.

Three Tons of Clothing Sent From Chapel Hill for Overseas

Three tons of clothing has left Chapel Hill since January for distribution among needy people in Europe as the result of the two CRIL-sponsored clothing drives for overseas relief.

First of the two drives, conducted in January, accounted for 1,700 pounds of clothing, while the remaining 4,300 pounds was collected during the drive just completed. The majority was sent to Church World Service in New Windsor, Maryland, for packing and shipment overseas. However, small amounts are being sent personally by the various religious groups.

Typical of Europeans being helped is the family of Alfred Wagner, 36-year-old former prisoner of war, now living in the French zone of Germany. Wagner's release after 37 months as a prisoner of war in the United States and 13 months in England as a prisoner, was followed by a three month search for his wife and children.

Before the war the family had a farm in the province of Pommern, Poland, which had been in Wagner's family for 220 years. They lost the farm as well as all other possessions during the war. Wagner now works in a drug-store.

Five University Students Given Grail Scholarships

Five students have been awarded scholarships by the Order of the Grail, it was announced yesterday by the University Scholarship committee, headed by Dean D. D. Carroll of the Commerce school.

The scholarships were awarded for the year 1948-49.

The five winners are: Edward Albert Bryant, Lenoir; Jacob Lewis Cross, Lexington; John Edwin Duke, Goldsboro; Rufus King Hayworth, High Point, and Merle Marie Stevens, Forest City. Harvey M. Brinkley, Jr., Durham, was named first alternate in the event one of the five students should not use his or her scholarship.

From time to time since the establishment of these scholarships, the Grail has been able to add to the original endowment from net receipts from dances given for the welfare of the entire student body. The scholarships are awarded on a basis of high scholastic record, participation in outside student activities and contribution to the welfare of the student body, and need for earning part of University expenses.

Loudermilk's Bill Provides Solution In Special Session

By Chuck Hauser

It took two special sessions and some parliamentary chicanery to do it, but the Student Legislature finally got the 1948-49 campus budget balanced last night.

The legislative body convened shortly before 8 o'clock, adjourned at 9 o'clock, reconvened at 9:01 and adjourned at approximately 9:35, a balanced budget and several other bills comfortably under its belt.

Loudermilk Bill Passed

The convene-adjourn-convene routine merely helped to expedite matters, legislators pointed out, so that all business could be disposed of yesterday evening. The result of the confusing rigamarole was the passage of a budget bill written by UP Legislator Charlie Loudermilk, with the aid of Thurman Williams, Ed Davenport and Len Butt.

The measure, called a "very satisfactory compromise bill" by Publications Board President Billy Carmichael, was favorably reported out of a Finance committee meeting held only a few minutes before the Legislature first convened for the special session which Speaker Jim Godwin called last Thursday night.

The bill was brought to the floor in the Finance committee report made by Chairman Jack Girard. It calls for the following cuts in the 1948-49 budget: Publications — $1,500, Debate Council — $500, Men's council — $750, class organizations — $500, entertainment supplement — $500, Legislature — $72.

To Be Restored

Article 2 provides that if additional funds are available to the Legislature next year, the original budget will be restored as much as possible.

The Loudermilk proposal was substituted for the slash bill first brought to the floor last week by Bill Jernigan. Jernigan's bill was pushed out of the way for the new measure soon after the law-making body began its business of the evening.

The new cut bill, after the Legislature was adjourned and another special session called, passed the body by a vote of 32 to 7, with 5 persons casting no vote and 6 reported absent from the meeting.

Roll Call Vote

The roll call vote on the budget-balancing measure went as follows:

YES (32)—UP (23): Barnes, Benbow, Benjamin, Black, Boren, Butt, Cornish, Davenport, Duke, Girard, Knight, E., Knight A., Leary, Leonard, Loudermilk, Mitchell, Nance, Ogburn, Rodman, Sharkie, Smith, Williams, Yarborough; SP (5): Baker, Farris, Kerr, McNutt, Washington; CP (4): Cofield, Jones, Rosser, Talley; NO (7)—SP (6): Alexander, Allen, Alisbrook, Lowenstein. (See LEGISLATURE, page 4)

Final Meeting of Carolina Quarterly Will Plan for First Issue Next Fall

The Carolina Quarterly staff will hold its final meeting of the year in Roland Parker No. 3 at 3 o'clock this afternoon, according to an announcement by Bill Sessions, editor of the new literary magazine.

Sessions urges the attendance of all members of the staff and also those students who are interested in joining the Quarterly's editorial and business staffs. Participating in today's meeting will be the Faculty Advisory committee, the Finance committee, and the editorial and business staffs of the Quarterly.

Sessions will preside at the meeting and addressing the meeting will be Emily Sewell, business manager, and the Quarterly's newly appointed assistant editors, Roy Moose and Pricilla Moore.

Oldest Alumnus

George McCorkle of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, oldest living graduate of the University, has made reservations to attend the 154th commencement exercises here June 5-7. Formerly a resident of Newton, Mr. McCorkle for many years was an attorney with the Federal Trade commission in Washington. He has made his home with a daughter for several years.

Now 91 years of age, Mr. McCorkle will observe the 70th anniversary of his graduation this June.

Pianist, Soprano Joint Recital Is Set for Tonight

Samuel Andrew, piano student from Albemarle, and Hilda Frances Lawrence, soprano from Asheville, will give a joint recital in Hill hall tonight at 8:30.

Miss Lawrence, who will be accompanied at the piano by Richard Rancourt, Waterville, Me., will sing, "Sento nel core," Scarlatti; "La Chi vuol la zingarella," Paisiello; "Se tu m'ami," Pergolesi; selections from "Don Giovanni" and "Die Zauberflote" by Mozart; "Nell," Faure; "Romance and Mandoline," Debussy, and "Chere nuit," Bachelet.

Andrew will play "Partita No. 3 in A minor," J. S. Bach; "Sonata No. 23 in F minor," Beethoven; and two études by Chopin.

William Fitzgerald, New Bern, clarinetist, will give a recital in Hill hall tomorrow at 8:30, and Miss Anne Brown, Raleigh, pianist, will appear in recital Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

Hillel Foundation Schedules Banquet

A banquet and concluding religious service has been set by the Hillel foundation this Friday evening according to Ira Antin, retiring president of the organization.

Delicatessen will be served at a buffet supper to be held at 6 o'clock in Roland Parker lounge No. 1 and 2. Services will begin at 7 o'clock.

Following the banquet, Hillel keys will be presented by Mrs. Lillian Rosenberg, the foundation's advisor. Officers for the coming year will also be installed.

All members and Hillel friends are invited.

VETERANS NOTICE

All veterans will receive their leave pay on July 1, according to Col. F. Carlyle Shepard, veterans adviser. Col. Shepard warned, however, that all veterans must notify the VA of their change of address for the summer by filling in an address form at either 111 Peabody or 316 South building.

Friday Last Day To Fill Out Form For Yack Mailing

Students have until Friday to give their mailing address at the Y-building for forwarding the 1948 Yackety Yack, which will be distributed June 14.

Students who have been here three quarters, beginning the fall quarter, are requested to print their name and address to which he wants the year book mailed on a gummed label which will be placed in the main lounge of the Y-building. A box will be provided for the labels after they have been filled out.

Hours in which the students may fill out this information are today and tomorrow from 9 to 5 o'clock, and Friday from 9 to 1 o'clock.

For every quarter a student is not in school, beginning with the fall quarter and ending with the spring one, the student will pay $1.50. Students not under the block fee covering publications will pay the full cost of the Yack, $4.50.

The yearbook will be delivered to summer school students beginning June 14, according to Business Manager Dick Gordon.

Commissions Offered In Regular Air Corps

Former Air Force personnel and other veterans and non-veterans who desire regular Air Force commissions upon graduation or at a later date may obtain application blanks at the Air ROTC office, according to an announcement by Lt. Col. C. J. Galligan of the Air University United States Air Force.

The survey now underway, said Galligan, is designed to supplement a program started several weeks ago for determining the interest and qualifications of students desiring Air Force commissions.

Applications should be turned in not later than June 5. Applicants who did not qualify for the previous program are encouraged to apply at this time.

OHIO U. GETS $100,000

Columbus, O. (UP)—A $100,000 gift to Ohio State University has been made by the late Simon Lazarus estate.
