New Coach Is Demanded At Carnegie

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25.—(UP)—The Carnegie Tech campus was livid with painted protests today as the student body revolted against the directorship of its winless football team.

The long-smouldering student uprising erupted after the Tar Heels lost their 18th consecutive game last Saturday, bowing to Case, 26-20. Once a football power, Carnegie Tech hasn't won a game since 1942.

Irate students, armed with black and red paint, splashed the campus walks with foot-high protest signs and members of a student committee circulated a petition demanding the dismissal of Bill Donohoe as head coach. The petition asked that a new coach be hired and Donohoe be demoted to an assistant coaching position.

The sign painted on the sidewalk at the entrance to the administration building read: "Here lies school spirit: Born 1909, died 1939." A short distance away another said, "Down with Donohoe."

Both referred to the school's sports de-emphasis policy under Tech president Dr. Robert E. Doherty. The "simon pure" athletic program was blamed for Tech's steady decline in the sports world since 1939.

Dr. Doherty said he wasn't taking the demonstrations seriously as yet. "All we need is a few victories and things will change," he said.

Two-Man Team Will Explain Cadet Program

Major Leslie McLaurin and Major James R. Wilson of the Air Force procurement program established headquarters at the Air ROTC offices in the Naval armory yesterday to explain the advantages and benefits open to college men under the Air Force aviation cadet-pilot training program.

The two-man team is here to interview all interested applicants and to accept them provisionally for the 12 month flight training course, which leads to a pilot's rating and a second lieutenant's commission with the Air Force.

Major McLaurin said, "We will accept all unmarried men between 20 and 26½ years of age, who are in good physical shape and who can meet the educational requirements for the program almost immediately. We are prepared to give them the Air Force aptitude examination here."

Successful applicants will receive their training at AF bases in Texas, Arizona and Louisiana, upon graduation they will receive a second lieutenant's commission in the Air Force reserve and aeronautical rating as pilots and will be assigned to active flying duty. Cadet classes will begin March 1, July 1 and Oct. 15 of each year. Top graduates of each class will be given direct commissions in the regular Air Force.

All graduates are asked to agree to a minimum service of three years on active duty, and during that period they will all have the opportunity to qualify for a regular commission.

Law Address

During the ninth session of freshman assemblies this morning in Memorial hall students will hear Dr. Robert Wettach, dean of the university School of Law.

The speaker will be introduced by Bill Friday, assistant dean of students, and the invocation will be delivered by Hilton Seals, director of the Presbyterian Student association.

Dr. Wettach, speaking on the Law school, will outline to the freshmen the requirements and the academic program in the school.

She made her first public appearance at 12 in a girls' band led by her Mother, Alma Scott. ## January Draft Quota Will Be 20,000 Men

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(UP)—The Army today gave Selective Service orders to draft 20,000 men in January, bringing to 45,000 the number of men facing compulsory Army service during the next three months.

The Army has used the new peacetime draft act three times in its drive to build up its strength. It previously called for 10,000 in November, and 15,000 in December.

The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force again withheld any draft calls. They are reaching their authorized strength through voluntary enlistments.

The Army's 20,000 January total will be broken down into state quotas by Selective Service here. State headquarters, in turn, will issue quotas to local boards.

Yack Deadline For Sophomores Is Set Thursday

The deadline for sophomore students to have their Yack pictures taken will definitely be Thursday at 6 o'clock, Bert Kaplan, sophomore class editor announced yesterday.

In keeping with the Yack's need to meet its deadline, freshmen photo appointments have been cancelled. No freshmen except those who have filled out their white photographer's cards will be allowed to pass. Fred Blair said yesterday. "There will be no last-minute exceptions," Blair said.

To reassure hesitant students who have not appeared, apparently frightened by the lines, officials promised to keep the photographers "on the job" from 9 in the morning to 6 in the evening, except for the hour between noon and 1 o'clock.

Argentine Government Forces Retake Academy After Cadet Students Revolt

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Oct. 25.—(UP)—The Paraguayan national radio said tonight that government forces had recaptured the military academy, apparently ending a brief Asuncion revolt led by army cadets.

The official broadcast said the academy surrendered at 7:40 p. m., just before the national network broadcast a message from President J. Natalicio Gonzalez warning the students that the army would "inexorably crush" their rebellion.

Gonzalez ordered the cadets to "lay down their arms and abandon the camp of meditation." He promised that there would be no reprisals against those who surrendered.

The radio announcement said

Negro Says Segregation 'Humiliating'

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—(UP)—Negro G. W. McLaurin today told a federal district court it is "humiliating" for him to sit in a side room while attending classes at the University of Oklahoma.

McLaurin, who was admitted to O. U. two weeks ago to study for a doctor's degree in education, testified in his suit to force the university to abandon the segregation imposed on him. The Negro has been assigned a desk in a little room opening into a larger room where white students sit.

Thurgood Marshall, New York attorney, argued that when the federal court recently ruled the state's segregation laws are void as they apply to McLaurin, the university was stripped of its authority to segregate McLaurin after it enrolled him.

Marshall claimed also that any type of segregation violates the constitutional guarantee of equal educational opportunities for all people.

Marshall also asked the court to determine whether the lawsuit of Mrs. Mauderle Hancock Wilson, another Negro seeking to enter O. U., may be included in the case. The court did not act immediately on the request.

McLaurin told the three federal judges hearing the case that, "It is humiliating for me to be placed in that room."

"It handicaps me in doing effective work," he added. "I am always conscious of the segregation, and I cannot concentrate on my work as I should."

Supreme Court Rules 'Memoirs' Is Unprintable

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(UP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that Edmund Wilson's "Memoirs of Hecate County" is an obscene book and by a 4 to 4 vote upheld a New York state ban on its publication.

There was no written opinion and no indication which of the justices thought the book obscene and which disagreed.

The tribunal merely announced that the decision of the New York courts suppressing publication and circulation of the collection of short stories was "affirmed by an equally divided court."

Justice Felix Frankfurter dissented, qualified himself from the case, but did not say why. Justice Frank Murphy is ill in Michigan and did not hear the case, but apparently voted.

IFC Cuts Rushing Time Short; Season Will End Thursday

Fraternity rushing will end at 10 o'clock Thursday evening, instead of extending through next Tuesday, the Interfraternity council announced last night.

IFC President Jack Thompson said the rushing period was cut short because the council felt both fraternities and rushees have had enough time to make up their minds about pledging, and it will give students engaged in rushing more time to devote to studying.

The new rushing schedule will go into effect this afternoon, informal rushing beginning at 2 o'clock and extending until 8 o'clock. Tomorrow, informal rushing will be held between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, and formal rushing will begin tomorrow night from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Thursday, informal rushing will again be from 2 to 5 o'clock with formal rushing and shake-up time from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening.

An absolute silence period will be held from 10 o'clock Thursday night until 2 o'clock the following Monday afternoon, when rushees may pick up their pledging bids at Gerard hall. The Gerard desk will be in operation until 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Andy Cornish, head of the court of the Interfraternity council, cautioned both fraternities and rushees that any attempts to shake up new men before Thursday evening would be punished. He said the fraternity could suffer loss of pledging privileges for not more than a year or less than four months, and the rushee could lose the privilege of pledging a fraternity for a period of six months.

Registration Facilities To Be Opened Again

J. B. Johns, member of the Chapel Hill board of elections, said yesterday that persons who found the registering booth in town hall closed between the hours of 5:30 and 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon will be given another chance to register for the Nov. 2 general elections.

Johns said, however, that those persons who were unable to register Saturday will have to furnish proof that they came to the town hall during the half hour in question Saturday.

The mistake occurred as a result of signs posted by the Chapel Hill League of Women Voters proclaiming that registration would be held on two consecutive Saturdays, Oct. 16 and 23, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening.

Johns said that election rules call for the closing of registration places at the hour of sunset, which was 5:29 Saturday afternoon. He added, however, that the registrars of both north and south precincts had been instructed to remain on duty at their posts until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Betsy Brunk, north precinct registrar who was on duty in town hall, said she closed registrations in compliance with election rules at 5:30 Saturday afternoon, exactly one minute past the hour of sunset.

Admiral Roper To Give Address For Navy Day

Negroes Slate Raleigh March During Assembly

RALEIGH, Oct. 25.—(UP)—A group of North Carolina Negroes will "march on Raleigh when the legislature meets" in January to ask the General Assembly to do away with "discriminatory" race laws, Kelly Alexander, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said today.

Alexander said the march would be "orderly, peaceful and in keeping with the constitutional right of citizens to petition." He said the group planned to ask for a state Fair Employment Practices commission and immediate recognition of Negroes in North Carolina's policy-making bodies.

Charlotte News, Backing Gov. Dewey, Supports Democratic State Nominees

CHARLOTTE, Oct. 25.—(UP)—The Charlotte News, which broke a 60-year-old tradition by endorsing GOP presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey last week, today gave "enthusiastic" support to Southern Democrats on the congressional and state level.

"The regional problems peculiar to the South will be more safely handled by the experienced, qualified Democratic congressmen and senators who have served the area so well in the past," the News said in an editorial.

"With a Republican administration and Congress in prospect, it is even more imperative that the South continue its congressional affiliation with the Democratic party until such time

Institute Slates Three-Day Meet For Jailers Here

If you're considering robbery, house-breaking or violence of any kind in Chapel Hill this week, it might be wise to sit tight until a more opportune time.

Why? Well, it seems that the Institute of Government has scheduled a three-day course in jail management for county and city jailers throughout the state, and from all indications, the community is going to be pretty heavily populated with The Law for the next few days.

The program, which gets underway tomorrow afternoon, is the first of its kind to be sponsored by a state agency. The institute and the state Department of Public Welfare, in working out the six-session school, have arranged a number of lectures and demonstrations for the enrollees. There will be discussions on jail management and inspection, the legal rights of prisoners, sanitation problems, and a panel discussion on jail operation.

Lecturers and speakers for the series will include members of the State Bureau of Investigation, the attorney general's office and the state Department of Public Health. Albert Coates, director of the institute, will address the opening meeting.

Closing exercises will be held Friday morning when presentation of certificates will take place. The visitors will be housed at the institute barracks on the Raleigh road during their stay in Chapel Hill.

Closing exercises will be held Friday morning when presentation of certificates will take place. The visitors will be housed at the institute barracks on the Raleigh road during their stay in Chapel Hill.

The editorial specifically praised Democratic Senator-Nominee J. Melville Broughton, Governor-Nominee Kerr Scott, and Rep. Hamilton Jones, who is seeking re-election, adding:

"Throughout the list of local, state and congressional offices, the Democratic party is offering men in whom the voters can place their trust."

The afternoon paper's endorsement of the Dewey-Warren presidential slate last week was the first time since the News began publication 60 years ago that it gave opposition to the Democratic slate.

College Students Withstand Siege Over Dismissals

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 25.—(UP)—Three-hundred students, including 13 coeds, barricaded themselves inside San Marcos university today as a protest against the dismissal of left-wing students and professors.

The executive council of the student federation called on students throughout the country to join the walkout, but there was no immediate indication that the strike was spreading.

Mounted police cordoned off the San Marcos university buildings, but made no effort to force the students out. Water and electric power were cut off, however.

Student sympathizers outside the university threw food packages to strikers in the windows at dusk. Girl strikers set up a kitchen in the chemistry laboratory.

The strike was called as a protest against the dismissal and in some cases the arrest of students and faculty members belonging to the left-wing People's party (APRA).

Jacques Hardre To Deliver Talk At YWCA Meet

Dr. Jacques Hardre of the University of French department will tell of his experiences in France at the YWCA coffee klatch in the Y office this evening at 7:30. Last summer Dr. Hardre studied at the Sorbonne in Paris. While there he toured various parts of France, including Normandy, Brittany and Caen. Before he returned to the United States on Sept. 14, Dr. Hardre met another Tar Heel, Dr. James Godfrey, professor of history.

After studying in Paris until 1936, Dr. Hardre returned to this country to receive his A.B. at Guilford college in 1937, and his A.M. here in 1941. He received his Ph.D. here early in June.

Wider Street

According to a resolution adopted by the Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen at a special meeting Friday night, Kenan street, which connects Cameron avenue and West Franklin street west of the bus station will be widened five feet on either side. An additional five feet will be left for sidewalks.

Mayor R. W. Madry said that the adoption grew out of a request for a permit to erect a building at the corner of Kenan and West Franklin street. The new building, which is being built by Brack Creel, is to be a restaurant.
