Sports Final

VOLUME LVII

United Press

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1948

Phone F-3371-F-3361

Indians Ambush Tar Heels Into 7-7 Tie

Deacs Top Duke With 27-20 Upset

Gregus, Blackerby Star in Win As Wake Forest Overcomes Jinx

DURHAM, Nov. 6 .- (UP)-Wake Forest beat Duke today for the second time in 24 years, scoring a sweet 27 to 20 upset by mixing little Carroll Blackerby's soaring passes with big Bill Gregus' bone-cracking lunges at the line. Only 20,000 fans turned out for .- the struggle between the traditional rivals as a strong wind swept the field and lowering clouds threatened rain. The gloomy weather held down the scoring in the first half but both teams went all out at the finish.

The climax brought everybody to his feet as Duke surged 81 yards to a touchdown only to lose out when Wake Forest matched that one with a spectacular 77yard kickoff return by Gregus.

score with the game little more ing minutes. than three minutes old.

Left halfback Bill Gregus, an old-fashioned line-smasher, slammed over from the two behind flawless blocking. Tackle Bill the burden all afternoon against George converted.

Duke's big line led the Blue Devils back in the second period until fullback Jack Mounie, Duke's big gun of the game, bulled over from the one. The kick was no good.

a fumble on the Wake Forest 21. Tailback Bill Cox, surrounded by outside the loop. the enemy, leaped high in the air and speared halfback Tommy tle-used halfback heretofore, add-Hughes in the end zone.

Student Scalpers Have Hard Time Selling Tickets

Automobiles were not the only Reid. thick traffic on Franklin street vesterday morning as scalpers, yards over the goal to put the five deep, attempted to get rid of homelings back in the ball-game. Carolina-William and Mary foot- The Bulldogs went further ahead ball ducats which dropped in on Floyd Reid's two yard plunge price faster than the hands of the a few minutes later. Chuck Hun- ful but soon disillusioned Indians back Ogden Smith, however, who so much in evidence yesterday, punt return to score. partly because they knew the Versatile Joe Geri cemented vaders under an avalanche of on Virginia's 31. not relaxed its vigilance and quarter on his nonchalant 13- In command all the way be- after two penalties against Virpartly because they knew the yard stroll behind perfect, three- fore a crowd of 46,695, the all- ginia helped State reach the Vir- night at the University of Virgame would not be a sell-out.

end "I buy, sell or trade" mer- vards. chants was missing. Most of the ticket salesmen were students

One student stuck with 50-yard line seats remarked pessimistically that he was heading for Kenan stadium to try his luck there. "I think I'll have to let them go at 50 cents apiece before the game starts," he muttered.

VPI Still Down

LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 6. -(UP)-Washington and Lee spoiled game little Virginia Tech's hopes for a tie when they turned on the heat in the last period here today and forged ahead to win, 14-7, before 9,000 fans.

Tech, which hasn't won a game this fall, opened up first in the second period. Fullback Roger Neel headed a charging attack into Washington and Lee's suddenly crumbly line, finally bulling over from the seven-yard line, Tackle Ross Orr added the extra point, to shorter by seven feet than the room, top Tech's second touchdown

Georgia Tops Florida Crew Behinds Rauch Takes Loop Lead By 20-12 Victory

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6. -(UP)- Georgia's red-shirted followed by the winning score. Bulldogs took over the South-Duke's hold 'em and wait-for- eastern conference lead the hard the-breaks strategy fizzled from way today, scoring a 20 to 12 the start when the Blue Devils victory over Florida by dint of forgot to hold and Wake For- Johnny Rauch's passes and some est slammed over for the first hardy defensive work in the clos-

It took Rauch's accomplished flipper to set up the scores, but the Bulldog runners had to carry a fiery, ornery Florida line that played its best game of the sea-

It was Georgia's fourth league victory and, coupled with Georgia Tech's 13 to 6 loss to Tennessee, put the improving Bulldogs on Seconds later Duke recovered top of the conference. Their only loss has been to North Caroline Sophomore Billy Mixon, a lited spectacular ground support to Rauch's overhead brilliance.

Rauch gave Georgia first blood in the initial period on a one-yard quarterback sneak after setting up the maneuver with long passes to ends Bob Walston and Gene Lorendo and halfback Floyd

Florida's Johnny Cox bulled 10 clock dropped toward game time. singer kept Florida threatening one of their worst gridiron de- engineered the longest play of State Bureau of Investigation had Georgia's margin in the third touchdowns for a 43 to 0 triumph.

to palm off 50-yard line seats for champion team. The Bulldog for- miliate a club which hoped to Bozeman was good for the score, town university in Washington, as low as $3 and $5 each. They wards were outcharged and have history repeat. had a hard time giving away end- Rauch was forced to hurry all his Twice in the past Stanford had extra point. throws. The Yeardon, Pa., senior gone against a favored Army The familiar face wearing the eventually wound up with seven team and accomplished the al- in the second period after tailred tie, one of the habitual week- completions in 15 tries for 121 most impossible by upsetting the Georgia Coach Wally Butts tear- nation, rolled over them without through tackle on the next play. ing his hat and hair all afternoon. effort.

The air circus boasts a series of acts with special-built aero-batic airplanes, parachute jumpers, airplane-automobile and combinations. This will be the first time an act of this type has been attempted in the Orange

Pilots, Stuntmen Scheduled

Pilots and stunt men of the airplane itself.

To Show Aerial Tricks Today

Deaton Air Circus will take to In addition, the Thrasher broth-the sky at the Chapel Hill air- ers will pickup a man from the port this afternoon at 3 o'clock. top of a car by an airplane with

Featured on the 12-act program by Bill Pritchard, Air Circus will be the Thrasher brothers chairman of the Monogram club.

who will land a Piper airplane on Tickets will go on sale at the

the top of a speeding automobile. airport entrance at 11 o'clock

Known as the "World's Smallest this morning, Proceeds from the Airport" the landing platform is show will go to decorating and built on the top of a car and is re-furnishing the Monogram club-

IN STEP WITH EACH OTHER, Charlie Justice and his escort, Paul Rizzo, embark on a short journey through the William and Mary tacklers. The run occurred early in the first quarter of the battle which saw the underdog Indians tie the late-starting Tar Heels under cloudy skies at Kenan yesterday. -(Photo by Mills)

Virginia Defeats

Maryland Wins

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 6. -(UP)-A wiry mudder named Vic Turyn gave Maryland a 19 to 7 "form" victory over South Carolina today before a soggy homecoming crowd of 12,000 fans.

In the second period, the Terrapin quarterback slung a short flat pass out to end Bob Betz for a touchdown and a few plays later he scooped up his own fumble at the Carolina three and fell across for another tally.

Gamecock Steve Wadiak thrilled the little assemblage with a 65-yard scoring gallop in the final quarter,

Army Rolls Over Stanford, 43-0

Army's undefeated football pow- or four yards almost every time erhouse handed Stanford's hope- they tried. It was State Wing-

Cadets. They had hoped to do it stalled State kick on the Wolf-Jimmy Kynes, the shoulder- again today but this Army club, pack 42 and ran back to State's tackling 'Gator linebacker, kept with the first set of backs in the a ladder dangling from the wing

The duo will fly an airplane

In order that spectators may while sitting out on the wing strut with no one in the cockpit.

view the show at close range, approval to park the cars on the airport property has been given and replace him on the car.

Wolfpack, 21-14 State Homecoming Crowd Watches

Papit Spark Cavalier Victory RALEIGH, Nov. 6-(UP)-Virginia had to depend on the savage line jabs of fullback Johnny Papit and almost forget her dazzling aerial attack today to beat a stubborn North Carolina State Wolfpack, 21-14, before some 12,000 disappointed State homecoming fans. Penalties studded through the game slowed up both attacks, and a strong cross-field wind all but Slates Debates ruined most of the passing at-fighting State line steadily to punch out first-down gains. State's tailback Bill Thompson and fullback Dick Johnson crack-NEW YORK, Nov. 6 .- (UP)- ed the Virginia defenses for three tempts. But Papit jolted into the

when they buried the western in- yard pass to end Freddie Miller Yates, Rockingham; Herbert State scored in the first period Roth, Asheville. conquering cadets scored in just ginia seven-yard line. Thompson's The vendors desperately tried | Georgia didn't look like a about every way possible to hu- bullet pass to wingback Oscar night the squad will be at George-

> Virginia struck back quickly Thursday at Princeton. back Stephen Osisek took a wind-26. Tailback Bernard Gill broke cut wide to the right and ran the rest of the way to the end zone.

the Virginians. the winds lulled.

Four-Man Sauad

In Northern Tour A four-man University debate squad will leave Monday for a northern tour that will take in four states and the District of Columbia and includes debates

Members of the squad are Dave Professional scalpers were not with a winding, flashy 64-yard feats at Yankee stadium today the game when he armed a 47-Mitchell, Asheville, and Paul

> The tour will open Monday ginia in Charlottesville. Tuesday and guard Jim Byler kicked the Wednesday afternoon at the University of Pennsylvania, and

SP Weekly Meeting Set Hour Earlier

The Student party will hold its weekly meeting an hour earlier than usual tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Roland Parker lounge Left end Carlton Eliott kicked of Graham Memorial. The floor the first of three extra points for will be open for nominations for junior class and legislative of-Osisek got Virginia's passes fices. The fall elections will be Clowning Footballers Turn Pep Rally ceptional game, was the spokes- to quote." Into Sidesplitting Comedy Session

the Forest theater ate it up.

carefully planned or not certainly wasn't evident because such stars as Weiner, Cox, Justice, Rodgers, Fowle, Stiegman and Joe Romano kept the 1,500 students in stitches for over 15 min-know how easy it would be to his proboscis with his hand, selves for what they termed the We made bad breaks for ourturn their pep rally skit over to Stiegman said, "There's been a "defeat." Charlie Justice, not in selves. It was bound to come. It half a dozen clowning footballers rumor that all these great catches too gay a mood commented, "I'm was coming closer and closer Friday night, but the crowd in Art's been making have been be- running 20 laps tomorrow. I bet with every game." around in his nose."

In speaking of Cox, Weiner had been coming all along."

playing field, slow and stop," Romano made the crack of the ing an alibi, had an explanation ing the final period, "Carolina has evening when he remarked, "Our for the game. "We made too many some fine break-away runners offensive team's heading for the fumbles, had too many penalties, and if they had intercepted one Sugar bowl and we're going to and just didn't play like we of our passes that would have send the defensive team to the should have." William and Mary meant the end of the game for

Statistics Edge Rodgers Gets Local Touchdown

Carolina Boasts

Before 43,000 Surprised Fans

By Dick Jenrette

William and Mary's Indians, pre-game underdogs by 27 points, provided the surprise of the 1948 football season on a gloomy Saturday afternoon in Kenan stadium yesterday by tying mighty Carolina, 7-7, before 43,000 stunned spectators who turned out for the Southern conference battle.

Thus it was that Carolina's string of 13 consecutive victories, six of which were scored this season, came to a painful end. Ironically enough, the victory streak was begun against this same William and Mary team up in Williamsburg, Va., last year.

State Upsets Pennsylvania In 13-0 Fight

Rogel Is Spark In Lion Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6-(UP)-A clawing Penn State Nittany Lion came out of central ern giants, thrashed Pennsyl- statistics standpoint. Coach Carl no doubt it was authentic.

FOOTBALL SCORES

North Carolina 7, Wm. & Mary 7.

l'ennessee 13, Georgia Tech 6,

Geo. Wash. 14, The Citadel 0.

Maryland 19, South Carolina 7.

Alabama 27, Mississippi Southern 0.

EAST

Virginia 21, N. C. State 14.

Richmond 6. Davidson 0.

Miss. State 20, Auburn 0.

Wash, and Lee 14, VPI 7.

Kentucky 13. Villanova 13.

Mississippi 34, Chattanooga 7,

Vanderbilt 48, LSU 7.

Army 43, Stanford 0.

Cornell 14. Colgate 6.

Penn State 13, Penn 0.

Princeton 47, Harvard 7.

Temple 20, Syracuse 0.

Weslevan 28, Williams 7

Michigan 35, Navy 0.

Illinois 14, Iowa 0.

Iowa State 2, Drake 0.

SMU 20, Texas A&M 14.

Oklahoma 41, Missouri 7

California 28, UCLA 13,

Oklahoma A&M 19, Tulsa 0,

Colorado 28, Utah State 14.

Arizona 14, New Mexico 6.

Oregon 13, Washington 7,

Rice 25. Arkansas 6.

Texas 13, Baylor 10

Boston U. 33, Fordham 7.

Holy Cross 16, Duquesne 13,

New Hampshire 27, Tufts 18,

Dartmouth 26, Columbia 21.

West Virginia 48, Ohio U. 6.

Notre Dame 42, Indiana 6,

Ohio State 41, Pittsburgh 0.

Northwestern 16, Wisconsin 7,

Nebraska 32, Kansas State 0.

SOUTHWEST

FAR WEST

By Buddy Vaden

Cox Explains

Michigan State 47. Marquette 0

Wash. & Jefferson 18, Bucknell 13.

MIDWEST

Tulane 28. VMI 7.

Clemson 41, Furman 0.

Georgia 20, Florida 12.

in its own power, undefeated big Carolina line. A look at the Penn State outrushed, outpassed, game statistics would indicate a and outplayed Penn and then rather convincing Tar Heel trisprang fullback Francis Rogel for umph. two touchdowns to run their own streak to 16 games without a day played what constituted a powerhouse, scored State's first touchdown in the second period when he darted 44 yards. His sec-Penn's 14-game streak and marked their first loss in six starts this season, was one which had to be seen to be believed.

It came after six minutes of the fourth period and was a combination of deception at the start, and the benefit of only one first down, Chuck Drazenovich who in turn Tar Heel fumbles, and (3) Carowee lad with the mighty arm.

Petchel, who completed seven passes, completing only seven for of the 15 for the game, whipped 83 yards. the ball 13 yards into the end zone. There was Rogel. He leaped |

The game was played under similar conditions to last year's Wake Forest-Carolina struggle in Kenan. The skies were overcast, and showers plagued the fans and players throughout the afternoon. Wake Forest won last season's dreary game, but fortunately the Tar Heels survived without defeat yesterday.

So, the team still remains undefeated with the next objective being Maryland in Washington, D. C., this coming weekend.

Carolina Dominates Statistics The amazing thing about the Pennsylvania's mountains today game was Carolina's complete and in a battle of unbeaten East- domination of the game from a vania, 13-0, in a victory that left | Snavely's men marched to 17 first downs while William and Mary Buoyed by implicit confidence could muster but one through the

But William and Mary yesternear perfect game. The Indians Rogel, a strapping 196-pound simply made no mistakes. Never was Carolina able to recover a fumble or intercept a pass anywhere near the Indian goal, and always there were the booming yards per try on his boots in the second to drop to a 43.0 average. Perhaps these are the main reasons that William and Mary, with juggling acrobatics at the finish. was able to tie Carolina: (1) The First Rogel took the pass from Indians intercepted four Carolina center, handed off to quarterback passes, (2) They recovered three handed off to Elwood Petchel, the lina's passing game was off form. The Tar Heels attempted 26

first half, but slowed down in the

Tech Goes Down

Carolina, however, wasn't the into the air, juggled the ball, only highly-touted Southern team let it slide along his chest and to take its bumps. Georgia Tech, held it. All this came with two last week termed by Duke Coach defenders trying to take it away. Wallace Wade as "The best team Rogel with diminutive Petchel. I've ever seen," bit the dust as was the offensive star as the Tennessee scored a 13-6 victory Lions outrushed Penn 141 to 28, over the previously unbeaten En-

Clemson now remains the only unbeaten, untied outfit in the Southern conference. The Tigers must get by a strong Wake For-For Tie With William and Mary must get by a strong Wake Forthe loop title. So, Carolina's chances for the honor are still The Indians scored first yester-

(See CAROLINA, page 4)

Mostly It Rained

DAVIDSON, Nov. 6 .- (UP) -Mostly it rained, but Richmond blocked a Davidson punt in time to win, 6-0, before some 7,500 soaked and unhappy Davidson homecoming fans here today.

Both teams sloshed around futilely and couldn't get started at all as the continuous showers turned Richardson field into one big puddle and the ball into an elusive pill. Davidson tried desperatedy to come back in the fourth period, but a series of frantic passes armed off by fullback Bert Anderton ended up six inches of a first down on the

are urged to attend.

Whether the whole thing was Weiner seemed to be a little Orange bowl."

cause he's been carrying footballs I'll be in shape next week. We said, "Bob has two speeds on the

"You win some, you lose some, Larry Klosterman, not too hapand some are rained out!" That py about the results, declared, seemed to be the general opinion "I'm gonna sell peanuts at the going in the third period when discussed. All interested students of the Tar Heels after tying Wil- next game." Chan Highsmith pipliam and Mary, 7-7, yesterday, ed in with, "Anything I say about Art Weiner, who played an ex- this game you wouldn't be able man for the team as they entered | Coach Snavely had an answer

Gridders Blame Themselves

the dressing room after the game. for it. Said he, "When a team has On the whole, Coach Carl a day like that they're lucky to The University club didn't "nose-conscious" as he concealed Snavely's boys blamed them- come out of the game with a tie.

McCray Comments Indian coach Rube McCray, un-were just lucky to pull a tie. It derstandably elated over the outcome, explained why William and Bob Cox, although not offer- Mary didn't take to the air durhad a good club, but they weren't (See LOCKER ROOM, page 4)