

ATTENDING A DINNER in honor of Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, military aide to the chief executive, President Truman, speaking at the Army-Navy Country club, Washington, bitterly challenged "any S.O.B. who thinks he can get me to discharge any of my staff or cabinet by some smart aleck statement over the air." The President is shown with Gen Vaughan (left), Mrs Omar Bradley and Gen. E. A. Evans. The official White house text was later altered from "S.O.B." to read "any one."
