Drive for UJA Opens Today For One Week

Cohen Is Chairman; $1,600 Goal Set

The seven-day 1949 campus drive for the United Jewish Appeal will open here tomorrow with a goal set at $1,600, drive chairman Larry Cohen announced yesterday.

Funds raised by the UJA support the program of the Joint Distribution committee for the relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction of Jewish communities in Europe and North Africa.

Other branches of the UJA include the work of the United Palestine Appeal, which carries on the immigration, settlement and economic development projects in the State of Israel and the activities of the United Service for New Americans, which offers reception, placement and adjustment services to all newcomers to this country.

During the past ten years the United Jewish Appeal raised and spent more than $503,000,000, a record sum for any voluntary agency, to speed its relief, rehabilitation and resettlement programs.

In announcing the opening day of the drive, Cohen said, "Displaced persons camps in Europe, a legacy of 12 years of Nazi oppression, can be completely emptied of Jewish refugees this year if the American Jewish community goes over the top in the drive of the UJA for refugees, overseas needs and settlement in Israel."

He continued, "The campus goal has been set at $1,600. This is a small quota for such a big job. Persons who wish to contribute and who have not been contacted by workers may make their contributions at the Hill office, second floor of the YMCA building."

A Discussion of the Student Party Platform Which Favors Some Things and Will Strive to Improve Others.

TODAY WINDS UP OUR SERIES of discussions concerning the platforms of the three campus political parties which they all pledge to execute faithfully, if placed in power by the student body next Tuesday. The Student party platform is a trifle long to be discussed in full. The major points we will take up. The rest may be read on any of the bright red and black posters hanging around campus.

The SP will oppose abolishment of the appellate power and will strive to provide facilities formerly rendered by the scuttle-but. They favor a single community chest on campus, favor the Traffic committee's program but are against limitation of student cars.

Other planks favor the underwrite of $1,000 to the Carolina quarterly from the unappropriated reserve, improvement of infirmary library, instructor evaluation system and recreation rooms in men's dormitories.

The final plank on the SP pledge calls for a committee of student leaders to work with the Student Legislature toward the "satisfactory solution of student problems."

Carolina Delegation Sees Webb, Acheson

By Chuck Hauser
WASHINGTON, March 30—The five-man student delegation that journeyed to this city to witness the senatorial installation ceremonies of Dr. Graham yesterday, spent 20 minutes in the office of James E. Webb and five minutes with Dean Acheson following the ceremonies on the floor of the Senate.

Jess Dedmond, who headed the delegation, Bill Miller, Wayne Brenngan, Gus Johnston and Ray Jefferies were ushered into Webb's office at exactly 2:55 yesterday afternoon for a "five minute" conference which turned out to last 20 minutes.

Dedmond said he called Webb's office after the ceremony for an appointment and was informed that the under-secretary of state would have a "busy afternoon."

But the group was lucky. A later call proved successful and they were told that they would be allowed five minutes beginning at 2:55.

According to Dedmond, "We were ushered in at 3 o'clock and engaged in a most pleasant conversation for a total of 20 minutes. We talked mostly about Dr. Frank during the meeting. The delegation was delighted with Mr. Webb's apparent ability and pleasant personality and especially his interest in the University."

Webb escorted the group into Secretary of State Acheson's office and introduced them. Dedmond said, "Acheson was very suave and looked like a diplomat. Our major impression of him came from his interest in Dr. Graham. Both were high in their praise of the new Senator."
