

EDITORIALS

Careful Study Needed
It's Time To Choose
Good Word For The Dean

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER
Clear and Cooler

VOLUME LVII

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. SUNDAY, APRIL 3, 1949

Phone F-3371-F-3361

NUMBER 133

PETER GERNS, CAM WEST AND KYLE BARNES, left to right above, are candidates for the Men's Honor council and the Student council. Gerns is running as a tri-partisan board nominee for the Men's council. West is running on the SP slate and Barnes on the UP ticket for the Student council

YWCA Names Chandler To Head New Officers

Ann Chandler of Macon, Ga., who was named president of the YWCA last Thursday night, called her first meeting of new officers for 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the YW office. The recently elected officials will discuss plans for the coming year and will consider appointments to the new cabinet. Miss Chandler said yesterday that she expects to release names of cabinet members within two weeks.

Miss Chandler, a transfer student from Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., is a member of the Spark Plug committee of the Y, was president of Pi Phi pledge class, and is a member of the Woman's council. She defeated Kitty Altizer of Christiansburg, Va., and Peace College, who as runner-up automatically became vice-president. Miss Altizer has served on the social service committee of the Y, the Daily Tar Heel staff, and is a member of the International Relations club.

The secretarial position went to Jean Serpell of Daytona Beach, Fla., who is on the social service committee and was elected outstanding pledge of Tri Delta. Ruth Whalen, who was named treasurer, came to the university from Wilson and Stephens college. She is a member of the social service committee, Carolina Quarterly staff, and Pi Phi sorority, and is a student adviser for next year.

Julie Compton transfer from Chevy Chase junior college, is the new membership chairman. She is on the campus affairs committee and a member of the Y cabinet and of the Coed senate. Salley Osborne became program chairman. She came here from Jacksonville, Ill., and Illinois college, and is on the social committee, chairman of Woman's Orientation, and vice-president and model pledge of the Alpha Gams.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

- Today
- 8:00 & 10:00—CATHOLIC Mass. Gerrard hall.
 - 4:00—COSMOPOLITAN Club.
 - 5:30—LENTEN Service. Gerrard hall.
 - 8:00—CAROLINA Political Union. Grail room, GM.
 - 8:00—DEEP RIVER Singers. Hill hall.
- Tomorrow
- 1:00—NOON WATCH. Gerrard hall.
 - 5:15—LENTEN Service. Episcopal church.
 - 7:00—YMCA General Membership Meeting. Officers will be elected. Gerrard hall.
 - 7:00—MEDICAL Fraternity. Horace Williams lounge, GM.
 - 7:30—UVA MONTHLY Business Meeting. Clubhouse.
 - 7:30—DANCING class. Rendezvous room, GM.
 - 8:00—CHI DELTA Phi. Horace Williams lounge, GM.
 - 8:00—STUDENT Party. Roland Parker 1, GM.
 - 8:30—"APPLE TREE FARM" Playmakers theater.
 - 8:30—PIANO RECITAL. William Sasser will play. Hill hall.
 - 8:30—CAMPUS Party. Horace Williams lounge, GM.

Valkyrie Sing; Honor Tapping To be April 25

The date for the annual Valkyrie Sing and Fleece tapping is set for Monday night at 8 o'clock, April 25, in Memorial hall, Teeny Royall, co-chairman of this year's program said yesterday.

Each campus organization is asked to participate in the Sing by carrying out a theme in its selection of songs and staging. Loving cups will be awarded to the winner of the men's group and the women's group.

The Valkyries will have a lighting technician to help each organization with its staging, and a rehearsal time of thirty minutes can be arranged with the use of lights, Miss Royall said.

Organizations are asked to submit the theme and songs that they will use to Miss Royall as soon as possible, Sue Stokes, co-chairman with Miss Royall urged. She said this request was made in order to prevent duplication of songs, but not necessarily duplication of themes.

Entrants will be judged on a point system, the chairmen announced. Music, which constitutes 65 per cent of the points, will be judged on arrangement, balance, blend, performance, relativity to theme, and musicianship. Other items which will be considered by the judges are originality, 20 points, staging, 10 points, and costumes and props, five points.

Rules set up by the Valkyries state that a minimum of eight persons can be used by a group, and that no soloists will be allowed. Each member must sing and not be merely a part of a pantomime. Also each participant must be an active member of the organization he represents.

Pantomime is allowed, but no dances or dialogue, and accompaniment is permissible. Rules limit performances to nine minutes, and a maximum of $5 may be spent on costumes, and props. Only hand props will be allowed.

Bill Hipple to Run As Independent For High Council

Bill Hipple, rising senior from Philadelphia announced his candidacy yesterday as an independent candidate for the Student council as Men's representative.

A member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, Hipple is president of the Young Republicans club and is a pre-med student. He has been a member of the elections board and served on the Tar Heel in 1941. During the war, he was in the Coast Guard.

In announcing his candidacy, Hipple said, "I feel that more candidates should be running independently in order to free student government from the perennial career student politician who seeks office for personal glory."

CPU Will Discuss Political Parties

The Carolina Political union will discuss "Campus Political Parties—Their Importance and Differences" at the regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the Grail room in Graham Memorial. Visitors are always welcome and a special invitation is extended to campus political leaders and others interested in politics.

Herb Alexander, chairman, announced that there are several vacancies in the Union, and that applications can be obtained from him or at the YMCA desk. Anyone interested is asked to see him as soon as possible.

Ritchie, Geiger Have Leads

'Farm' To Open Tomorrow Night

By Betsy Baunk
Estelle Ritchie of Boston, who claims her actress sister is the real comedian in the family, will defy that claim again tomorrow night when she plays Annie Turner, the female comedy lead in "Apple Tree Farm."

This will be the third comedy part Miss Ritchie has copped since she came to Carolina in the fall as assistant to Sam Selden, director of the University's Dramatic Art department. Her other roles have been Trina in "I Remember Mama," Mrs. Candour in "School for Scandal," and one of the Irish biddies in the one-act experimental "Dearie, You're A Dream." After eight years of serious parts in amateur and professional theater performances of Shakespeare and modern dress dramas, Estelle welcomes the change-over.

Playing opposite Miss Ritchie will be James Geiger of Miami, Fla., as Andy Merrillee, a no-good, horse-betting shoe clerk who can't seem to like the right people or things and, consequently, gets into more jams than a high school freshman. Jim, who holds the record for student performances with the Playmakers, will make his 41st bow on the Carolina stage.

Other leading roles in "Apple Tree Farm," will be handled by George Grizzard (Bob Vate), Washington, D. C.; Anne G. Martin (Myra Manning), Cherokee; Sam Greene (John Darrell), Shelby; and Elizabeth Stoney (Angela Farris), Winston-Salem. Supporting roles will be filled by Bill Collins (Jake), Des Moines,

Musical Program Set For Tonight

The original Deep River singers, known as the Ebonaires, will appear tonight at 8 o'clock in Hill hall. The musical program, sponsored by Graham Memorial, will feature selections varying from spirituals and folksongs to those by Gershwin.

The program will be a revival of the same type of entertainment that attained popular support by students before the war. Mike Rolader, president of the club and head of the committee, said that "Music Under the Stars" would be alternated from week to week with a "Campus Sing."

Recorded music for tonight's presentation will be drawn from Phillip Couch's collection and from Graham Memorial which is co-sponsor of the project.

Next week the "Campus Sing" will be staged with a campus organization presenting skits. Charleen Greer is in charge of arrangements, and groups have been asked to contact her for future billings.

Rolader said yesterday that the program grew out of many requests by students to re-institute the weekend affair. He said, "We feel that 'Music Under the Stars' and the 'Campus Sing' can again be a favorite feature of weekend entertainment. If it gains support this week, we hope to continue it through the spring."

The chairman added that the Forest theater site was ideal since it would fit perfectly with the informal theme, and refreshment facilities are near by in the Circus room of the Monogram club.

In case of rain, he said, the program will be cancelled.

Moscow's Charges Are Thrown Out By Western Powers

WASHINGTON, April 2—(UP)—The 12 North Atlantic powers today rejected Moscow's charge that they are banding together for aggression against Russia. They approved the final draft of their defensive alliance and went ahead with plans to sign it Monday.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson and the foreign ministers of the 11 other western powers put their final okay on the treaty text at a two-hour conference in the State department auditorium, where the formal signing will take place.

When they emerged, they issued a joint communique dismissing as a complete "misrepresentation" the protest sent from the Kremlin on Thursday.

"The pact is not directed against any nation or group of nations, but only against armed aggression," it said.

Armstrong Will Represent UNC at Chicago Conference

Roy Armstrong, director of admissions, will again represent the University at the fourth annual National Conference on Higher Education. He left yesterday for Chicago, and is expected to return next Friday.

Having worked with the admission group last year, Armstrong will serve as consultant to the study group which will consider "Admission Policies and Procedures."

Tomorrow the participant will form 29 work groups to devote intensive study for three days to educational problems. Approximately 150 college and university staff members will be leaders for these groups, serving as speakers, chairmen, reporters, recorders or consultants.

Final sessions will be held next Thursday to hear reports and recommendations from group chairmen.

Edward K. Graham, acting dean of faculties at Washington University in St. Louis and son of a former president of the University is a member of the conference planning committee, as is J. D. Messick, president of Eastern Carolina Teachers college.

Lanier, Madry To Run For Mayor Of Village

PICTURED ABOVE ARE the Ebonaires, the original Deep River singers, who will appear in Hill hall tomorrow at 8 o'clock. The musical program which will be sponsored by Graham Memorial, will feature a variety of vocals, ranging from Southern spirituals and folksongs to those by Gershwin. The public is invited to attend.

GM Offers Quarett Tonight In Hill Hall

From 9 to 11 o'clock tonight in the Forest theater the University club will present "Music Under the Stars," an informal program of recorded classical and popular music. It will include such favorites as "Workin' on de Railroad," "Shortnin' Bread," "Old Man River," and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot."

The quartet is composed of Merton Smith, tenor; Albert Yarborough, tenor; Earle Robinson, baritone; and James Lapsley, bass. Elmer Thomas is the accompanist. In addition to their ensemble work, each member is a soloist.

The Ebonaires have done extensive singing throughout North Carolina, and frequently have given radio performances. Students and townspeople are invited to attend the musical concert tonight.

Officials' Wives To Visit The Hill

The Sir Walter cabinet, composed of wives of State officials, will visit the University Tuesday, Chancellor R. B. House said yesterday. The group will attend a luncheon at the Monogram club at 1:15 o'clock, and a tea at the Carolina Inn at 4:15 that afternoon.

The cabinet members will tour the University campus, giving special attention to the Arboretum. Over 35 guests are expected, House said.

Political Front with Charles McCorkle

This Is Your Last Chance—Don't Miss It

FOR THOSE STUDENTS WHO DID NOT HAVE TIME or just didn't give a damn about going to the last couple of meetings at which the top candidates for political office spoke, we have good news: You have another chance. Tonight at 6 o'clock at the Baptist church, the three candidates for president of the student body will make short talks. The Baptist Student union, sponsors, have invited all students to come to the BSU supper meeting and hear Dick Gordon (UP), Charlie Long (CP) and Bill Mackie (SP) put in their bids for the campus vote.

Only the presidential candidates will speak, but all candidates are urged to be present, because after the talks, there will be a question and answer period at which all candidates present will be asked to participate.

On That Question of Co-Editors—Good or Bad? FOR THOSE PERSONS ON CAMPUS WHO HEARD that most of the people who have been in publications for any length of time around here are against any sort of co-editors or board of editors of any publication—it's true. And there are a lot of good reasons for it that any of us can tell you. Just for fun, ask Tom Wharton, who is co-editor of Tarnation now. He will give you the straight scoop. And he's a man who should know, if anybody does.

But our point: We were perusing the files of the Daily Tar Heel the other day and found this item in the issue of March 23, 1937: "The Student Council, in a Graham Memorial session late last night, defeated the plan of the Carolina Magazine to elect two editors by declaring co-editorship repugnant to the Publication union's constitution and therefore illegal."

Odds and Ends of Incidental Information IN CASE SOME OF YOU INTERESTED PEOPLE didn't know it, election day comes on Tuesday of this week. Many of you haven't been too interested in the proceedings up to now, but for the sake of your student government and mine, please go to the poles and vote. It won't take you but a minute.

Here we go with the rumor mill again: It looks pretty certain from this corner that Al Lowenstein, Student party candidate for vice-president, is being backed in his race by such people as Tom Eller, former president of the student body (SP-CP), Bill Miller, chairman of the Orientation committee who ran for the presidency on the UP ticket a couple of years ago, Emily Baker, speaker of the Coed senate, and Fernie Hughes, president of the Pan Hellenic council.

Graham Memorial is discriminating against politicians! We don't care what Bob Watson said in yesterday's paper, that sign is still down there—the one in the office that says, "Political Mimeographing Will NOT Be Accepted."

Whitfield Files For Re-election As Local Judge

Manning Seeks Post In Recorders Court

Chapel Hill's municipal elections have all the promise of a real campaign this year with Edwin Lanier, head of the University Central Records department opposing incumbent Bob Madry for the post of mayor and John Manning opposing Judge Henry Whitfield for the Recorder's court judgeship.

Incumbent aldermen R. B. Fitch and R. L. Fowler are seeking re-election to the board while Mrs. Roland McClamrock and Kenneth Putman are running for positions for the first time. Mrs. McClamrock is the first woman to run for the position.

The successful candidate for mayor will serve for a period of two years, the aldermen will serve for four years, and the Judge of Recorder's court will occupy his position for two years.

Election books will open for the registration of new electors April 16 and will remain open to April 23. April 23 will be challenge day for the registration procedure. The registration will be under the direction of J. R. Green, and Mrs. J. R. Crawford and Mrs. Paul Robertson will act as judges.

Registration books will be open from 9 to 9 o'clock on Saturday during the registration period, and 9 to 5 o'clock on weekdays. All registration will take place in the fire department of Town Hall.

In announcing his candidacy for re-election, Mayor Madry stated, "I shall stand on the record of the town government for the last several years, bearing in mind that proper credit should be given the aldermen, the town manager and other appointive officers, and the other municipal employees. Chapel Hill has been fortunate, I feel, in that it has had exceptionally able aldermen and a most capable town manager.

"There is reason to believe," he continued, "that this contest will be conducted on a high plane. It appears that no particular issues are involved. The other candidates and I have been in agreement on most of the policies formulated in the meetings of the Board of Aldermen, and we seem to see eye-to-eye on plans for the future development of the community."

Naval Group Plans Meet Here Tonight

Members of the Naval Reserve Air unit will meet at 7:30 tonight in the NROTC annex, Lt. R. C. Simpson, officer in charge, said today.

Spirit Continues

"You can't keep a good man down," was the word yesterday from South building.

Sen. Frank P. Graham left his hotel room yesterday where he had been confined because of a severe cold to vote for the bill to extend the Marshall plan. Dr. Graham's office is keeping in closer contact with the Senate so that he can be present when a bill is put to vote.

In a call to Chapel Hill yesterday, Mrs. Graham said she and her husband would be unable to come to Chapel Hill this weekend as they had previously planned.

Doctors who examined the former president said he was "not seriously ill," a spokesman said.