Golden Fleece Taps Pritchard; 18th This Year

Graduate Started Blue-White Series

Bill Pritchard, former president of the Monogram Club who graduated last March, was tapped into the Order of the Golden Fleece this week, Fleece spokesman announced yesterday.

As president of the Monogram Club, Pritchard inaugurated the series of Blue-White games, the most recent of which was held last weekend.

The Fleece neophyte was initiated just one week after the men's honorary society took in 17 new members, a week ago Monday night. The organization took 16 students and one faculty member at that time, also retapping John J. Pritchard of Charlotte, a distinguished Fleece alumnus.

Pritchard has served as the student representative on the Athletic Council, the governing board of the entire University athletic program.

He played end on the Tar Heel football squad from 1945 to 1947, and also participated in varsity swimming.

Pritchard was tapped at the regular annual Fleece function more than a week ago since he was away from the campus on a Naval cruise.

'Fashion Plate' Contest to End On Friday at 1

The "Miss Fashion Plate" contest, which has been underway on the campus for the past several weeks, will end Friday at 1 p. m. when the ballot boxes will be sealed.

The contest, which is being held on ten college campuses throughout the nation, is sponsored by the House of Revlon, a cosmetic concern of New York City.

The Carolina winner—and the nine other winners—will receive a one-week vacation trip to New York with training in fashion, style and makeup at the House of Revlon. In New York she will compete with the other winners for the national title of "Miss Fashion Plate." The finals will be judged by a board of prominent judges, all famous beauty and fashion authorities.

The girls on the Carolina campus who are now competing for the local title are:

Gene Frances Caraher, Gene Hines, Patty Ann Frizzell, Betsy Ross, Peggy Misenheimer, Bobbie Bess, Peggy Martin, Lorraine Howard, Betty Smith, and Louise Horner.

These girls were all chosen by a board of selection composed of students on the campus. All registered coeds, with the exception of seniors, are eligible. The candidates were chosen on a basis of personal grooming, individuality of dress, poise, personality, popularity and general appearance.

There are two ballot boxes for the contest: one in the lobby of Graham Memorial and the other in the Y lobby. Each voter must use the ballots that have been published in the Tar Heel and each voter must sign his name to his ballot.

YRC Elections Slated Tonight

The Young Republican Club will meet in the Grail Room tonight at 7 o'clock to elect officers for the coming school year, according to a statement released yesterday by Bill Hipple, present president of the club.

The offices to be voted on are president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Committee chairmen will also be named, Hipple said.

In addition to the election of officers, the club will choose a representative to the State Young Republican policy meeting which will be held in Chapel Hill Saturday, May 7. The group will also discuss and vote on the policy questions on the agenda for the Saturday policy meeting.

Coed Advisors To Hold Meet

Nearly 50 student advisors for next year's entering women students will hold the first session of a three week training program tonight in room 206 Phillips from 7 to 8 o'clock. Student adviser chairman Charleen Greer has emphasized the importance of each girl's attending.

Bill Miller, chairman of men's orientation last year, will discuss the overall program; Teenie Royal, last year's student adviser head, will discuss the role of the student adviser, and Miss Greer will outline what is expected of an adviser.

A secretary and a publicity chairman for the advisers will be elected at tonight's meeting, and each dorm group will choose a dormitory chairman. Meetings will also be held on the two succeeding Thursday nights in order to train the advisers.

Summer Session Registration Is Scheduled for May 4 to 14

Final notice on the preregistration dates for the Summer Session was announced today as follows:

Arts and Sciences, Graduate School, and School of Education; May 9-14, School of Pharmacy; May 9-12, General College; May 9-14, School of Commerce; May 4-14.

All students should see their faculty advisers between these dates to have the Green Forms prepared. Green Forms should be turned in to Registration Hall, Venable "X", no later than Saturday, May 14.

Summer preregistration may be for either term or both terms.

Phi Beta Kappa's Will Hear Craig Speak Thursday

Dr. Hardin Craig of the English Department will give the annual Phi Beta Kappa address at the University Convocation scheduled for next Thursday at 11 o'clock, Dean E. L. Mackie of student awards and scholarships, said yesterday. This is the third time Dr. Craig has delivered the Convocation address. He will speak on "The Problem of Progress."

Initiation of new members will be held next Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Gerrard Hall, Mackie said. Dean Dudley D. Carroll of the Commerce School will be guest speaker at a banquet that night at 7 o'clock in the Carolina Inn.

The public is invited to the Convocation address, and 11 o'clock classes will not meet that day. The student and faculty members of Phi Beta Kappa are invited to the initiation of new members and to the banquet.

Those attending the banquet must make reservations before noon Monday by seeing the General College secretary in 308 South, or by calling her at 9861.

Summer Session Registration Is Scheduled for May 4 to 14

Students who register for the first term only and later decide to register for the second term must wait until July 21 to register for the second session.

Students who do not plan to attend the Summer School, but who will return for the Fall Quarter, may preregister for the fall later in May.

All General College students who plan to attend one or both terms of the Summer School may make appointments with their advisers by signing an appointment sheet at the Information Desk, first floor of the South building today through Saturday morning, May 7.

Black robed and hooded figures, carrying lighted candles and tolling gongs, invaded women's dormitories to tap girls outstanding for their leadership, scholarship, character, and sound judgment.

One honorary member, law student Barbara Stockton, was chosen, and others include Emily Baker, Ann Chandler, Patricia Denning, Helen Eppes, Sally Osborne and Emily Sewell.

Emily Baker, a graduating senior from Asheville, has served as speaker of the Coed Senate, Y cabinet, critic and speaker pro tem of the Phi, and social chairman of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Ann Chandler is a rising senior from Macon, Ga., and will act as president of the YWCA next year. She has served on Woman's Council, Religious Emphasis week committee, Y worship committee, and is a Pi Beta Phi.

Newly elected speaker of Coed Senate, Patricia Denning is a rising senior hailing from Coral Gables, Fla. She has been a member of the business staff of the Daily Tar Heel and is an Alpha Delta Pi.

Helen Eppes will serve as chairman of Woman's Council next year. She was beauty editor for the Yackety Yack this year and is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Her home town is Henderson.

A native of Jacksonville, Ill., Sally Osborne is chairman of women's orientation, a member of student council, program chairman for the Y and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Emily Sewell, business manager of the Carolina Quarterly, is from Norfolk, Va. She is a member of Chi Delta Phi and of the Student Legislature.

Honorary member Barbara Stockton is a second year law student and has worked with the Y, Coed Senate and the alumnae group of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Present members of Valkyries include Sally Woodhull, president; Jo Butler, vice president; Teenie Royal, secretary; Fran Angas, treasurer, Mary Ann Daniel, alumnae secretary, and Ann Carlton, Lil Hotard, Randy Hudson, Eloise Jacob, Edie Knight and Sue Stokes. Honorary and

Y Jobs Forum Is Scheduled This Evening

The first in a series of Job Forums sponsored by the Careers Committee of the YWCA, which was postponed due to a conflict of meetings, will be held tonight in the Roland Parker Lounge No. 3, Graham Memorial at 7 o'clock. The other Job Forums in this series will be presented each Monday night of May.

The first job interview and its problems will be the topic under discussion on this first meeting, which will be conducted by Miss Twig Branch, personnel director in the Dean of Women's office and by Richard Calhoun of the Commerce School. Girls who will graduate and go in to the business world proper and girls who will be working at temporary summer jobs will be enlightened about problems and business situations which they may encounter and the most effective solutions.

The applicants point of view will be presented by Twig Branch, who worked at B. Altman's store in New York and at Rich's Inc. in Atlanta, Ga. She will speak on personal experience concerned with the interview and Mr. Calhoun, former manager of the Kendall Mills will present the employer's point of view.

Topics under consideration in the following Monday night sessions will be: "Dressing on a Salary," discussed by Mrs. Randolph of the Little Shop here, "The Use of Make-Up," described by Mrs. Sutton of Sutton's Drug Store, and "The Inner Personality" discussed by Dr. Arnold Nash of the University's department of religion.

Laundry Director Dies on Tuesday Of Heart Attack

Leonard B. "Spot" Collins, who for seven years was superintendent of the University laundry, died last Tuesday morning at his home in Carrboro of a heart attack.

Collins, who was 41 at the time of his death, was a deacon in the Carrboro Baptist Church and the Master of the University Masonic Lodge, No. 408. He was connected with the University laundry for the past 25 years. Collins was a candidate in the race for mayor of Carrboro and was runner-up in the election when he died.

The fatal attack occurred at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in the laundry, and Collins was immediately taken to his home where he died shortly after his arrival.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Blackwell Collins; one daughter, Betty; one son, Bernard; his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Collins of Rockingham; and one brother, Walter L. Collins, also of Rockingham.

S&F Comedy Opens Tonight In Memorial

'Merrily We Love' Has Veteran Cast

"Merrily We Love," a Sound and Fury Musical production revue, opens tonight for a two night stand in Memorial Hall. The show, a full-length production, was authored by Forrest Covington, with music by Frank Matthews.

Included in the cast are many student actors who are well known for their performances in past productions. In the lead roles there are Betty Lokey, of Raleigh, who appeared in "Egypt Lan," and "Inherit The Wind," and Bill Sanders, from Roanoke Rapids, who has been seen in leading roles of "Mardi Gras," "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "Apple Tree Farm."

Sanders and Miss Lokey are cast opposite each other in "Merrily We Love." To complete the love triangle Mark Barker president of the organization and director of this production is cast as a wealthy New Yorker. Barker is well known in town as the genial announcer in the WDUK "fish-bowl" situated in the Strowd building.

Others who are cast in "Merrily We Love" and who have been seen in major presentations on campus are Lee Noll, seen in "Egypt Lan," "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "Beggars Opera," Forrest Covington, the author of the book, has appeared in "Sweep It Clean" and as a member of the "Lost Colony" troupe playing at Manteo and Estelle Ritchie, Miss Ritchie is well remembered for her part in the female comedy lead in "Apple Tree Farm." She is again appearing in a comedy role in "Merrily We Love."

Author Covington has kept the plot simple. It is the story of a stage struck young lady from Boston who comes to New York to seek her fortune on Broadway. Being attractive, she soon finds two very acceptable young men vying with each other for her attention. After due complications she is able to make her choice and all ends happily for everyone concerned except the jilted suitor.

The show contains 25 original songs written by Frank Matthews, some few of the numbers have been recorded by Johnnie Satterfield and his orchestra for use on the University Hour. Matthews and Covington have succeeded in writing a musical that is primarily based on musical backgrounds. In no place is there more than five minutes of running dialogue.

Director Barker has included a number of dance and chorus (See SOUND & FURY, page 4)

TMA Elections Set for Today

Election of Town Men's Association officers for the school year beginning September, 1949, will be held today at the regular bi-weekly meeting of the TMA in Graham Memorial, secretary Dan McLaughlin said yesterday.

Up for election will be the positions of president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

Also at this time, final arrangements for the TMA-Town Girl's Association picnic at Hogan's Lake Friday will be released.

McLaughlin urged that all members be present at the 4:30 meeting.

Compulsory Meeting Called by Monogram

There will be a compulsory meeting at 2 o'clock today of all Monogram men who plan to attend the beach party this weekend, May 6, 7, Coy Carson, Social Chairman, said today.

If it will be impossible to be present, a valid excuse must be presented to Laddie Terrell or Coy Carson before two o'clock.

EIGHT COMELY LASSES of the "Merrily We Love" chorus work out in a rehearsal under the watchful eye of Choreographer Tommy Thompson. They are, reading from right to left: Jean Hillman, Gladys Levinson, Jim Barker, Jimmy Faust, Anita Gates, Betty Hubbard, Nancy Young and Virginia Hamilton. The Sound and Fury production opens tonight at 8:15 in Memorial.

The four chairmen and their committees are: Jim Gwynn, chairman of the Elections Board; Andy Cornish, chairman of the Student Audit Board; Charlie Gibson, chairman of the Student Entertainment Committee; and Gran Childress, chairman of the NSA committee.

Members of the Budget committee, of which Nat Williams, Student Body Secretary-Treasurer will serve as chairman are: Dick Gordon, Ted Fussell, Andy Cornish, Emily Sewell, Neal Partnick, Marie Nussbaum, John Saunders, Bob Kirby and Bill Hipple.

Named to serve with Cornish on the Audit Board were Anies Daye, Tim Borda, Dick Ferguson and Ellis Hall. Billy Carmichael, Ann Sawyer and Dick Allbrook were selected to work with Gibson on the Entertainment Committee.

To work with Childress in NSA, Mackie chose Ben Jones, Charles Fox and Jean Menshew. Members appointed to the Dance Committee are Noah Wilson, Buck Blankenship and Tom Bonney.

Carolina's representatives on the Greater University Student Council, also appointed by Mackie, are Jess Dedmond, Dorth Warriner and Sam McKee.

The various committee appointments will be considered for approval by the Legislature Appointments Committee, of which Bob Kirby is chairman, and then will be formally approved by the entire Student Legislature.

Mackie Requests Students To Ask Ministers Here

The following open letter from Bill Mackie, President of the Student Body was received too late yesterday for inclusion on the editorial page:

Fellow students:

Through the courtesy of Dr. Roy K. Marshall and Controller W. D. Carmichael, Jr., a special showing of the planetarium's first feature, "Let There Be Light," has been arranged by members of the student body for all ministers in the state, to be given on Thursday, May 12, at 2 o'clock. Several thousand invitations have been sent out by students from lists which have been compiled in an attempt to get the names of all ministers, so that none will be omitted. We know, however, that any attempt to get a complete list of all ministers of the more than sixty denominations represented in the state will fall short some where.

Since this event is being organized and prepared by students, I want to urge all of you who will be in contact with your ministers over the weekend to personally invite them to be here. This is the first chance in a very long time for the religious leaders of the state to be in Chapel Hill together, and we want the occasion to be a great success in terms of the number of people attending as well as the good which can be engendered at the time. A luncheon will be held at 12 noon, the showing to begin at 2.

A personal invitation is the surest way to guarantee a successful occasion.

Bill Mackie
President Student Body
