

The Daily Tar Heel

MORE THAN 150 UNIVERSITY of North Carolina freshmen arrived at Chapel Hill three days ahead of the regular orientation period in order to participate in a freshman camp program at Camp New Hope, near Chapel Hill, which provided an introduction to University life. Chancellor R. B. House and many members of the faculty were on hand to greet the newcomers. The program was sponsored by the University YMCA. Pictured here is a typical group of the Campers. Left to right: John Taylor, Winston-Salem; Fred Runley, Winston-Salem; H. L. Godwin, Raleigh; Howard Tickle, Burlington; Joe Hurd, Durham; Richard Gamble, Summerfield; Bill Mackie, Chapel Hill, president of the student body, who welcomed the group to the campus; Robert Thomas, Varina; Bill Wood, Greensboro; and Eugene Russel, Raleigh.

Chest Gets Ready For October Drive

The Campus Chest, newest student government agency, is rushing forward to complete organization and plans for its first effort in late October. Dick Murphy is coordinator of the fund-raising group.

According to Murphy the present plans are to hold the campus drive in conjunction with the Chapel Hill Community Chest during Community Chest Week around the third week in October. The first meeting for the full Board of Directors of the Chest, which includes the heads of nine student government agencies, a five-man staff and the Coordinator will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Grail Room to approve preliminary plans.

Harold Bursley was appointed last night to be campaign manager of the first Campus Chest drive. A former associate editor of the Yackety Yack, Bursley is a senior from Charlotte.

Murphy has appointed Ted Fussell as treasurer and Mike McDaniel as Publicity Chairman. A campaign manager, secretary, benefit committee, and personnel director are to be appointed by the end of the week.

Present plans are to hear applications from all organizations interested in participation in the proceeds of the drive not later than Tuesday afternoon. Organizations should submit forms at the student government office stating reasons why they should be included and an estimate of proceeds derived from past solicitations, if any.

"This is necessary in order for the Board to set a goal for the drive," explains Murphy. Students will be able to pay the amount or make a pledge.

Reasons for the rush work, which will probably include Board meetings every day for the next few days, is that the bill setting up the organization did not become law until the final session of the Student Legislature last spring and the short time before the tentative date for the drive.

Tarnation Staff

All students interested in working on any phase of Tarnation, Carolina's official humor magazine, are requested to attend the first staff meeting Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Tarnation office, basement of Graham Memorial.

Tarnation Editor Tom Kerr announced yesterday that jobs in art, layout, copy, advertising, photography and a number of other positions are open.

Bids Are Low For Addition To Library

State May Save Over $144,000

The total for low bids on the addition to the University Library was $144,422 less than the amount appropriated by the State Legislature, it was revealed here yesterday when bids were opened.

The bids totaled $1,503,822. The lowest general base bid was $983,400 submitted by J. A. Jones Construction Co., Charlotte, followed by Southeastern Construction Co., Charlotte, with a bid of $1,026,824.

The bids did not include $100,000 for equipment.

Work on the new addition, which will almost double the present reading rooms, stack and work space, is expected to begin within the next 30 days, Collier Cobb, Jr., chairman of the Trustee Building Committee, said.

The new structure will be added to the back of the present building facing the Raleigh road. Eventually, when the money becomes available, the plan is for another addition to include a facade and entrance facing the Raleigh road and Bell Tower.

Raymond H. Weeks, Durham, is architect for the new structure, and Alfred Morton Githens, New York, is consulting architect for the library. Arthur Nash is general consulting architect for the University.

Senate OK's Arm Aid Plan For Europe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(AP)—The Senate tonight approved a $1,314,010,000 program of arms aid for nations in the shadow of Russia's great military machine.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(AP)—Senators Graham and Hoyer of North Carolina were among those voting in favor of passage of the $1,314,000,000 Arms Aid Bill in the Senate tonight. The Bill carried by a vote of 55 to 24.

The aid program. The most potent of these, an amendment by Senator George (D-Ga.) to trim $200,000,000 off the funds for Atlantic Pact nations, lost 46-32.

This action set the United States firmly on a policy of rearming friendly nations in the world-wide effort to bar the doors against Communist aggression.

In its final form the Senate bill authorizes arms aid totaling: $100,000,000 for the North Atlantic Pact nations in Europe.

Confused Robber Cops Singletons

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Sept. 22—(AP)—An unparticular burglar broke into Elizabeth Sullivan's knitting shop, she told police today. The loot: Eight socks, unmatching, and a jar of bubble-gum and lollipops.

In its final form the Senate bill authorizes arms aid totaling: $100,000,000 for the North Atlantic Pact nations in Europe.

Every Monday morning about 10 o'clock Dr. Roy C. Marshall, director of the Morehead Planetarium and professor of astronomy, disappears from his office here, jumps in his car and hurries over to the Raleigh-Durham Airport to catch a plane for Philadelphia.

Unless the weather is too bad for flying—and it seldom is he says—he is back at his home in Chapel Hill about 2 o'clock the following morning and on duty at his office at the usual time.

Dr. Marshall arrives in Philadelphia early Monday afternoons and goes immediately to Station WPTZ where he completes preparations for his weekly NBC television show, "The Nature of Things," dealing with elementary science principles, which is presented every Monday night and is now in its 20th month.

Because of the outstanding success of his network show, Dr. Marshall has just been chosen by the American Chemical Society to be the speaker at its Press Breakfast, one of the most important events on its program, at the Hotel Traymore at Atlantic City September 21. The occasion is the 116th national convention of the Society, and chemists in all industries, as well as those from university and private research laboratories, will be present.

Not only is Dr. Marshall's oldest network television program, having originated on February 5, 1948, but it is the only program now regularly carried on all 16 of the network stations, from Boston to Richmond and out through Cleveland and Detroit to Chicago and St. Louis. Recently the program has been appearing on Monday evenings, but in order to clear the way for his classes at the University, Dr. Marshall has obtained a spot on Saturday evenings, beginning on September 10.

N.C. State Cheering Squad To Be Here For Pep Rally

Rallies Here, At State Will Be Broadcast

By Don Maynard

Following the custom initiated last fall, University and State College cheerleaders will follow the beckoning of head cheerleader Norm Sper and visit rival campuses tonight to participate in pre-game pep rallies.

The back-to-school-beat-State rally will be held in the auditorium of Memorial Hall beginning at 7:15 tonight, pep rally chairman Nemo Nearman of the University Club, sponsor of the rally, announced yesterday.

Chapel Hill spirit is scheduled to go on the air at 7:30 for six minutes over radio station WPTF and will be followed by the State College broadcast. Loudspeakers are to be set up at both campuses to enable the rivals to hear each other's cheering.

Featured at the rally will be the cheerleaders from both campuses, introduced by Head Cheerleader Sper, who will lead the Tar Heels in their yells. In addition, the Sigma Chi sextet will be on hand to publicly introduce Hank Beebe and Orville Campbell's tribute to Charlie Justice, "All the Way, Choo-Choo." The sextet promised to deliver their popular rendition of "Tradition" and other songs.

A surprise speaker will also be on hand to participate in the program, Nearman said and he urged that all students be on time for the beginning of the rally in order that the broadcast may go on the air as scheduled. The theme of this first rally, according to Nearman, will tie in with the Greater University Day celebration, and is to start the Greater University Day ball rolling.

The University Club announced yesterday that plans are well under way for the Carolina-Notre Dame clash at Yankee Stadium in New York on Nov. 12.

Student Party Heads Meet

The Student Party Steering Committee will meet in Roland Parker Lounge 2 in Graham Memorial this afternoon at 2 o'clock according to an announcement made yesterday by SP's first rally of the year scheduled to be held in Graham Memorial Monday night.

Thompson said that Monday night's rally will be devoted to orientation toward the campus political scene.

Group Lists Dance Rules

A spokesman for the University Dance Committee yesterday announced the regulations governing all University dances throughout the 1949-50 school year.

The rules will be in effect at tonight's Coed Ball, at Saturday evening's Greater University Day dance, and at all other dances during the course of the year. The spokesman announced the following rules governing conduct on the dance floor:

1. An girl desiring to leave the dance hall during any evening dance with the intention of returning must be accompanied by a chaperone during her entire stay from the dance.

2. Anyone showing signs of drinking or other misconduct shall be dealt with according to the discretion of the University Dance Committee.

3. Anyone giving a wrong name is automatically suspended indefinitely.

4. Anyone bringing intoxicating beverages on the floor is automatically suspended indefinitely.

5. No smoking whatsoever and no refreshments of any kind will be allowed on the dance floor at Woollen Gymnasium or the Woman's Gymnasium.

Symington Requested To Appear in Probe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(AP)—A three-man board of admirals demanded today that Air Secretary Symington appear in person to testify in the Navy's investigation of the B-36 bomber "smear" campaign.

The Air Force subsequently announced that Symington would receive an officer sent out by the court later in the day (3 p.m. EST).

Symington explained that the invitation arrived just as he was leaving for New York to attend a banquet last night.

Men's Council Elects Holsten New Chairman

Student Solons Must Confirm

By Roy Parker, Jr.

Roy Holsten, senior from Glen Rock, N. J., was elected to the chairmanship of the Men's Honor Council last night, but he will have to wait until the Student Legislature meets before he can assume his new duties.

Holsten had only been appointed as a member of the council one day previous by Bill Mackie, president of the student body, on the recommendation of the Tri-Partisan Selection Board. The Student Legislature must approve the appointment before Holsten can take his seat and assume the office of chairman.

The appointee, who is to replace former Chairman Bruce Sanborn on the highest campus court, was elected to the Student Council in last spring's general election. He will not officially resign that post until the Legislature confirms his appointment.

The Tri-Partisan Board, composed of representatives from each of the three major campus political parties, normally chooses candidates to run for the Men's Council, but in the case of hold-over members, the board can simply recommend students who have formerly served on the council.

The student constitution provides for a holdover member, elected by the Council from its membership before the spring elections. There were approximately 12 persons eligible for the job, but none were available for the post except Holsten.

Holsten has had wide experience in the campus judiciary, serving for nearly two years on the Men's Council before being elected to the Student Council last spring. He served as chairman of the summer council, and summer president of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He has also served as chairman of the House Managers' Association.

Steel Strike Is Held Back

By the Associated Press

The threatened nationwide steel strike was put off for six more days Thursday, but John L. Lewis said the coal industry would be on a "no-day work week" until a new contract is reached.

At the same time the CIO United Steelworkers Union reported that the Standard Steel Works of Lewistown, Pa., had accepted the Steel Fact-Finding Board's peace formula in full.

This was the first reported break in the impasse over whether the companies should finance pensions and insurance, as the board recommended, or whether workers should share the cost. The major companies have called for a cost sharing plan.

A few hours before announcing the Standard Steel Works development, Philip Murray's steelworkers union joined the industry in agreeing to postpone the scheduled steel strike until 12:01 Saturday morning, Oct. 1.

Yack Pictures

Bill Claybrook, editor of the Yackety Yack, yesterday issued a call for as many students as possible to get their yearbook photos taken today before the alphabetical processing begins on Monday.

Claybrook said the photographers would be working from 10 o'clock this morning until 8 o'clock this evening, and will take no pictures on Saturday or Sunday. The Yack editor is especially interested in getting all freshman pictures taken today if possible.
