wards went up to hit for the pitcher after Campanella's blast had reduced the Yankees' margin to a single run. But once again the great relief chucker had it in the clutch, and he sat Edwards down with his second strikeout of the inning to end the game and give the Yanks a 2-1 lead in victories.

Up to the time Branca suddenly lost his control and walked Yogi Berra with one out in the ninth, the 23-year-old fastballer had set down 14 Yank man, Olmo, Campanella 2b-Woodling HR-Reese, Olmo, Campanella DPbatters in succession. During that blinding stretch he looked un-

Ward Advances

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 7-(AP)-Flashy Harvie Ward, brilliant University of North Carolina shotmaker and National Intercollegiate golf champ, moved into the quarter-finals of the Willard Memorial Golf Tournament here today with a pair of victories.

The par-busting Tarboro ace downed C. W. Stewart, a Fort Smith favorite son, four and three, in the opening round, and then came back in the afternoon to chase Chris Gers of Oklahoma City off the course after 13 holes with an easy six and five victory.

Medlaist Bo Winiger, Guthrie, Okla., with Ward breathing down his neck, also won his two matchies, defeating C. L. McClure in the morning and edging Steve Creekmore, Sr. in the second round, to remain one of the favorites.

The big upset of the day was scored by Alf Williams, a local boy, who downed former National Amateur Champ Chick Evans, four and three, in the morning round. Williams also copped his second round match, defeating H. P. Childress, Memphis, Tenn., two and one.

As a matter of fact, the Army strategy called for plenty of end plays until Blaik saw what happened to Stanford last week. Stanford, apparently figuring the same thing, hit the flanks with no success. Al (The Man) Wistert and Dick Kempthorn smothered them every time.

Blaik admits that he's going to have to use a new strategy. He said that by the simple process of elimination, Army will be forced to rely on passing than anything else. Blaik, by the way,
