

Michigan Stops Rugged Minnesota, 14-7, In Big Ten Scrap

Ortmann Leads Wolverines In Comeback Over Gophers

AN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 22—(AP)—Halfback Chuck Ortmann led a rejuvenated Michigan football team to a smashing 14-7 win over powerful Minnesota today.

The tow-headed star from Milwaukee almost single handedly blasted possible national championship hopes of the unbeaten Minnesota squad. The Golden Gophers had been favored to take Michigan, the big ten title and go to the Rose Bowl.

Ortmann passed with a rare accuracy and ran with a shiftiness that bewildered the Minnesota defenses. He reeled off 115 of Michigan's total ground gain of 126 yards and completed 9 of 17 passes for 92 of Michigan's 102 aerial yards.

The sellout crowd of 97,239 homecoming fans screamed approval.

The kid who suffered a concussion two weeks ago when Army snapped Michigan's 25-game winning streak and played with little spark when Michigan lost to Northwestern last week, kept the Minnesota team on its heels for most of the afternoon.

However, a fumble by Ortmann gave the Gophers their only paydirt party all afternoon. The Michigan star was in punt formation when the pigskin got away from him and the Minnesota forward wall pounced on it in the end zone to keep the visitors' hopes alive.

The victory, Michigan's seventh in a row over Minnesota, put Michigan right back in the big ten race. Minnesota now has a 2-1 conference record against Michigan's 1-1.

Shaky Tulane Gets By Auburn In 14-6 Contest

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22—(AP)—Tulane's jittery Green Wave had to overcome fumbles and penalties to whip the stubborn Auburn Tigers 14-6 today in a Southeastern Conference football clash.

The victory enabled Tulane to keep its conference record untarnished, but the team humbled by Notre Dame last week failed to show football prevision.

A crowd of 25,000 saw Travis Tidwell, Auburn's star, play his heart out in punting passing and running for most of the Auburn gains. He was easily the outstanding player of the game.

The Auburn team, outweighed 212 to 191 in the line and 194 and 172 in the backfield, couldn't punch through in a desperate attempt to rally.

All the scoring came in an action-packed second quarter. Fullback Eddie Price, Tulane's All-Southeastern back last year, cut off right tackle to race 62 yards to score. Price showed a return to his sharp form after being smothered for two weeks by an injured ankle.

Score by quarters:

Auburn	0 6 0 0—6
Tulane	0 14 0 0—14

Rice Field Goal In Final Minute Clips Longhorns

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 22—(AP)—James (Froggie) Williams grabbed a spine-tingling 17-15 victory for Rice over Texas by booting a field goal in the last 10 seconds here today.

Williams, 6-foot, 197-pound senior from Waco, calmly kicked the three-pointer as 60,000 screaming fans watched him disrupt Texas' hopes for victory.

The scrimmage line was the 10, but the ball was placed down on the 18, about 15 yards in from the side line, for the decisive attempt. Quarterback Tobin Rote held for Williams.

In gaining its second Southwest Conference victory against no defeats, Rice did it the hard way—just like it did against Southern Methodist last week. Only more so.

Manhandled by Texas so viciously that they made only 18 yards and one first down in the first half, Rice did not start clicking until midway of the third period.

At that time they were trailing a dismally, 15 to 0, and Texas enthusiasts thought maybe they had a cinch.

The Longhorn balloon exploded as Rice suddenly went wild and scored 14 points in five minutes. Gordon (Sonny) Wyatt terminated a 61-yard pile-driving surge by jolting through left tackle from the 1-yard line. Williams, All-Conference last year, lineman of the week last Saturday, kicked the first of two extra points.

left and ran to the 42 and Hedges hit left guard for a first down on the Carolina's 7. Again the Tiger attack slowed down and after Pevey's third down pass had fallen short on the Tar Heel's 15, Konz kicked into the end zone.

On the second play thereafter, the Tar Heels made their first down, Justice hitting Weiner in the left flat on the Carolina 32. The Tar Heels got no farther. Justice punted, the ball bounced over Konz's head to the LSU 5.

Griffith passed from behind the goal to Lyle on the LSU 20 and then hit Brown up the middle for another first down on the LSU 45.

LSU moved into Carolina territory. Tosth going to the Carolina 47 and then taking a hand-out to the right side and knifing down to the Tar Heel 31. Tosth got two more, but then two two straight Tiger passes were broken up and Konz, on fourth down, kicked out on the Carolina 3.

The Tar Heels then proceeded to march 97 yards for a touchdown. Hayes hit right guard for almost a first down and then made one to the Carolina 16. Justice faked a pass, then darted over right side to the visitor's 30.

Hayes was thrown for an 11-yard loss to the Carolina 19, but Justice hit Gantt on the Tar Heel 48 on a long pass down the side-

Open to students and faculty alike, the qualifying rounds will begin on Tuesday, Oct. 25th, and will continue through the following Monday. The tournament will consist of an eighteen hole qualifying round to be followed by elimination match play by flights.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 22—(AP)—Fullback Geno Mazzanti raced 77 yards to set up a touchdown which gave Arkansas a 7-6 upset victory over Vanderbilt today. A crowd of 26,500 witnessed the football game.

Defensive Fullback Louis Schaufele, who seldom has carried the ball for Arkansas, plunged the two yards for the touchdown. Duval Thornton kicked the vital point.

A blocked placement kick after Vanderbilt got a touchdown in the third quarter was the final margin of victory.

Vanderbilt pounced and passed away in several spirited tries period. It started when Carl Copp intercepted Don Logue's pass on Vanderbilt ten plays later, left halfback Nelson Burton, Memphis sophomore, took a pitch-out from Pamie Wade and ran 23 yards for Vanderbilt's score.
