Tennessee Romps Over Carolina, 35-6

THIS IS ONE TIME THE TAR-HEELS dug in and held the Vols on the goal line. Tennessee halfback Bert Rechicher is stopped by the middle of the Carolina line in the opening minutes of yesterday's game, won by the Vols, 35-6. The Tennessee player (88) shown diving forward on the left is Roy Smith, a guard. Rushing forward to lend a helping hand to Bud Carson (31) are Tommy Stevens (48) and Johnny Clements (20).

Pass Interceptions, Fumbles Are Costly In Onesided Game

By Buddy Vaden
For the first time since the Wake Forest nightmare of 1947, Coach Carl Snavely's crippled, but ready and willing Tar Heels lost a football game in front of the home folks. The local squad, missing the abilities and facilities of half a dozen star players, fell before the onslaught of a do or die Tennessee club that poured on the power to blast the Carolinians, 35-6.

It was the worst defeat for a Snavely-coached team since the Penn game of 1945. It was the second straight loss of the season for the Tar Heels, who had just returned from a disappointing 13-7 loss in Baton Rouge, La. to LSU.

The Carolina attack, which had been primarily an air show up until yesterday, clearly showed the effect of the numerous Tar Heel casualties. The Carolina passing game was for all good intents and purposes completely wrecked. The Tar Heels completed only four of 18 passes attempted. Tennessee players caught more Carolina passes than the Tar Heels themselves did. The absence of Art Weiner was clearly shown in black and white statistical figures.

In the ground the Tar Heels did slightly better, covering 142 yards in 37 tries against the rugged Vol line. Tennessee, on the other hand, gained 107 yards rushing and 95 yards through the air. Carolina's air traffic was limited to a mere 25 yards.

The Vols got the breaks of the game, but it was evident from the start that they didn't need half as many as they got. Before three minutes of the game had elapsed, they were seven points in front, and the end result, they had already won the ball game.

A Billy Hayes fumble on the Carolina seven set up Tennessee's first golden opportunity. The Vols wasted no time in taking advantage of the gift, and after two plays Tailback Harold Payne scampered across the Carolina goal near the North sideline as the clock was stopped at 2:40 of the first period. Bert Rechicher made like Egbert Williams and (See FOOTBALL, page 4)

Official Of NCS, Tennessean Die Of Strokes During Game

Two deaths, both apparently from heart attacks, occurred in the north stands of Kenan Stadium yesterday afternoon during the North Carolina-Tennessee football game.

John L. VonGlahn of Raleigh, Purchasing Agent for North Carolina State College, was one of the dead, and Ernest H. Deaver of Knoxville was the other. Deaver, about 35, suffered a stroke while in the stands shortly after the second half began, and was dead when ambulance attendants reached him.

VonGlahn's body was taken to Walker's Funeral Home here, and transferred to a Raleigh mortuary during the evening. Deaver was taken to Walker's pending further arrangements.

Chancellor J. W. Harrelson of State said VonGlahn had been suffering from a chronic heart condition "for several years." He said he was in his sixties.

VonGlahn, an avid sports fan, had been cautioned by his doctor to avoid any excitement, even listening to radio sports broadcasts, according to Harrelson. The Chancellor said Mrs. VonGlahn asked her husband not to attend the game, and refused to accompany him.

A graduate of State in 1918 with a B.S. degree in civil engineering, VonGlahn attended every football game he was able to. Chancellor Harrelson said his death "is quite a loss to the college. He was well-liked, and did his job efficiently." Acting President W. D. Car-

Illini Dumped By Michigan In 13-0 Battle

CHAMPAIGN, ILL., Oct. 29—(AP)—The inspirational fury boiling within Illinois on "Bob Zuppke Day" suddenly escaped into nothingness with a fumble two yards shy of a touchdown and Michigan took the cue to blast the Illini out of the Big Ten football lead, 13-0, today.

More than 71,000 fans, including 70-year-old Zuppke and 28 of his former Illini team captains, groaned in bitter disappointment when a fumble ended Illinois' only real scoring chance just a pace from the goal line.

Held out of Michigan territory in the first quarter and stalled on the Michigan 18 in the second, Illinois rocketed 76-yards in five plays midway in the third. Sophomore Johnny Karras, former State 440-yard prep track champion and the fireball of the game, streaked 56 yards on a double reverse and cutback that set up the scoring opportunity.

Deacs Outscore Clemson, 34-21

CLEMSON, S. C., Oct. 29—(AP)—With both teams cramming all their scoring into the second and fourth periods, Wake Forest downed Clemson, 35-21, here tonight in a Southern Conference football game. The Deacons led 21-7 at the half.

Cox Leads Duke To Win Over Ga. Tech, 27-14

ATLANTA, Oct. 29—(AP)—The little men of Duke and Georgia Tech, charging like Angry Heavyweights, stalled each other on the ground, but Billy Cox's brilliant passes could not be stopped and Duke won today, 27-14.

A near sellout crowd of 38,000 saw Tech completely outplay Duke in the first half and take a 7-0 lead. But Duke came back with all its 27 points for a convincing victory.

In that first half Duke's best defensive play was Blaine Earon's work at end. In the second half Earon was joined by Cox, Jack Mounie and a hard smashing Duke line.

On one Duke drive Cox threw five consecutive completed passes. Mounie scored three touchdowns.

This was Coach Wallace Wade's first victory over Bobby Dodd of Tech, and Duke's first win over the Georgians in four games. The loss about ends Tech's

Wm. & Mary Indians Spank Spiders, 34-0

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 29—(AP)—Tailback Buddy Lex and his favorite pass receiver, rangy Vito Ragazzo, personally turned the University of Richmond's homecoming into a nightmare today as William and Mary's Indians walked off with a 34-0 decision before 10,000 in Richmond Stadium.

Lex passed for 168 yards and three touchdowns, scored a touchdown himself on a 13-yard sally, rushed for 64 yards, booted four extra points, and punted for a 43-yard average.

DICK WIESS, lying in the Tennessee end zone after the play that netted Carolina's only six points yesterday afternoon, is hidden from the camera by Pete Rywak (89), who helped escort the Tar Heel fullback into touchdown territory in the fourth quarter. Other players identifiable are Tar Heels Joe Kosinski (49) and Vols Tom Brixey (63), W. C. Cooper (19), Ray Elkas (45), and Norm Meseroll (84).

High-Scoring Irish Scuttle Navy, 40-0

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 29—(AP)—Machine-like Notre Dame bopped Navy today, 40 to 0, handing the Middies the worst defeat in their football series that began in 1927.

Showing their gridiron wares to an eastern audience for the first time this season, the fighting Irish broke the game wide open with a 20-point assault in the second quarter. They coasted from there on.

Navy made a whale of a game of it for one quarter, and part of the second. Then, zing, zing, zing, came the touchdowns. They were stabs like stilettos in the dark. The befuddled Middies never knew from which direction they were coming.

The chief Notre Dame slasher was Ernie Zalejski, a skittering left halfback from South Bend, Ind., home of the big green gang that Coach Frank Leahy has welded into the nation's no. 1 football outfit.

Zalejski scored three of the six Notre Dame touchdowns as he became the main actor in the put on before a sellout crowd of 62,413 in Babe Ruth Stadium.

Ernie got Notre Dame out in front in four minutes and 35 seconds of the opening period. He grabbed a 22-yard toss from quarterback Bobby Williams on Navy's 25. He was in the clear, and merely romped the rest of the way. The Irish probably would have scored sooner, but Navy won the toss and Notre Dame had to wait to get the ball. It took only five plays.

After fooling around the rest of the period and stopping two amazing Navy drives, Notre Dame dropped the roof on the boys from Annapolis in the second quarter.

Right half Larry Coutre started the business by taking the ball on a delayed buck on his nine yard line. A big hole opened in the Navy line, and away Larry went on a 91-yard touchdown jaunt.
