

—ONLY—
6 Days
BEAT NOTRE DAME!

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER
Fair and rather cold.

VOLUME LVIII Associated Press CHAPEL HILL, N. C. SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1949 Phone F-3871—F-3861 NUMBER 40

Tar Heels Stage Rally For 20-14 Victory

Grad Student Killed In Car-Bike Accident

R. L. Knowles Dies Instantly When Struck

Auto Is Operated By G. M. Phillips; Fisher Is Owner

By Chuck Hauser
A University graduate student in English was killed instantly yesterday in an automobile-bicycle accident, and another student was released under $2,000 bond, charged with manslaughter.

Raymond Leland Knowles, 31, of Bronxville, N. Y., died when a car struck his bicycle on East Rosemary Street at 1:05 yesterday morning. Knowles was hurled to the sidewalk, and Officer David Roberts said he apparently died instantly.

The driver of the west-bound car was Guy McDonald Phillips, 21, of Toecane. Officers said he was charged with manslaughter and placed under $2,000 bond, but was released shortly before noon when his father, Everett L. Phillips, signed bond for him.

Roberts said there was "evidence that the driver had been drinking," but he declined to say to what extent. He said the car was being driven on the left hand side of the street. There were no lights on the bicycle.

Officer Bill Blake said a preliminary hearing for Phillips had been scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 15, in Chapel Hill Recorder's Court. The case is expected to be continued to Superior Court in Hillsboro from there.

Student Roy Bradford of Henderson was a passenger in the car driven by Phillips at the time of the accident. Neither he nor Phillips was hurt in the collision.

The vehicle, a 1943 Ford, was owned by Henry C. Fisher, Jr., of Asheville, Phillips' roommate in Old West Dormitory. Solicitor C. P. Hinshaw said Fisher would be equally liable if a civil suit were pressed in the case.

Negro, White Grid Tussle Causes Riot

DETROIT, Nov. 5 (AP)—Conflicting accounts made it impossible today to fix blame in the riot which broke up a high school football game Friday night, police said.

As a result of the fighting, two persons were in hospitals with serious knife wounds.

More than 1,000 fans joined in the melee. It started when a negro player and a white player began slugging each other on the gridiron.

Afterwards, a negro man and wife told police they were attacked by about four knife-wielding white youths outside the stadium.

Melvindale police denied there was any racial aspect to the rioting. However, the Melvindale team was all white while there were seven negroes on the starting lineup for River Rouge High School. They played in Melvindale, an all-white community.

Main cause of the outburst of temper was the hot rivalry between the schools, witnesses said. They were both unbeaten and the league championship was at stake.

Fighting broke out on the gridiron in the final minutes. River Rouge was awarded a 7-0 victory even though the game was not completed.

Four persons were injured, three from knife wounds. In serious condition at Wayne County Hospital were Mrs. Viola Higgins, 34, negro, and Gerald Biskner, 19, white.

Mrs. Higgins' husband Branch, told police he and his wife were dragged from their car by white youths.

Notre Dame Is Hard Pushed To Whip Spartans, 34-21

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 5 (AP)—Unbeaten Notre Dame got its stiffest argument of the season, but unleashed the versatility of quarterback Bob Williams for a 34-21 triumph over Michigan State today before 51,277 upset-hopeful fans.

In a game that was expected to menace seriously the Notre Dame string of 33 straight games without defeat, the Irish nonchalantly punched across two touchdowns in the second period, another in the third and two more in the fourth for their sixth win of the season. Michigan State, an inspired but outplayed team today, pushed across two touchdowns on desperation passes in the closing minutes to score the most points Notre Dame has yielded in a single afternoon since the 28-27 squeak past Purdue in the 1948 season opener.

Williams, a daring performer with 13 of 16 passes completed in a perfect football afternoon, ran 40 yards to one touchdown and passed to two others as the Irish hammered another crisp triumph into their bid for an unsullied season.

The rough, tough Spartans played to the hilt, but the Irish had a brilliant all-around attack which could not be denied.

Michigan State was an inspired team. But after playing a scoreless first quarter and failing to tally from the one-yard line, the Spartans just couldn't cope with the knife sharpness of the Irish attack.

Williams was a bold quarterback for Notre Dame today from start to finish. His 19-yard touchdown shot to Ernie Zaleski for a touchdown in the second period gave the Irish a 7-0 lead and sounded the tempo for the attack.

Michigan State rallied to tie the score at 7-7 when Sonny Grandelius plunged one foot for a touchdown in the second period, but that only served to goad the Irish on to their telling clean-up.

Notre Dame, which still has North Carolina, Iowa, Southern California, and Southern Methodist to face, simply ground down the Michigan State defense with a brilliantly varied attack.

Still in the second quarter, the Irish marched 95 yards in 17 plays with Larry Coutre plunging over from the two-foot line. Steve Oracko booted his second conversion and Notre Dame led 14-7 at the intermission.

Va. Cavaliers Upset Quakers In 26-14 Win

Michels Passes During First Half To Spark Game

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5 (AP)—Dick Michels, a corn-haired 160-pounder from Charleston, W. Va., passed the big, bumping Pennsylvania Quakers dizzy in the first half today to propel an underrated, unbeaten Virginia team to its seventh straight victory of the season 26 to 14, over a team that had been rated a two-touchdown favorite.

With 50,771 fans looking on in shocked disbelief, the Cavaliers' eagle-eyed little quarterback riddled the Penn defense for 19

W&M Falls Victim; Choo Choo Sparkles With 75-Yard Run

By Billy Carmichael III
CARY FIELD, WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Nov. 5—The Tar Heels of North Carolina gave the game back to the Indians here this afternoon or at least they did until the final three minutes of the football game when the visitors from Chapel Hill proved nothing more than a bunch of Indian givers, as they roared from arrears to scalp William and Mary, 20-14, before some 20,000 whooping, but kelvinated fans.

It was fitting that Williamsburg, site of one of the nation's greatest historical restorations, would be the scene of the restoration of North Carolina to the semblance of a major football power. But the Tar Heels' restoration wasn't historical. It was hysterical.

With the clock consuming itself in rapid fashion late in the fourth quarter, the Tar Heels found themselves with only one play which to escape the plague of defeat which had hounded them for the past two weeks.

The Carolinians used that chance to produce all that the law allows—a touchdown pass from Billy Hayes to Art Weiner—that brought victory to the thusly-starved Tar Heels and sent them on to New York with triumph in their hearts and on their scoreboard.

The Tar Heels had moments of greatness during the afternoon and their final drive was definitely one of them. It was also vindication for Hayes, who a few minutes earlier had fumbled away a Carolina scoring push deep in the lands of the Williams and the Marys.

The Virginians had taken over on their own 22 after Hayes' possession, but finding little to do with the ball, they had Buddy Lex punt the thing to the Tar Heels. Bud Carson gathered the ball up for the visitors and returned it to the Carolina 41. The victory march was on.

Dick Bunting, running in place of Charlie Justice who had been injured early in the fourth quarter, drove to the 46 and was then relieved by Hayes who plowed to the W & M 42 for an important first down.

After another running had produced three more yards, Hayes hit for the overcast, winging the ball to Weiner who was hanging around down on the Indian 30. That meant another first down, and after everything else had failed on the next two plays, Hayes decided the only thing to do was pass to Weiner again. That he did. Down to the enemy 13 along the sidelines. It was another first down for the Tar Heels.

Here everything went dead for Carolina. Bunting was thrown to the 18 attempting to pass. Hayes' pass to Powell over the middle failed. The injured Justice returned to the game and raced into the open in the deep right flat only to have another Hayes pass bounced off the back of an Indian defender and out of his hands.

So, it came upon a fourth down. The Tar Heels wouldn't be in possession of the ball again and defeat was staring Carolina smack dab in the face for the third straight week. Then Hayes found Weiner again. And this time it was for the big money.

Behind productive protection the Arlington aerialist faded while (See PASS FROM HAYS, page 3)

Deacs Overpower Blue Devils, 27-7

By Larry Fox

DUKE STADIUM, DURHAM, Nov. 5—Mixing just enough Carroll-Blackberry passes to keep the Duke defense honest, the Wake Forest Deacons powered to a 27-7 Southern Conference victory over the Duke Blue Devils here this afternoon before a not-quite-capacity crowd of 35,000.

Only four men took turns at carrying the ball along the ground for the visiting Deacs, but their Devils could get around to hitting for six points, the Deacs had already amassed 13 of their own.

After the first quarter had resolved itself into a punting duel between Duke's Billy Cox and left-footed Bob Price of Wake Forest, the Deacs started moving midway in the second period after taking over on their own 44 where a Cox punt was downed.

The Deacs picked up three first downs on their drive to the goal, the first coming on a pass from Blackberry to end Red O'Quinn on the Duke 43 after a handoff to Bill Gregue had picked up five yards.

Two line plays picked up ten yards and another first down and three plays later it was first and 10 on the Blue Devil 18. An incomplete pass and then Gregue escorted a handoff over left tackle for the first score of the afternoon. Bill George made the first of his three conversions.

An exchange of punts gave the Blue Devils the ball on their own 20—one of Price's punts rolled dead on the goal line for a touchback—but it wasn't in the cards for the home team to get anywhere. A reverse and an end around lost a total of seven yards and then Cox fumbled when he was hit back on the four yard line while attempting to get off a pass.

Tackle Jim Staton recovered the ball for the Deacs and two plays later, Bill Miller piled over from the two. George's conversion was off and the score stood at 13-0.

Wake Forest administrated the coup de grace on the final play of the game when Bob Jones intercepted a Wild aerial and galloped 36 yards to the end zone as the gun sounded ending the game. George converted to make the final score, 27-7.

Middies Tie Wave, 21-21

NEW ORLEANS Nov. 5 (AP)

Midshipman Bob Zastrow matched his bullet passes today against Eddie Price's long, swift runs in a brilliant football free-for-all today in which Navy rallied to tie the Tulane 21-21.

The much beaten Navy team had 70,000 hysterical in the Sugar Bowl Stadium as it stormed down to the Tulane 16 with eight seconds left to play. Roger Drew came in to try a field goal. But before the ball could be snapped time ran out and the officials jumped in and ended the game.

It was first and last an offensive battle. Navy led at half time 14-7. Price, who scored Tulane's first touchdown on a one-foot buck at the end of a 98-yard drive, cut loose with a 68-yard run to tie the score 14-14 just before the third quarter ended. He put Tulane ahead 21-14 early in the final period on a 25-yard touchdown run.

Georgia Tech Smashes Vols In 30-13 Grinder

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., No. 5 (AP)

A hopped-up band of Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets unleashed an amazing display of power and razzle-dazzle today to stung Tennessee, 30 to 13. About 48,000 fans saw the Southeastern Conference football game.

With Sophomore Darrell Crawford of Kingsport, Tenn., in the Tech driver's seat in place of the injured quarterback Jimmy Souter, the Jackets smothered Tennessee with a thunderous offensive that rolled for 405 yards and 23 first downs.

Tech not only outplayed Tennessee both offensively and defensively but took a page from Tennessee's book and turned the Vols' miscues into touchdowns of their own. The Jackets' first three touchdowns resulted from drives initiated after recovering Tennessee fumbles.

Tech broke into the scoring column first with a 19-yard field goal by Bobby North which culminated a 41-yard march.

Crawford sneaked over from the one-yard line for Tech's first touchdown midway the second period after leading the Jackets in a 55-yard drive. The march started when halfback Jimmy Jordan recovered Bernie Sizemore's fumble.

This was the first of three straight Tennessee fumbles the Jackets recovered and turned in to touchdowns. The second came in the third stanza, with guard Buck Doyal grabbing Hal Little-ford's bobble on Tennessee's 46. Tech drove to the one and North dived over.

Early in the final period, Lauricella dropped the ball and again Tech grabbed it, this time Dick Harvin pouncing on the oval. The Jackets drove to the one-foot line with North again smashing over.

Grid Statistics Chart

UNC W&M		Kickoff Returns
Yds	Plays	Number	Yds.
13	8	1	13
147	78	3	50
18	16	1	6
10	10	0	0
19	9	2	29
126	130	1	6
12	1	0	0
13	10	0	0
42	33.4	1	1
159	79	1	28
19	19	0	0
70	57	0	0

WILLIAM AND MARY		Rushing
Yds	Plays	Times	Yds.
25	35	5	2
19	19	1	1
15	0	0	0
8	12	0	0
14	11	1	6
2	8	0	0
1	6	0	0
0	0	0	0

UNC W&M		Passing
Yds	Plays	Atpt.	Cp.
101	11	5	2
12	0	0	0
130	2	1	1
0	0	0	0
0	0	0	0

UNC W&M		Receiving
Yds	Plays	Number	Yds.
101	11	1	75
12	0	0	0
130	2	1	29
0	0	0	0
0	0	0	0

UNC W&M		Punting
No.	Yds.	No.	Yds.
5	101	1	75
9	12	1	21
1	3	0	0
1	3	0	0
1	3	0	0

UNC W&M		Punt Returns
Number	Yds.	Number	Yds.
1	1	1	21
1	1	1	25
1	1	0	0
1	1	0	0
1	1	0	0

UNC W&M		Kickoff Returns
Number	Yds.	Number	Yds.
1	1	1	21
1	1	1	25
1	1	0	0
1	1	0	0
1	1	0	0

Williamsburg Scene

Few Tar Heel Visitors Strip Indian Banners

By Frank Allston, Jr.
WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Nov. 5—The gay spirit of Carolina was noticeably lacking here today as only a few Tar Heels were on hand to bolster the morale of the "Big Blue Team."

A brisk, gray, typically fall morning greeted the faithful few and by 11 o'clock the threatening rain had begun to drizzle.

The game, scheduled for picturesque Cary Field, was announced as a sellout and the few standing room seats which went on sale this morning were quickly taken. There was, however, some bartering at the Williamsburg Lodge, headquarters of the Carolina forces, around noon as the weather persuaded some people from attending the contest.

William and Mary students were in good spirits and confidently predicted a win for the tribe. This was W & M's big game and the team was definitely "up."

A big pep rally, said to be the loudest and most spirited of the year, gave the green and silver-clad warriors a final sendoff last night. Fraternities, sororities and other campus organizations paraded around this old colonial style town with banners which had as their general theme "beat Carolina."

Banners hung over the streets and others adorned the front of fraternity and sorority houses and dormitories. A large banner depicting the wreck of a Carolina train with engine number 22 hung from two trees high over Duke of Gloucester Street.

During the night, however, a band of Tar Heels marauders boldly took down this banner and ones from Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma sor-

Football Scores

20 Texas	Baylor 0
14 Wisconsin	Northwestern 6
47 Kentucky	Davidson 0
21 SMU (tie)	Texas A & M 27
21 Navy (tie)	Tulane 21
35 Holy Cross	Colgate 27
33 Illinois	Indiana 14
6 South Carolina	Marquette 3
35 Minnesota	Duke 7
27 Kansas	Nebraska 13
14 Rice	Arkansas 0
13 Oklahoma Aggies (tie)	Tulsa 13
31 Georgia Tech	Washington & Lee 6
26 Virginia	Penn 14
28 Florida	Georgia 7
27 Wake Forest	Duke 7
40 Boston College	Clemson 27
40 Maryland	George Washington 14
6 VPI (tie)	Washington & Lee 6
20 Michigan	Purdue 12
24 Notre Dame	Michigan State 21
28 Boston U.	Xavier (O.) 7
29 Duke Frosh	Navy Fleets 19
35 Army	Fordham 0
28 Dartmouth	Temple 7
34 Penn State	West Virginia 14
14 Brown	Yale 0
35 Dartmouth	Columbia 14
14 Ohio State	Pittsburgh 10
33 Cornell	Syracuse 7
31 Princeton	Harvard 13
19 Abotkie	Littleton 0