HOUSE BEAUTIFUL
Decorating Advisory Service

This winter Elaine Neal moves south for a couple of months, away from the New Hampshire breezes which are getting too cold.

Beginning December 20th, Elaine Neal, Decorating Adviser on House Beautiful magazine, will be in Chapel Hill for a winter visit and will require part-time services of a competent secretary or student with some knowledge of secretarial work.

Must be cultured enough to acquire and understand the decorating "language" fairly rapidly; must be an accurate and neat typist, with an ability to write letters in an easy, friendly manner and not in a stilted, business-like style; all of which means a knowledge of punctuation (and grammar); shorthand not necessary. An interesting, practical experience for any woman with a decorating flair.

All interviews made prior to December 20. Contact in person Andrew C. Neal, Reference Room, The Library, daily except Saturday and Sunday, from 5 to 6 p.m., December 3 through 16; on Saturday, December 10, from 6 to 10 p.m.
