'Miss Campus Chest' Contest Called Off By Chest Board

Not To Help In Cover Gal Drive Either

Chest Campaign Set To Continue; Coed Rage Cited

The Campus Chest yesterday sancelled the "Miss Campus Chest" contest, refused to cooperate with The Daily Tar Heel in naming a "Miss Carolina Cover Girl" for Collier's Magazine, but firmly said the de-sexed campusstyle community chest drive would go on as scheduled Sunday through next Friday.

The full Board of Directors for the Chest drive did not meet on the matter, but spokesmen for the Board described the question as "settled."

though arrangements Even were set up for a beauty contest already, the Chest officials said they could not undertake the naming of the Collier's beauty contest winner. "We're up to our necks in organizing the drive already," the said.

The primary reason the "Miss Campus Chest" affair was cancelled was supposedly because of coed resentment of the title of the winner. No opposition could

The Daily Tar Heel asked that Simms be removed from his job if he did not "straighten up and fly right" in the performance of his duty.

Roth Says Rivals Are 'Mud Slinging,' Explains Platform

University Party Chairman Paul Roth yesterday made a verbal retailation to Student Party charges that the UP is out for "political reputation and not democratic representation."

SP Chairman Bill Prince and Publicity Chairman Graham Jones came out with a statement Monday afternoon that was strongly critical of the UP's infant dormitory representation plan.

Roth in answer to "a few facts" brought out by the SP leaders said, "I sincerely regret that the chairman and publicity director of the Student Party have seen fit to begin a campaign which they admit is 'mud slinging.' The University Party does not wish to become a part of any smear campaigns. However, we would like to clear up a few of the misunderstandings which seem to be in the minds of our opponents. "For several years our political opponents have lashed out at the UP because it had no representatives of the dormitories in its policy-making group. Now that the UP has embarked on a long range program for that very purpose, the S Pleaders see fit to call it undemocratic."

The SP, in its criticism of the UP dorm representation program, said that the fraternity represen-

Speaks to Student Luncheon at Inn; Cites Loyalty Oath as Bad Example

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt told a gathering of University students yesterday that "Communism is the acme of conservatism."

The scene was a student-sponsored luncheon in the Carolina Inn at which the former First Lady gave a brief address after she arrived in Chapel Hill to deliver the three Weil' Lectures tonight through Thursday at 8:30 in Memorial Hall.

"Conservatism," she explained,* "fundamentally means that you believe in the preservation of what now exists, and that you believe in leaving power in the hands of a few people. "Under Communism, the power

By Roy Parker, Jr. An attempt to get University tuition rates lowered will be made in a Board of Trustees meeting within the next few months, Graham Jones, Student Party legislator, said tonight. He said he received such information in an informal talk with a "reliable source."

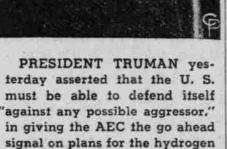

Jones told of the move during a Philanthropic Assembly meeting which was debating the proposed raise in student fees.

Refusing to name his informant, Jones asserted that the person had warned him that any raising of student fees might be detrimental to efforts to get the tuition rates lowered. The rates were raised only last winter by the General Assembly.

Jones said that similar action (raising student fees) by the N. C. State College body last winter, hurt the efforts of the Greater University Student Council, and the student governments of the three branches of the University, in their unsuccessful fight to stop the raise.

Jones threw in his bombshell while introducing an amendment H-Bomb Plan to a Phi bill in favor of raising student block fees $1 per quarter. Jones' amendment, which passed, To Be Pushed made it necessary for a student referendum to agree on the raise. The bill passed the Phi, 13-2. Chuck Hauser, managing editor of the Daily Tar Heel who was attending the meeting as a member of a five-man discussion panel on student fees, told the session that, "the reason the fee raise Coeds voiced their disapproval of the original contest plan over the weekend, and spokesmen from each each sorority indicated that girls from those organizations would not be among the entrants.

Mike McDaniel, member of the Chest Board of Directors, said the first contest "was proposed in good faith as a means of procuring greater student cooperation and interest in the Campus Chest drive."
