

Hoopsters Play At Maryland Tonight, Go To GW Tomorrow

Charity Contests Set By Four Monogram Clubs

Duke University's Varsity D Club along with Durham's Junior Chamber of Commerce will co-sponsor the first Big Four Monogram Basketball Tournament which will be held in Duke's Indoor Stadium on Wednesday and Thursday night, February 8th and 9th, starting at 7:30 P. M. Proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

In the opener Wednesday night, Duke's monogram basketball team headed by All-American tackle Louis Allen will meet Wake Forest's star studded contingent of Jim Duncan, Red O'Quinn, Bill Gregus, and others. Immediately afterwards, N. C. State with All-Southern guards Musser and Watts at the fore will engage Carolina's Tar Heel five which includes Art Weiner, Kenny Powell, Billy Hayes, and others.

The following night, the two losing teams will meet for the consolation cup in the opener while the two winning teams will finish up the tournament with a championship match.

Trophies will be awarded by the Durham Jaycees and will go to the championship and consolation winners and also to the most valuable player in the tournament as selected by team members.

Other outstanding footballers who will participate in this grid-basketball extravaganza are Duke's Bill Cox, Tom Powers, Jack Mounie, Jim E. Gibson, Blaine Earon, and Carl James. Carolina's Dick Bunting, Irv "Huck" Holdash, R. L. McDonald, Joe Dudeck, and Ed Washington, State's Elmer Costa, Bob Bowlby, Ed Mooney, Bill Thompson, and Dick Johnson, and Wake Forest's Carroll Blackerby, Ed Butler, Dicky Davis, and Ed Baublils.

Tickets for the entire tournament are priced at one dollar and are available from members of the Big Four Monogram Clubs or members of the Durham Jaycees. Tickets at the door for either game are priced at one dollar also and will be placed on sale an hour before the games begin.

Thorne Is Out For Big Tilts Within Loop

By Biff Roberts

Carolina's rejuvenated basketball team, victors in seven out of their past eight games, entrained last night on a short road trip that will match them against two more Southern Conference teams.

The hoopsters are scheduled to meet Maryland on Friday night and the strong George Washington quintet on Saturday.

Bad news was announced at practice yesterday, however, when it was learned that Charlie Thorne, ace play maker, is out with glandular fever and will not make the trip. It was not known how long Thorne will be out of uniform.

Coach Tom Scott experimented with Hugo Kappler at guard yesterday afternoon in an attempt to fill Thorne's position. Scott had Dick Patterson and John Tsantes at forwards, Captain Nemo Nearman at his regular center position, and Kappler and Howard Deasy at the guards. The new combination worked well in drills with Kappler having little trouble at the guard position. It remains to be seen how much the team will miss the steadying influence of Thorne.

The Tar Heels hold a 55-53 victory over the Terps from the University of Maryland, having taken the decision in Woollen Gym on January 2. The Terps have slipped considerably since then and have fallen to the bottom of the Southern-Conference standings. Maryland will have the advantage of being home team when the two teams meet in Richie Coliseum at College Park, however.

George Washington handed the Tar Heels their third defeat of the season in the last game before Christmas holidays, as they won out, 54-44. The game was tied in the last few minutes but the boys from GW pulled out to win going away. The Tar Heels have come a long way since then and the Washington team will have to be at its best on Saturday night.

Carolina will send a much stronger offense against the two teams than they had early in the season. Whereas the Tar Heels scored 55 points in the first Maryland game and only 44 against George Washington, they have been hitting for well over 60

Baseballers To Play 33 Games; Season Opens Against Florida

The Athletic Department yesterday released a 33-game schedule for the 1950 edition of the Carolina baseball team.

Included in the schedule are trips to Florida and Washington and four-game round robin series with Duke, Wake Forest and State. In addition there will be, for the second straight year, a special Easter Monday game with Duke here.

Again this year the schedule will be inaugurated with a trip to Florida. The team will spend six days in the Everglade State with five games scheduled for that period.

Carolina will open on March 17 against the University of Florida at Gainesville and will follow with a repeat performance the next day. On March 20 and 21 the team will meet Rollins at Winter Park and will close out the tour on March 22 against Florida Southern at Lakeland.

The Washington journey will be a three-day affair with games at Charlottesville against the University of Virginia, at College Park against the University of Maryland and in Washington against George Washington University. Dates for this trip are May 4-6.

Tar Heel Swimmers Leave, To Meet Indians Tomorrow

The entire Tar Heel swimming squad will depart from Woollen Gym at 1 o'clock this afternoon and travel by bus to Williamsburg, Va., where they are scheduled to meet the William and Mary mermen tomorrow afternoon.

Accompanying the team will be Coach Dick Jamerson and Ralph Casey and manager Charlie Dwigings.

Coach Jamerson plans for the swimmers to arrive in Williamsburg in time to take a short workout late this afternoon. On Tuesday the Tar Heels were put through time trials over the short course of Bowman Gray Pool and showed up very well.

The freestyle relay team looked especially well. With Kent Williamson turning in some his best time, the quartet unofficially broke the Conference record in the event.

The meet will mark the fifth outing for the Tar Heels this season. They have established a record of three wins and one loss so far. Their only defeat came at the hands of powerful Ohio State in the home pool

Frosh Trackmen Get Initial Test In Dual Meet Saturday

Saturday afternoon's varsity-freshman track meet with N. C. State will give an indication of what Carolina may expect of her yearlings tracksters in the future.

Freshman Coach Dick Maxwell has a talented array of trackmen lined up to compete in the five freshmen events slated for the Saturday meet in the Tin Can. Among the freshmen who are due see action are members of last fall's freshman cross country team, some outstanding former high school performers and several boys who have never run before.

The Tar Babies look particularly strong in the distance events and the mile relay. To date four men just up from the cross-country team seem to stand above the rest of the distance field.

Those four, entered in the meet Saturday and probably the ones who will get the nod in the conference meet, are Mike Healy, Bobby Byrd, Bob Webb and Ken Mostella. They will compete in the 8-lap 3/4-mile run.

In the mile relay Maxwell has lined up a formidable quartet of Rupert Blias, Harry Jones, Lee Middleton and Jack Bennett. These four have turned in some excellent performances according to their coach and he expects much from them.

In the 70-yard high hurdles Saturday will be Bobby Bell, Bill Cornell and Fred Frank. Bell will also enter with Dick Holder to run the 60-yard dash.

Frank, Bell and Cornell will team up with Sam Jordan to take care of Carolina's high jumping chores.

Competition stacks up as pretty keen for the Tar Babies in their initial meet. State reportedly has a strong, well-balanced squad and will show particular strength in the distances where cross country champs Bobby Jones and Clyde Garrison will be competing.

However, Coach Maxwell, former Ohio State star hurdler and high jumper, has expressed confidence in his team. Maxwell was Big 10 high hurdle champ last year and a member of the Big 10 shuttle hurdle relay team which set a world record of 56.8 seconds against a Pacific Coast quartet.

The new mentor was fourth in the Olympic tryouts in '48 and missed the trip to London by one place. He is married and a veteran of Pacific campaign.—FRANK ALLSTON

Blue-White Game Is Set For Stickmen

Coach Darden and his stickmen will stage their own blue-white game, the first official scrimmage of the still young season, tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. on Navy field.

Three able aspirants have been working out this week for the goalie position which was the main weak spot in the Tar Heel defense last year. Vernon Mountcastle, Angie Verdicanno, and Nick Sowell should handle the chores during the 1950 season.

In Saturday's full-length scrimmage, Coach Darden will probably pit the freshmen and the varsity against each other. Leading the veterans will be Hal Taylor, Bill Gilmore, Walt Winius, Lou Strudwick, and Johnny Murchison while the freshmen attack will be led by Walt Ernst and Dick Pillsbury, both of whom performed admirably for their respective high schools last year.

Spectators are invited to attend and any boys who are interested in the game should turn out to watch the fundamentals which will be stressed.

State Defeats Deacs, 57-50; Mad Sam Cold

RALEIGH, Feb. 2.—(P)—N. C. State's Wolfpack racked up its 16th win in 19 starts here tonight by whipping Wake Forest's stubborn Demon Deacons, 57-50, in a Southern Conference basketball game.

Some 7,500 fans watched the affair in the Coliseum.

The Wolfpack had to battle from behind a 17-13 deficit midway in the first half to get into the lead. The Deacons rallied near the close of the first half but the Wolfpack left the floor at intermission with a 28-27 lead.

Center Paul Horvath, who got three field goals in the late Wolfpack surge, was State's big gun in the last four minutes of the first half.

Tickets for Duke-Carolina Basketball Ready Monday

Tickets for the Carolina-Duke Basketball game on Feb. 17 will be exchanged two weeks prior to the game rather than one week, as was done for the State game, the Athletic Ticket office announced yesterday. All seats will be reserved.

Holders of passbooks bearing even serial numbers, that is 2, 4, 6, etc., will have a priority on seats for the game. Priority will be extended to holders of even numbers on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Feb. 6, 7, and 8. Individuals holding even numbered books must exchange coupons at the Ticket Office window in Woollen Gynasium on those dates, between 9 AM and 5 PM.

On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Feb. 9, 10, and 11, if there are any tickets left after the above priority period, they will be issued on a first come, first served basis to holders of passbooks bearing odd numbers—or anyone with a passbook. Office hours on Thursday and Friday are 9 to 5, and on Saturday from 9 to 1.

Each individual student must come to the Ticket Office in person and have with him his passbook and ID card. Students wishing to sit together must pick up their tickets together. No student will be permitted to pick up anyone else's ticket.

points in their most recent games.

Known as the team with no scoring punch at the beginning of the season, the Tar Heels now have potential high scorers from any position. With Nearman recently hitting at a 17 point clip and Patterson showing good reasons for his first string berth, the team will be vastly improved when they go against the two Conference foes.
