TALKING IT UP

With Larry Fox

Local Three-Ring Circus

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE winter sport? Well, unless it's ice ockey, ski jumping, or the Scotch game of curling, there's a good hance that you'll be able to see it in action this weekend. Of course, ou may have to go to College Park, Maryland or Charlottesville, Virginia, but the local sports arena has arranged a goodly card this weekend and every sport on the Carolina list will have a chance to

The big item on the agenda pits the surprising Tar Heel cagers can't believe it's true and wonder what Coach Tom Svengali" Scott has been feeding his charges) against the slumping Duke Blue Devils. The Dukesters had improved a great deal since they dropped a 54-50 decision to Carolina in the Dixie Classic and would probably have been pretty strong favorites tomorrow night, but star sophomore Dick Groat dropped out of school last week and with him went Duke's biggest scoring threat. The loss hurt and last weekend the Blue Devils dropped a pair of games to Maryland, round. After eight holes, Stark perform for the last time on the which was a decided underdog, and George Washington.

The Tar Heels on the other hand, have done nothing but improve Garden City, N. Y. In addition to topping one of the green, 1 up. strong teams in the Conference, the win over the Indians showed that Hugo Kappler is once again in good shape, but for how long upset Jimmy Paul, the fourth nobody knows. Kappler dropped in 18 points against W&M and co-medalist, today ousted Don have both come into their own that's his healthy average. If he can last out the season without an Clarke of Short Hill, N. (Ed. note: Don't throw any programs at the officials, they're too busy (?) to read them anyway.)

While on the subject of basketball, one can't forget the freshman ragers, who have yet to lose a game on their home court. Like their varsity mates, they will be finishing out their home schedule and locals fans won't see them in Woollen Gym until next year with the varsity. Each team holds one victory in the first two games f the series, but the Tar Babies have been looking better as the season has progressed. The frosh contest starts things off tomorrow night, but it's hard to call it a preliminary encounter. It ought to be

Possibly Coach Bob Fetzer remembers when, but it was certainly before our time.

And the locals also have national record holder Jimmy Thomas, atory school who contributed both epee and sabre against VMI a warm up for the GMA swimwho is good enough to make people forget that days when the Tar Buddy Baarcke and Bill McCord on Feb. 4, will probably get a mers who will participate in the Heels just won their meets. Pretty soon the fans will be demanding to the Tar Heel freshman squad rest in the sabre department in Fourth Annual Southern Intera new record every week.

Also on the swim card is the Southern Inter-Scholastic meet, who gave up Bruce Fountain and sponsored by the University. All the best high school swimmers in Paul Godfrey to the same local fact that Don Williams, No. 1 Fountain, captain of last year's the South show up at Chapel Hill every year and the local coaches aggregation. are very happy to give them a pool in which to splash around. Of course, if the outstanding visitors decide that they like Carolina so much they couldn't bear to go to school anywhere else, that's okay too. Several of theis year's freshman team performed here last year. Trials are Saturday morning with finals in the afternoon.

Ugh, Grunt, and Groan

A SCHEDULE CHANGE has moved the wrestling match with The Citadel to the local mat and the Tar Heels with a 1-1-1 record will end up with an unbalanced mark. If they lose, the record will be symmetrical (1-2-1 for those who have weak imaginations), but a Conference win goes a long way. With the middle weights sure to add at least nine points to the Carolina total, somebody else will have to score a few points for a Carolina victory. It depends on which weight range finds the Keydets most weak.

The out-of-town schedule features the Maryland Invitation Indoor Track Meet, a good preliminary for the Conference Indoor Games the following weekend. The Tar Heels won last year and are favored to win again, but the Terps have a pretty good outfit themselves and won't be far behind. The Old Liners' crew of talented runners will also be a strong threat in the indoor games

And the undefeated fencers also see action with a triangle meet in Charlottesville against Virginia and Johns Hopkins. Don't worry, though, it's not two against one, but a sort of a free-for-all. It'll be a busy afternoon with enough slashing and hacking to satisfy Tom Coxe, 165 man, and Oscar by light-heavyweight Miles Greg-Errol Flynn, much less Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

But you'd better be careful walking around Woollen Gym this weekend, you may be trampled by the competitors.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

THIS may look like your roommate, but don't be deceived. The Schmo in this picture has lots more brains. He has the Wildroot Cream-Oil concession in a side show. And incidentally, if you'd like to ape men who get ahead, with women of course, start grooming your dome with Wildroot Cream-Oil. It's the non-alcoholic nair tonic containing soothing Lanolin. Grooms you hair neatly and naturally without that plastered-down look. Relieves annoying dryness and removes embarrassing loose dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Get a tube or bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic at your drug counter today. Don't swipe your roommate's . .. it may be unsanitary. Besides, he's liable to grunt and growl if you do. And next time you visit your barber, have him give you a professional application.
