Class Posts Go To Dowd, Bob Collier

UP Slates Sweep All But One Job In Tuesday Vote

By Zane Robbins
The University Party slates, led by Ned Dowd and Bobby Collier, swept the boards with the exception of a single office in the double-barreled battling for senior and sophomore class posts in the spring elections, final tabulations revealed yesterday.

The UP took all honors in the sophomore balloting. The highest margin of victory was a 69-vote victory for Ben Wilcox who defeated Tex Watkins for the vice-presidency of the class. Wilcox had 306 votes to Watkins' 237.

Collier bounced John Hazelhurst out of contention for the class presidency with a 59-vote margin, 305-246; while Pat George's victory margin was almost identical. She defeated Barbara Dilard, 301-246, for the secretarial post.

Dick Schwartz came home ahead of Julian Mason in the fight for the class treasurer's post, garnering 288 votes to 236 for Mason.

One of the closest battles of the entire election was the nip-and-tuck struggle between Joe Nelson and Tom Sully for the social chairman's position. Nelson edged his SP opponent by five votes, 276-271.

Careers Conference Will Begin At 7:30

Two-Day Meeting To Feature Puppeteers, Panel Discussion For Graduating Coeds

Little Jack, a puppet belonging to the State Board of Health, will be the featured entertainer at the Careers Conference for Women, which opens tonight at 7:30 in the Faculty Lounge of the Morehead Building.

The puppet show will be presented by Hannah Martin Davis and Maude Baynor Foy, known throughout the state as the Puppeteers. Both graduated from the University in 1947 with degrees in dramatic art.

Mina Lamar, chairman of the Coed Senate-YWCA committee sponsoring the conference, will introduce Miss Mary Campbell, Job Editor of Glamour Magazine, who is scheduled to be the principal speaker. She will discuss "Beginning Jobs for Women."

Following the main address and the puppet show there will be an informal social hour.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the second day of the conference will open with a panel discussion led by Twig Branch, graduate student and former personnel adviser to women in the Dean of Women's office here.

Also on the panel will be Miss Campbell, who will discuss publications; Miss Dorothy McCuskey, University faculty member, who will discuss education; Miss Margaret Barrow, who does administrative work with the State Board of Public Welfare in Raleigh, who will discuss public welfare; and Miss Anne Garrett, Personnel Officer at Duke University, who will discuss personnel.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

UNC For FPG

Sound And Fury
trouty will be held tonight at 7:30 in Memorial Hall. No previous experience necessary.

'The Crucifixion'
a recorded Easter drama, will be presented tonight at 7 o'clock in the Methodist Church. Following the drama Communion services will be held.

Phi Eta Sigma
certificates for newly-initiated members may be obtained from 413 South Building, according to Dean E. L. Mackie.

Faculty Meeting will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Howell. The athletic report will be heard.

Legislature Meet

A "lame-duck" session of the Student Legislature will meet tonight with no business as yet announced.

Speaker Ted Leonard said last week he hoped some consideration of the 1951 student budget would be possible.

An omnibus elections code, a revamped edition of the present law, is now pending in the body's Elections Committee, but committee chairman Sheldon Plager has given no indication when it will be ready for the Legislature floor.

This is the last session of the Eighth Student Legislature, and the last to be presided over by Leonard. New legislators and vice president-elect Herb Mitchell will take over at the next session.

Students Pass Constitution By Heavy Vote

Document Is OK'd By Voting Margin Of 686 Ballots

Despite opposition from factions of the Town Men's and Town Girls' Association, the revised Student Constitution passed in Tuesday's General Election by a 686-vote margin. Elections Board Chairman Jim Gwynn revealed yesterday.

The only district which voted the new governing article down was Town Men's District Two, which barely defeated the measure, 56-54. All other districts accepted the rewritten document, and in two districts, Women's Dorm one and two, a total of only 56 votes were cast against it, while 224 women voted in favor of it.

The overall vote for the five men's dormitory districts was 890-532 in favor of the revised edition of the constitution. The four town men's districts went 546-328 in favor of the rewrite, lending the strongest opposition of the day to the revamped article.

The two women's dorm districts, voting 224-56 in favor of the document, gave it the strongest support. The single women's town district voted better than two-to-one in favor of the amended constitution, giving it a 66-29 okay.

Guthrie Is WAA Prexy; Runoffs Set

Carolyn Guthrie was named president of the Women's Athletic Association, according to the returns from Tuesday's election. She received 218 votes as compared with the 151 Ducky Carter received.

In the race for the vice presidency of WAA there will be a runoff between Nina Norvell (128) and Dot Teague (159). Nancy Escholtz (77) is out of the race.

Audrey Brown (190) defeated Betty Sue Jacobs (159 for secretary, and Betty Cameron (188) defeated Margaret Booth (142) for treasurer. Margaret Garrett (193) won over Debby Ettinger (139) for awards chairman.

In the Coed Senate race Kash Davis (130) will oppose Peggy Wood (137) in the runoff. Dodie Boyer (110) is out of the running.

Senate members from Alderman will be Sue Lanier (26) and Anne Townsend (32). Teensie (See COEDS, page 4)

MRS. ARRINGTON

Chi O Award Is Presented To Arrington

By Wuff Newell
Mrs. Katherine Pendleton Arrington, a founder of the North Carolina State Art Society and president of the organization since 1926, was awarded the first annual Distinguished Award for Women in North Carolina by the Chi Omega Sorority last night.

Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, made the presentation at a ceremony presided over by Chancellor Robert B. House. University administration, faculty members, Chi Omega friends and special guests attended the presentation which took place in the Faculty Lounge of the Morehead Building.

The citation honored Mrs. Arrington "for her untiring effort in the encouragement of the creative arts."

It recognized her contribution to the study and appreciation of art among all the people of North Carolina and especially among the children of the public schools.

"She has been an inspiration and help to young artists," the citation read, "and she has brought national recognition to her state through unselfish service in civic and cultural activities."

In a speech of acceptance, Mrs. Arrington said, "It is most gratifying to be considered worthy of such an honor, and I accept it with appreciation and humility."

Following the presentation of the award, Mrs. Arrington made a talk on "The Place of the American Woman in the World Today."

Presidency, DTH Ed Post Are At Stake

UP Nominees Led In Tuesday Vote; Prepare Campaigns

By Roy Parker
Four candidates for major campus posts cleared their political decks for another week of campaigning yesterday as runoffs were slated for both the presidency of the student body and editor of the Daily Tar Heel.

University Party candidate Don Van Noppen, who led Tuesday's presidential field with 1,120 votes, will face John Sanders, Student Party standard bearer, who had 1,030 votes in the Tuesday balloting.

For editor of the DTH, staff, backed UP candidate Chuck Hauser will face independent Graham Jones. Hauser garnered 1,188 votes Tuesday and Jones had 950. SP nominee Bill Kellam was eliminated with 721.

In the presidential race, two independent candidates were eliminated. Toby Selby had 558 votes, while Joe Borello received 186.

The traditional SP-UP dorm-town split was evident in the results, although Van Noppen lead slightly in both dorm districts 4 and 5. Sanders piled up a large vote in other dorm precincts, including both coed dorm areas. Selby was top man in dorm district 1.

Independent DTH editor candidate Jones split SP candidate Kellam's dorm strength. Jones lead in four dorm districts. Hauser ran second.

Applications For Old Well Must Be In

Today is the last day for juniors and seniors who have received applications for the Order of the Old Well to return them to 301 South Building, according to Pete Gerns, president of the Order.

The office will be open from 9:45 to 10:45 and from 3 to 5 o'clock.

"If anyone who should have been sent an application was inadvertently left off our list and did not receive one, he should see Dean Mackie today," Gerns said. "Our files contain the names and activities of over 2,000 students, and it is possible that we could have made a mistake in not sending applications to some students."

"The offices to which a student are elected in this election will not count toward membership this spring," Gerns said.

UP Policy-Makers Meeting Today

The University Party Steering Committee will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Roland Parker Lounge of Graham Memorial, Chairman Paul Roth announced yesterday.

The meeting will be devoted to discussion of runoff campaigns in the presidential race and the Daily Tar Heel editorship battle. The UP policy-makers will also spend time in reviewing the outcome of Tuesday's general election.

Mitchell Is Veep; Talley, Mills Win

University Party vice president Legislative over which he defeated candidate Herb Mitchell will preside, won 1,443 to 1,359 over Prince.

Prince, in a statement conceding Mitchell's victory, said yesterday, "I would like to extend my heartiest congratulations to Herb on his election. There is no doubt in my mind that the Legislature is now under the (See WINNERS page 4)
