

Wake Forest Baseball Team Wins Over Tar Heels, 12-6

Eight Tar Heel Errors Aid Deacs In Gaining Loop Win

By Larry Fox

GORE FIELD, WAKE FOREST, April 2 — Take eight Carolina errors, add seven bases on balls and stir well with nine Wake Forest safeties and you get a 12-6 victory for the Demon Deacons over the Tar Heels in a Big Four baseball game here this afternoon.

Both squads collected nine hits, but the loose play of the Carolina team helped the Deacs considerably in cornering their second straight win in Big Four play.

Harry Nicholas, who pitched 5 1/2 innings for Wake Forest, was credited with the victory while Tar Heel righthander Ed Gaston, the first of four Carolina hurlers, was tagged with the loss.

Wake Forest tallied three unearned runs off Ed Gaston in the first inning, but the two that followed in the second were certainly deserved. With Wiley Warren on first via a single over second, Nicholas lit into Gaston's first pitch for a tremendous home run to straight-away center field.

Nicholas' blast went about 425 feet on the fly.

Gaston went out for a pinch-hitter in top of the third and Bill McGinn came in to pitch the next inning. He gave up a walk and a single by Art Hoch in the fourth and then retired because of a strained back muscle.

That started an uprising that counted five runs without another base hit. Hoover Surles relieved McGinn and put three more men on base, two scoring, before George Whitted was called from the bull pen.

Whitted, on the varsity squad for four years, made the first mound appearance of his career today and after the fourth he pitched tight ball. The Deacs weren't through taking charity, however, and they accepted three more tallies with thanks.

Whitted did all right for the rest of the game, allowing only two more Wake Forest runs.

Gymnastics Team, Weightlifters To Compete In Meets

The Carolina gymnastics team will leave Chapel Hill Friday to compete in the Southern Intercollegiate Gymnastics Championship meet to be held April 15 at Georgia Tech. At the same time the Carolina weight lifting team will be host to the Carolina AAU Weightlifting championship and the "Mr. Carolinas" contest.

Gymnastics Coach Bill Meade will take four men with him to Georgia Tech. They are Bill Creech, Bill Park, Darrell Byerly, and Perry Ritch. Byerly will be competing in four events—rope, high bar, flying ring, and tumbling. The other three will compete in one event only.

Eight schools will be competing for the team title. Maryland and Georgia Tech each are co-favorites.

The weightlifting meet will be conducted in two sections—novice and open divisions. Carolina entries expected to place high are Charlie Ufen and Elton Todd, both State Champions, and David Littlejohn and Keg Wheeler. Ronald Sullivan will be on hand to defend his "Mr. Carolinas" title. Winner of the contest is chosen according to who has the prettiest muscles.

Freshman Netters Defeat Goldsboro

Carolina's freshman tennis team came back yesterday, after losing to the Duke freshmen Tuesday, and defeated the Goldsboro High School by a score of 8-1.

Eight singles matches and four doubles matches were played. The actual score was 10-2, Carolina losing one singles and one doubles match, but the official score was 8-1, only six singles and three doubles matches officially counting.

Joe Loveland, substituting in the number one singles spot for Del Sylvia, who was out because of possible ineligibility, lost his match to Bud Wallace of the visitors. Loveland took the first set, 6-4, but Wallace came back to take the next two, 6-2, 6-2.

Baby Deacs Victors, 7-6 Over Frosh

By Ken Barton

The unbeaten string of the Wake Forest freshmen nine was extended yesterday afternoon in Emerson Stadium in a three-hour contest which saw the Deacons win in extra innings from the now twice-beaten Tar Babies, 7-6.

Jack Liptak scored from third base after tagging up on Bud Smith's foul fly to deep right in the tenth inning and the run stood up as the margin of victory, when relief pitcher for the Baby Deacs, Don Wodlief, got Bob Henning to pop up and Ed Hooks to strike out with the bases loaded in the last of the inning.

Wake Forest broke the ice in the first inning on a three base error of a fly dropped by John Molsinger in center field and Eugene Smith's single. However, the Tar Babies came back in the second to even the score on Wayne Harpold's homerun over the left fielder's head.

Both teams big three run innings which looked at though they might be the difference of the game. Wake Forest scored three in the third on homeruns by Bob Coluni and Frank Wehner. Carolina scored three in the fourth on Don Gilleland's base on balls, Harpold's single, and pitcher Bill Lore's homerun.

Lore was the first hurler to pitch nine innings for the Tar Babies this season—only to lose in the tenth. Lore struck out 10 men while he was in their. Relief hurler Wodlief was credited with the win.

A return engagement of these two teams is scheduled for Wake Forest at 3:30 P.M. on Saturday. The freshmen record for Carolina now is two wins and two losses.

Golfers Meet Michigan At Hope Valley Today

By Lew Chapman

The Tar Heel golfers, abruptly derailed in their last two outings will attempt to get back on the winning track this afternoon at the Hope Valley course in Durham when they match strokes with an invading crew of linksmen from the University of Michigan.

Following their defeat at the hands of Wake Forest's red-hot club-swingers Tuesday, the locals now possess a six up and two down record with only five dual matches remaining on the schedule.

The Carolina contingent will be up against some tough competition come tee off time this afternoon. Michigan, last year's Big Ten golf champion, has been getting in some extensive practice licks the last couple days at Pinehurst and with practically the same squad returning, the Wolverines would like nothing better than to gain revenge for the one point margin of victory the Tar Heels gained in last season's clash.

On of the chief par-busters on the visiting six is Bob Olsen, returning again this year to assume his job as captain of the Wolverines. One of the greatest additions to the invaders is in the person of John Lind, a sophomore who is the former National

Coed Swimming Meet To Be Held Tonight

Tonight at 7:30 the most important coed competition of the season will get under way at Bowman Gray Pool. The coeds are all set for their big intramural swimming meet.

The meet will feature competition between the various sororities and dormitories on campus. The coeds will compete both individually and on their organizations' teams.

The events to be judged on speed include the 25-yard free style, 25-yard back crawl, 25-yard breast stroke, and the 200 yard free style. The teams from the various organizations will compete against each other in the 75-yard medley relay. Also to be included is an event which will be judged solely on the basis of form.

The contest promises to provide a great deal of excitement and entertainment.

Frosh Score Initial Dual Meet Victory

By Lew Chapman

The undefeated Carolina freshman track team got off to a victorious outdoor season start yesterday afternoon by soundly trouncing High Point High School, 92 1/2-29 1/2, in a dual meet at Fetzer Field.

Coach Dick Maxwell's talented crew won every event in the meet with the exception of the mile run and the mile relay. During the course of the afternoon, the Tar Baby cinder crew racked a total of four clean sweeps, the 100, half, javelin and discus. High Point took all three spots in the mile.

Bobby Bell turned out to be the star of the afternoon, sweeping three first places. Bell's victories came in the 120-yard high hurdles, the 200-yard lows and the broad jump.

Rupert Bliss was the dash star of the meet, copping firsts in the 220 and the quarter. Sam Jordan, who gave the Tar Heels first in the high jump and tied for first in the pole vault, was the only other dual winner.

Bobby Byrd, former state high school mile champion, ran the half yesterday and sprinted home in 2:00.9, his best time of the year. Jack Bennett and Bobby Webb followed Byrd across the tape.

Varsity Netmen Meet Deacs In Opening Conference Tilt

Coach John Kenfield's undefeated varsity netters will move over to Wake Forest this afternoon for their first match away from the local courts.

The Deacons netmen will be decisive underdogs to the Tar Heels who have completely outclassed all opposition thus far. Last week the Wake Forest team was blanked by Presbyterian College, 9-0 and this week the powerful Carolina squad pasted the Presbyterian by the same score.

It will be the locals' first match with big four and Southern Conference opposition.

Saturday the Carolina netmen play host to Kalamazoo College from Michigan on the varsity courts. Kalamazoo, a tennis stronghold in Michigan, turns out top teams in their areas and may give the locals their stiffest opposition yet.

Heath Alexander, Carolina

number three man who has been out of action following a dislocated knee in the Harvard matches, may see action Saturday but it is unlikely that he will start against Wake Forest today.

The Carolina racquetmen will be out for win number eleven today and barring a major catastrophe, it will be their eleventh straight in a row. There are fourteen matches remaining for the Tar Heels which includes encounters with William and Mary, Davidson, and Miami—all considered top teams this year.
