

Tar Heel Baseballers Rally In 9th To Defeat Blue Devils, 6-5

Lamb Scores Winning Run With Bases-Loaded Single

Rightfielder Ed Lamb lined a clean single between first and second in the ninth inning yesterday at Emerson Stadium to drive home Joe Brookshire and Mark Herring and give Carolina's baseballers a reprieve 6-5 win over Duke.

The Tar Heels had blown a 4-1 lead in the first half of the final game when the Blue Devils teed off on starter Bill McGinn and Dean Cassell to go one run ahead, 5-4.

Brookshire led off the Carolina half with a single, however, and when Joe Proctor, hitting for Cassell, moved him up to second with a sacrifice bunt it seemed that the Tar Heels had a chance to get back in the ball game.

Tommy Stevens, a lefthander, was then sent in to face Duke's Bud Ayers. The Blue Devils' board of strategy however, called in southpaw Dick Hale to throw against Stevens. After one pitch, Coach Walter Rabb put in righthander Bull Page. The rattled Duke pitcher went on to walk the Carolina man, putting runners on first and second.

Herring then came in to run for Page, Joe Eldridge, who had driven across the first Carolina run in the initial frame with a triple, was fanned. With one out catcher Charlie Overman dropped a fluke hit down the third base line and when the Duke catcher held the ball, all hands were safe.

Lamb then came up to make his game-winning hit to right field that gave the Tar Heels their second win over Duke. As usual, Carolina got off to a fast lead. Bill Reeves, the first man up, led off with a single. Eldridge then came through with his triple that carried to the Vets Club to score the Carolina centerfielder.

McGinn pitched hitless ball for the first three innings and did not let the Blue Devils score until the sixth. Then two walks and a center field single by Jack Clower brought Duke within 2-1.

The Tar Heels retaliated in the bottom of the sixth when Overman tagged up on a fly to left field by Dan Whiteheart. The Carolina catcher had singled to start the inning and advanced on Lamb's bunt hit and a walk to Will Hobbs.

Imp Revenge Is Tar Baby Track Motive

By Frank Allston, Jr. Revenge for their only dual meet loss of the season will be the motivating force behind the freshman track squad tomorrow when it journeys to Durham to take on the Blue Imps of Duke University in a freshman meet to be run along with the varsity competition between the two schools.

Carolina's yearlings are expected to be without the services of star miler and half-miler Bobby Byrd, who wrenched his back throwing the discus recently. The big Durham native was a three-time winner against the Blue Imps, securing blue ribbon awards in the mile, half and discus.

Otherwise the Tar Heels are expected to be in top shape. Jack Bennett, who finished second behind Byrd in the half, will probably run both distance events as will Bobby Webb. These two may take up some of the slack, but won't be expected to do it all. Two-mile winner Mike Healy is favored to repeat.

Bucky Coleman, who took second in the discus behind Byrd in the last Duke meet, is another doubtful entry tomorrow, but will probably enter the circle to compete against the Durhamites.

Carolina fell short in the first Duke fresh meet in the sprints. The Tar Babies were shut out in both the 100-yard dash and the 220, both of which were copped by Dick Sykes. If Carolina sprinters Duck Holder, Jim Plott and Barry Kalb can score a few points here, the meet will be much closer.

Sam Jordan jumped 5 ft. 11 in. in the high jump to gain a tie with John Cates of Duke while Cates and Whitfield both cleared 11 ft. 6 in. in the pole vault. Jordan will have to improve on both performances if he is to win.

Mural Softball Will End; Playoffs To Begin Monday

By Walt M. Dear, II Intramural softball comes to an end this Monday with all eleven leagues finishing up. In the dormitory leagues, A Dorm 1 has already won in League 3 while the outcomes in league 1 with the Med School leading and in League 4 with Emerson out front are still in doubt.

League 2 is currently the hottest league to watch. Stacy, B Dorm and Victory Village are fighting it out for the championship. All three teams have a 5-1 record.

Highlighting the week in the dorm league was Stacy's Choo Regan who pitched a one-hit ball game against B Dorm with Stacy winning by a 4-0 margin. This game put Stacy in a three-way tie with B Dorm and Victory Village.

In the fraternity leagues Beta 1 has won the league 1 championship, while Sigma Chi and Kappa Psi have led their leagues, 2 and 5 respectively. Theta Chi and Chi Phi in leagues 3 and 4 will be in playoff games to determine the winners of their leagues. The outcome in league 6 and 7 is not sure with Phi Delt 2 and Phi Kappa Sig 1 ahead.

DEAN CASSELL CAME on in the ninth to relieve starter Bill McGinn and went on to win, 6-5 against Duke here yesterday. It was his third Southern Conference victory of the year.

Southern Conference Golf Tourney To Start Tomorrow

WINSTON-SALEM, May 11—The annual Southern Conference golf tournament is scheduled to get underway at the Old Town Country Club here Saturday morning. Over 100 collegiate golfers are expected to compete in the one-day 36-hole tourney.

Wake Forest's Arnold Palmer was the 1949 Southern Conference champion and is current holder of the Southern Intercollegiate crown, which he won two weeks ago. Another strong contender for the tourney is North Carolina's Harvie Ward, defending N.C.C.A. champion.

Duke won the team championship here last year. Wake Forest and Carolina are co-favorites to take team honors this year. The Deacs, Southern Intercollegiate champs, were beaten two weeks ago by North Carolina and Duke in turn clubbed the Tar Heels, Duke is the "dark horse" entry of the tournament.

Team competition this year will find the nation's two top collegiate golfers and a host of other top-ranking collegiate linksmen. The Southern tourney each year stacks up as one of the best in the nation.

A large gathering is expected to crowd the Old Town course to watch the second straight year of loop play here. Several home town boys will be among the participants and will lure many local fans to watch the links action.

Carolina's Roy McKenzie and Stubb Sapp, number two and three men on the Tar Heel squad are from Winston as well as Duke's number two man, Bailey Glenn.

Ward and Palmer last finished in a close fight for medal honor with Palmer edging the Tar Heel ace out in the final analysis. Ward then went on to establish himself as the nation's top collegiate golfer when he won the NCAA tourney last June.

The two neighboring aces will probably be locked in another close duel such as was seen here in 1949 and more recently witnessed at the Southern tourney in Athens, Georgia.

Sain Tosses Four-Hitter To Win, 3-0

CHICAGO, May 11—(AP)—Johnny Sain handcuffed the Chicago Cubs with a four-hitter today to lead the Boston Braves to a 30 triumph that split the two-game series.

Sain out-dueled Bill Voiselle and Walt Dubiel in registering his fourth victory of the season against two losses.

Voiselle allowed only six hits in his eight innings. Dubiel finished with a perfect ninth. A sloppy defense cost Voiselle two runs in the fifth and one in the sixth which developed from Sid Gordon's seventh homer.

Bosox Drop Pair

BOSTON, May 11—(AP)—The combination of ragged first game pitching and costly nightcap errors by Ted Williams and Walt Droppo enabled the Detroit Tigers to gain outright possession of first place today by sweeping a double-header from the Boston Red Sox, 13-4 and 5-3.

The clubs started off in a top-place .667 percentage tie, the Red Sox with 14 wins and seven losses and the Tigers with a 10-5 mark. But the Tigers caught up with Joe Dobson, the first game starter, at an early stage, and, as three other Boston hurlers took luckless turns on the mound, Red Roife's hard-driving performers totaled 11 hits and 14 bases on balls.

Nats Lick Chisox, 8-5

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP) Bob Ortiz hit a triple, double and a single today to lead the Washington Senators to an 8-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox. It was the Senators' fifth straight victory.

Scoring three runs in the first, the Senators were never headed. Even so, starting pitcher Joe Haynes needed help to win his first game of the year. Micky Harris took over the pitching chores for Washington in the seventh.

Chicago's Cass Michaels and Johnny Ostrowski slammed home runs for a losing cause. In addition, Michaels had a double and a single to pace Chicago's nine-hit attack.

Indians Win In 10th

PHILADELPHIA, May 11—(AP) Lou Boudreau, back in the lineup after benching himself for weak hitting, cracked four hits, drove in one run and set up the winning warbler today as his Cleveland Indians beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-3, in 10 innings. Boudreau's fourth hit came in the 10th inning and sent Joe Gordon, who had singled, scurrying to third where he scored as Jim Hegan hit into a forceout.

Tar Heel Track Squad To Meet Strong Duke

Bill Albans, Bob Morrow and other outstanding Carolina track men who have dominated their specialties week after week will face a strong challenge this Saturday afternoon when the Tar Heels meet Duke's talented team in Durham.

On the Blue Devil squad are some of the top track and field men in the South. One of the best is co-captain Tommy Reeves, who last week ran the low hurdles in 23.3 seconds to break the Duke University record for the event by two-tenths of a second. That same afternoon Albans won the low hurdles against Georgia Tech in the time of 23.7.

Both Albans and Morrow are fine competitors and will run their best race against a tough opponent like Reeves. Albans has the added incentive of never having been defeated in the low hurdles in a Southern meet.

Another top race ought to be the 880 where Conference champ Hal Holden and Laddie Terrell of Carolina race Henry Bullock. Holden has yet to be beaten this year, but not until last week did he turn in an outstanding time because he has not been pressed.

Bullock did 1:55.6 last week to tie the Duke record and if anyone can make Holden run his best, it will be Bullock.

But don't count out Terrell. He is a veteran sprinter and middle-distance man and a steady competitor of the type that is always ready to upset the favorites.

The 100 and 220-yard dashes, two of the top spectator favorites, is a four way fight. Henry Poss, the sophomore sprint sensation from Duke, and Tar Heels Dave Willis, Frank Scott, and Bill Crimmons figure to finish both races right together.

Of the group, Poss has turned in the best times for the year, a 9.6 in the 100 and a 21.3 in the 220. However, comparative times are misleading and anyone of the Carolina trio is liable to come through with winning performances. At the beginning of the season Scott looked like the best bet in both races, but recently Willis has taken the lead in (See TRACK, page 5)

Frosh Lose To Duke, 5-4 In Big Fourth

Special to The Daily Tar Heel. DURHAM, May, 11—The Tar Baby baseball team's three game winning streak came to an abrupt end here today as the Blue Imps of Duke pushed across four runs in the fourth inning to win a close ball game, 5-4.

Two singles and an error produced a run for the Imps in the third. Carolina came back with two in the top of the fourth before Duke went wild in the same inning.

Wayne White continued in his hitting ways as he hit a double to open the fourth, and then came in to score on an error on the right fielder's throw.

Walks to Don Gilleland and John Stowe and a subsequent infield knock by Iva Lee Hill, which allowed Gilleland to score on the fielder's choice, put the Tar Babies out in front.

A single by Stowe, a double by Jeeter Lee, and a single by Pitcher Bill Lore, who went all the way for the loss, produced two more in the sixth.

The victory puts the Duke freshmen out in front two games to one in the season series. Carolina meets the State freshmen on Saturday at Chapel Hill. North Carolina
