

OUTPLAYED IRISH WIN, 14-7

Maryland Defeats Scrappy Middies In 35-21 Thriller

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Sept. 30—Maryland snapped back from last week's loss to Georgia by topping a scrappy Navy team 35-21 before 43,836 fans in the inaugural of the new Byrd Stadium today.

The Terps showed the home folks a fine rushing and passing offense that seemed capable of breaking loose for a touchdown at almost anytime against the under-manned Middies.

Sophomore John Scarbath, directing the split-T from quarterback, led Maryland by scoring one touchdown on a 21-yard run and tossing to ends Stan Karnash and Pete Augsburg for two more.

Navy could not score until late in the third quarter at which time the Terps had a comfortable 21-0 lead. It was Frank Adorney who scored from three yards out for the Navy to cap a 90-yard drive that was sparked by a 55-yard run down the sideline by Fred Franco.

Maryland started the game as though it might be a complete rout by moving 67 yards for a touchdown the second time they got their hands on the ball. Scarbath and Halfback Shemonski carried for the Maryland 33 to the 42.

Shemonski then tossed to Augsburg for a first down on the Navy 21 and Scarbath skirted left end on an optional pitch-out play for the score. Bob Dean made it 7-0, with the first of his five extra points.

Scarbath upped the lead to 14-0 in the second period by capping an 80-yard drive by the Terps with a 41-yard scoring pass to Karnash. The touchdown was set up by tosses from Scarbath to Augsburg and Shemonski to Halfback Jack Targarona.

Augsberger, the favorite Maryland receiver, completed the first half scoring by taking a 34-yard pass from Scarbath on the Navy (See MARYLAND, page 4)

State Tops Catawba In Close 7-6 Game

Special to The Daily Tar Heel
RALEIGH, RIDDICK STADIUM, Sept. 30.—The margin of an extra point gave North Carolina State their first win of the season tonight when the Wolfpack turned back stubborn little Catawba College, 7-6.

Grid Scores

Notre Dame 14	North Carolina 7
Alabama 25	Tulane 14
Vanderbilt 41	Auburn 10
W & M 29	Cincinnati 14
Illinois 28	Ohio U. 7
Nebraska 20	Indiana 20 (Tie)
Northwestern 23	Iowa State 13
Wisconsin 23	Marquette 6
Oklahoma 28	Boston College 0
Clemson 34	Missouri 0
Texas 34	Purdue 25
Boylor 34	Houston 7
South Carolina 7	Georgia Tech 0
Oklahoma A & M 13	Texas Christian 7
Mississippi State 7	Tennessee 0
Dartmouth 21	Holy Cross 21 (Tie)
Washington & Lee 26	W. Virginia 7
Duke 28	Pittsburgh 14
Michigan State 14	Michigan 7
Southern Methodist 32	Ohio State 27
Yale 36	Brown 12
Maryland 35	Navy 21
Princeton 68	Williams 0
Penn State 34	Georgetown 14
Penn 21	Lafayette 0
Cornell 27	Hobart 12
Columbia 42	Virginia 0
Army 28	Colgate 0
California 28	Oregon 7
Washington 28	Minnesota 13
UCLA 42	Wash. State 0
Stanford 41	San Francisco 7

800 Students Greet Gridders At R-D Airport

Plane Taxies In At 10:50 P.M.; Gray On Board

By Chuck Hauser
RALEIGH - DURHAM AIRPORT, Sept. 30.—A battered but proud Carolina football team stepped off a giant DC-6 airplane here tonight to be greeted by more than 800 supporters who had to stay in Chapel Hill while their hearts were a thousand miles away.

It seemed like every car on the campus had loaded to capacity to make the 30-mile trip to the airport to welcome the fighting band of gridiron warriors home.

(See RETURNS, page 4)

Army Blanks Colgate, 28-0

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Vic Pollock, a slender, speedy halfback from Linfield, Pa., set a Michie Stadium record with a 94-yard touchdown run today as Army extended its unbeaten football record to 21 consecutive games by whipping Colgate 28 to 0.

Pollock's run was just one of several long gallops that provided a one-sided score for a game that might otherwise have been close, or even disastrous for Army.

Fullback Gil Stephenson galloped 55 yards to set up the opening touchdown in the first quarter. His substitute on the offensive platoon, Al Pollard, scored on a 47-yard run in the second period and Jim Cain and Jack Martin reeled off long runs that failed to produce.

Stephenson made two of the touchdowns, scoring the first on an eight-yard off tackle drive after his long dash and the third on a three-yard plunge at the end of Army's one concerted drive. Pollard, tabbed as Army's secret weapon, kicked all four extra points.

Gamecocks Edge Tech, 7-0, In Final 4 Minutes

ATLANTA, Sept. 30.—(UP)—Gamecocks to the Georgia Tech 40. Steve found a hole off right tackle and zigged through the Tech secondary before he was pulled down on the five. Hottie Johnson made it to the one on two plunges and Wadiak went over. Bill Killoy kicked the extra point.

In the first three periods it was give and take with South Carolina showing a little better game both on the ground and through the air. Carolina drove to Tech's 13 in the second period on the running of right halfback Jimmy Kincaid, but a bad pass from center and two losses threw the Gamecocks back to their own 34 where they were forced to punt.

Gamecocks to the Georgia Tech 40. Steve found a hole off right tackle and zigged through the Tech secondary before he was pulled down on the five. Hottie Johnson made it to the one on two plunges and Wadiak went over. Bill Killoy kicked the extra point.

Bunting Runs Wild, Holdash Stone Wall For Inspired UNC

Wallace Makes Lone Tar Heel Score; Williams' Passing Sparks ND Victory

By Frank Allston, Jr.
NOTRE DAME STADIUM, South Bend, Ind. Sept. 30.—A determined Carolina football team played one of the greatest games in University history here this afternoon, only to see a fourth period touchdown bring Notre Dame a 14-7 victory over the valiant Tar Heels before a roaring crowd of 56,430.

Seemingly about to become the first team in four years to hand the Irish a defeat, the Tar Heels outplayed, outfought and outlasted the bigger Notre Dame eleven for the entire second half. All-America Quarterback Bob Williams preserved the Irish victory string at 39.

Sophomore Tailback Bud Wallace scored the Tar Heel touchdown which tied the game early in the final frame when he took a spinner from Hayes on the two and decrashed over right end to cilmx a 78-yard drive down field.

The Carolina aggregation looked like a new team in the second half after sputtering in the first

First Downs	ND 8	UNC 10
Rushing Yardage	135	173
Passing Yardage	128	56
Passes Attempted	27	17
Passes Completed	14	5
Passes Intercepted	4	1
Punts	7	6
Punting Average	43	41
Fumbles Lost	1	2
Yards Penalized	58	15

half and never succeeding in getting a scoring drive started. The big Tar Heel linemen smeared Irish backs and continually rushed Williams on his pass plays.

Statistics showed that Carolina had the advantage in every department except in passing. The Tar Heels gained 173 yards on the ground to 135 for the Irish. Carolina made 10 first downs to Notre Dame's eight.

In the second half, the Carolina line solidly backed by the vicious play of center Irv Holdash, held the defending national champions to 44 yards rushing.

Tar Heel Tailback Dick Bunting was the ground gaining star of the game, picking up 86 yards in 13 carries for a 6-6 average. Fleet Irish Halfback is Billy Barrett picked up 72 yards in nine tries.

The luck of the Irish prevailed in the first period when two costly Carolina fumbles twice gave the Irish the ball deep in Carolina territory. The first time Carolina held with the aid of a clipping penalty, but the second time Notre Dame cashed in on the free chance and a Williams pass accounted for the six points.

Big Jim Mutscheller was on the receiving end of the Williams heave from two yards out. Mutscheller latched onto the ball at the double stripe and dragged Skeet Hesmer into paydirt. Joe (See TAR HEELS, page 4)

Truman Picks Ching Wage Board Head

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(UP)—President Truman has taken another major step toward home front mobilization by picking Federal Mediation Chief Cyrus S. Ching as head of the new Wage Stabilization Board, it was learned today.

Tar Heels Win Irish Hearts, But Not Game

Stars And Bars Float On Campus Of Grid Capital

By Roy Parker, Jr.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 30.—It was like New York. We lost the game, but we won their hearts.

Confederate flags by the hundreds fluttered in the great Notre Dame stadium and across the beautiful campus today. This place reminds one of, pardon the expression, Duke University.

At the Notre Dame pep rally last night, there were four Tar Heel spectators on hand. This writer, Daily Tar Heel staffers Joe Cherry and Andy Taylor, and Gordon Gray, president-elect of the Consolidated University.

Gray, attending the rally "incognito," told us he was very happy to see how our students and alumni here for the game were being received.

Everybody in South Bend is a true host. We get friendly greetings wherever people recognize us as Carolina students. They'd have a hard time not recognizing us, come to think of it, considering the number of Beat Notre Dame buttons and Carolina insignia and flags everyone carries.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Virginia Routed 21-7; Former Waterboy Stars

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—(UP)—Question-Mark Pennsylvania struck with three touchdown passes in the third period today to come from behind and tumble a veteran University of Virginia team, 21-7, before an opening day crowd of 40,000 at Franklin Field.

Capt. Francis (Reds) Bagnell, one-time Penn waterboy, threw two of the passes and Quarterback Dave Coulson tossed the third as the winners capitalized on two interceptions in the winning period.

One touchdown capped an 80-yard march, and the others climaxed marches of 65 and 55 yards, respectively.

Penn, which before today had even its staunchest followers shrugging their shoulders, inaugurated Coach George Munger's 13th season with a display of power which bested the Cavaliers in every department.

Operating a baffling cross buck lateral from the single wing, Penn outrushed Virginia 240 yards to 38, and outpassed the Southerners 164 yards to 129. Bagnell accounted for 106 of the ground yards in 18 carries.

Operating a baffling cross buck lateral from the single wing, Penn outrushed Virginia 240 yards to 38, and outpassed the Southerners 164 yards to 129. Bagnell accounted for 106 of the ground yards in 18 carries.

Blue Devils Unleash Late Passes To Beat Pittsburgh, 28-14

By Lew Chapman
DUKE STADIUM, Sept. 30.—Held in check by a beefy Pittsburgh line during the first half, Duke's Blue Devils took to the air in the last 30 minutes and filled the smoggy atmosphere with passes to win going away over Pitt today by a 28-14 count.

After a first half of defensive tactics, Duke's twin barreled attack of passing fury, Billy Cox and his able understudy Glenn Wild, passed the Devils to a pair of scores and set up another score with their deadly flinging.

The Panthers opened the second half with an electrifying score as Bill Sicho, Pitt's workhorse of the afternoon, grabbed the Blue Devil's kickoff and scooted 75 yards down the sideline for a TD and first blood for the Panthers.

However, the Durham collegians, living up to their press clippings, bounced right back when a Cox to Powers aerial clicked for 39 yards and a score. Pitt took the ensuing kickoff and started a march but a pass interception set up the second Blue Devil touchdown. A following 62-yard drive by Duke was culminated by Wild's pass to Powers and gave the Blue Devils a 14-7 margin.

Early in the fourth period, a punt was blocked by the entire Duke squad nearly cost the Blue Devils a victory. After a drive had stalled on the Pitt 20, Duke's Mike Souchak attempted a field goal that would insure a triumph. The kick, however, was short and Pitt's Sicho grabbed the ball in the end zone and took off up the sideline while the Duke defenders were still watching the ball in its arc. Sicho went 77 yards to the Duke 23 before he was caught from behind. Pitt tallied the tying points in three more plays.

The aroused Dukesters then took the kickoff and marched 85 yards for the winning tally with Mounie bucking from the 1. A 60 yard scoring run by Duke's Bob Bickel of an intercepted pass completed the scoring in the waning moments of the clash.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.

Everywhere the talk is of Huck Holdash as All America material. We didn't argue.

Hawkers have been selling hundreds of Confederate flags all day, with a good many of them being snapped up by local residents and Notre Dame rooters who may not realize their significance.