25 and scored standing. Navy came back and scored on Adorney's line buck but Maryland end Elmer Wingate intercepted a pass by Mike Sorrentino and ran 30 yards for a score to squash the Navy's hopes of a victory.

A few minutes later Navy's Ira Kane fumbled on his own 27 to set up Maryland's fifth touchdown. Halfback Ed Modzelewski bucked over from the four after a pass from Joe Petruzzo to Augsberger set things up.

The Middies fought back gamely and scored twice more, late in the fourth quarter. Quarterback Bob Zastro threw to End Bill Wilson to score on a play that covered 51 yards and Center Ted Kukowski intercepted a pass by Joe Armsworthy on the Maryland 14 and ran over for the score.

munched on an orange. He was very proud of his team. "The game went exactly as we anticipated," commented the Irish mentor. "Carolina is a very well-coached team. That Holdash boy played a tremendous game for the Tar Heels."

Over in the Carolina locker room Irvin "Huck" Holdash was posing for pictures with his Dad and Coach Snavelly. Huck was disappointed that Carolina lost, but said "I think it is a preview of a good season. It showed that we can play good ball if we want to."

Disappointed Dick Bunting, who also drew much praise from everyone, didn't have much to say. Like everyone else in the UNC camp, he felt the Tar Heels should have won the game.

Coach Carl Snavelly remarked on a few of the mistakes the Tar Heels made, but said "they could have happened to anyone." He was very proud of the way Carolina came back after the two early fumbles and the quick Notre Dame touchdown. "We have a very good football team," he said.

Greater University President Gordon Gray had this to say about the hard-fought game: "I was mighty proud of the team. They were certainly a real credit to the University. The play was hard but clean. You couldn't ask a team to play a better game. The general conduct of both teams was very pleasing." President Gray made a personal appearance in the Carolina locker room immediately after the game.

Although the Tar Heel supporters were sad about losing the close contest, the longest faces in South Bend after the game belonged to the bookies—they had given Carolina and 27.

dashed to the Notre Dame nine. On the next play Bunting went over right guard and hit the Irish two. The Notre Dame line stiffened and threw Bunting at the four on the next play.

A fourth down pass by Bunting as he was being tackled was hauled in by Irish Guard Paul Burns at the five and he returned to the Carolina 49. After picking up a first down on running plays, Williams tried passing and met no success, being rushed hard by the Tar Heel line.

An exchange of punts gave Carolina the ball on the Tar Heel 22, and set the stage for the lone Blue and White touchdown.

On first down, Hayes went over right guard on a delayed buck for twelve yards and a first down. A second down pass from Hayes to End C. C. White moved the ball down to the Notre Dame 44.

Jackie Cooke moved into the wingback position when Gantt was shaken up and he carried to the 40. A Hayes to Cooke pass down the middle gained a first down at the 32. Wallace went over right guard to the 27 and Hayes blasted through center for the first down at the Irish 20.

Wallace carried around left end on a spinner and was knocked out of bounds at the two. From there he carried over with four and a half minutes elapsed and the Carolina side went wild. Fred Sherman came in to split the uprights for the seventh and tying point.

The two fired up teams then battled each other to a stalemate for most of the quarter with Wallace, Bunting and Williams busily engaged in more punting.

Finally with about five minutes remaining, the Irish took over on the Notre Dame 45 when Dave Flood intercepted a long pass from Hayes to Wallace.

The Irish moved straight down the field and scored eight plays later when Williams fired a strike down the middle from the Carolina 26. Mutscheller caught the ball and stepped out of the end zone and Joe Caprara kicked his second point of the day.

With two minutes remaining, Carolina moved from the 23 to the 49 when White picked up 26 yards on an end around. Two running plays moved to the Notre Dame 42, but Flood hauled in an errant Bunting pass at the five. Time ran out before play could resume.

The four-engine ship taxied in and feathered its props at 10:50 p.m., just five minutes late according to its schedule. But the majority of the crowd had been waiting at field since around 9 o'clock, an earlier and incorrect estimated time of arrival.

Airport beer sales boomed as the welcoming committee sang fight songs and screamed cheers through the haze of the landing field for more than an hour prior to the landing.

As the team stepped down onto the ramp leading off the plane, the crowd pressed close and succeeded in hoisting several of the players aboard their shoulders. Blond Dick Bunting, one of the last to step off the plane, was borne off just as Coach Carl Snavelly's head appeared in the door of the airliner.

Snavelly reached the bottom of the ramp closely followed by Gordon Gray, president-elect of the Consolidated University. As the strains of "Hark the Sound" broke out, Snavelly was carried off and Gray, unrecognized by most of the crowd, stood at the foot of the ramp, hat over his heart.

Bunting said he didn't have much to say, except they knew we were there. The other members of the team echoed the sentiment.

"We were naturally disappointed that we lost," Snavelly murmured, "but we're glad to know we played a good game. The team was in very good shape."

"EASIEST TEST IN THE BOOK"

COMPARE CHESTERFIELD WITH ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

BEFORE YOU SMOKE THEM
...you can tell Chesterfields will smoke milder, because tobaccos that smell milder smoke milder.
AFTER YOU SMOKE THEM
...you have no unpleasant after-taste.

WHILE YOU SMOKE THEM you get more pleasure than any other cigarette can give you—that's why millions of smokers say: THEY SATISFY.
