Take a jam session with The Woody, sprinkle assorted tea parties, spice with a dashing 40 to 7 football victory and top with a luscious queen—those are ingredients for Homecoming, 1950 style.

Ingenious innovations to the old weekend theme of party-party were added by the ATO's who gathered at the Mercury Club to see who could out-slink whom. Evidently Nina Norvele and Jack Woodell can, for they walked in with the best costumes, strictly Apache all the way. Jack At-

Aberdeen; Albert Rumbough, Mars Hill; Russell Shouse, Winston-Salem; Bill Swan, Andrews; Jimmie Wallace, Jamesville; Frank Wamsley, Asheville; Gary Widenhouse, Concord; Melvin Woodford, Clemens; Harry Young Greensboro.

Grady Moutz will lead the class as pledgemaster. The group is dedicated to Lon G. Turner, former chapter alumnus and scouter since 1912, who died two weeks ago.

water and Paul Procter made arrangements and about 150 people enjoyed the affair. Duke ATO's took over the local house while the chapter here journeyed outside the city limits.

The Chi Psi's began the weekend with a banquet Thursday night for their pledges. Special guests were Speaker Walter Spearman of the Journalism Department and Chi Psi alumnus and Dr. R. E. Coker, Chi Psi alumnus who was awarded the O. Max Gardner Award last spring. On Saturday night, alumni were entertained at supper.

With the DKE's, it was an informal party at the Vets Club Friday night followed by a cabin party on Saturday night. Guests were Wilson and Edwin Caudwell.

Homecoming week was also AD Pi week for the Kappa Sig's who entertained the chapter here on Tuesday and then staged a similar party on Thursday night for the Duke girls. Other fraternity-sorority events included a supper date that the Chi Omega's and pledges had with the Beta's on Monday night.

With 41 new pledges, the Phi Kappa Sigmas claim they have the largest class in history. They also are proud of the new class officers. They are: President Jerry Galanides, Norfolk, Va.; Vice President Bobby Middleton, Winston-Salem; Secretary Spencer Boyd, Atlanta, Ga.; and Treasurer Al Harrison, Spencer.

At a recent meeting of the pledge class of AK Psi, Paul Hill was chosen president; Charles Trado, vice president; Marvin Saunders, secretary and Joe Rogers, treasurer.

It was an off-the-record jam session for a special Sig Ep brother and members of the chapter here. That brother was Woody Herman from the Baker University Chapter who, with his band dropped in for breakfast and a jam session after the Saturday night dance.

To Crabtree Park for the eventual closing of the weekend went the Chi Phi's. They celebrated with a cabin party after attending the dance en masse on Friday night.

Still 'Speechless' About Selection, Remarks Queen

By Ida Lewis

"I'm still speechless!" Joyce Evans, Carolina's new Homecoming Queen, exclaimed yesterday.

Joyce, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans of Harrellsville, represented the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. The PiKAs won the homecoming display contest, enabling their sponsor to become the new queen.

"I was surprised when the PiKAs elected me to sponsor them, and completely floored when we won," Joyce stated.

Jerry Sternberg, president of the University Club, presented Joyce and her court to students prior to Saturday's football game between Carolina and William and Mary.

Looking lovely in a red and black suit, Joyce accepted a silver loving cup for the fraternity and corsage of red roses from Sternberg with a gracious smile. Although she appeared very poised, Her Majesty admitted to a bit of nervousness.

"I scared me to death when someone asked me to pose for a picture," she said. Modestly denying any credit for her title, she confessed, "I'm just not used to being a celebrity."

However, receiving honors is nothing new for Joyce. While attending Peace Junior College, she was maid-of-honor in the May court, president of the Peace Student Christian Association, and one of the eight outstanding seniors.

A junior at Carolina, Joyce is a Delta, Delta Delta pledge. And just in case you're interested, boys, she lives in 217 Alderman!

Pharmacy School Will Hold Picnic

The Pharmacy School is getting together Thursday afternoon at a picnic for the freshmen. Faculty and guests of students are invited. The group will meet in front of the Pharmacy Building at 5 o'clock.

Sigma Chi's. Plot evolves after said turkey becomes listed as missing just before Sunday dinner of the Wake Forest weekend. This weekend turkey will be served with all the trimmings to the SAE's by the Sigma Chi's who don't go to Tennessee. Poetic justice?

Tar Heel Pinups

Editor Roy Parker has a new addition, but not to the DTH staff; she is Laura Deane Matheson, a St. Mary's Belle from Aoshkie, who is wearing an ATO sweetheart symbol.

Bob Wallace, Phi Kappa Sigma, recently pinned Eileen Heine of Baltimore, Md.

A couple who have been pinned since this summer are Charlie Bartlett, PiKA of Chapel Hill and Jean Schaefer of Asheboro.

Herman Moore, Sigma Chi, of

Charlotte was married on Sunday! Congratulations to Herman and his bride, Betty Craig, also of Charlotte.

Betty Summers of High Point is wearing the PiKA pin of Jim Neely, from High Point.

Two Theta Chi's have surrendered their pins. Neil Glenn of Burlington has given his to Virginia Jones of Mount Olive; and J. Ray Edmundson of Wilmington lost his to Doris Casey of Mount Olive.

Penegar Heads Kappa Sigma's

Richard Penegar is president of Kappa Sigma fraternity for this year.

Jimmie Hardison was chosen as vice-president, Oliver Smith, secretary; Walter Montgomery, treasurer; and George Freeman, house manager.

Other officers chosen are Bill Sanders, master of ceremonies and Interfraternity Council Representative; Tommy Hollisworth, pledge master; Dan Perry, German Club representative; and Charlie Trent, University Party delegate.

-Shaw-

"Shaw does not want doctors around," American born Lady Astor said. "There is nothing they can do for him now."

The famed Irish author suffered a relapse a few days ago, it was disclosed. Probyn said this morning that Shaw spent a "fair night" but his condition is much worse today.

Suddenly his temperature shot up and he was put to bed.

Shaw was his usual wisecracking self when he was taken to the hospital last month. He rebuked a nurse for "tumbling under the bedclothes" when she tried to take his pulse, and told his doctor that it would do the doctor's reputation "no good" if he were to recover. Shaw said a doctor's reputation rested on the number of famous men who died under his care.

-Sorority-

The Special Committee on Sorority Problems is composed of following members: Mrs. Harriet Herring, Mrs. Guy B. Johnson, Mrs. Robert Wettach, Mrs. Emory Denny, Jr., Mrs. Audrey Branch and Mrs. Gay Curie.
