

Future Carolina Opponents, Terps, Cavaliers, Devils, All Win

CHINA

The entry of Red troops from there is seen prolonging the war indefinitely. Read UP's page 4 story.

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER

Clearing and rather cold with frost tonight.

VOLUME LIX

Associated Press

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1950

United Press

NUMBER 39

Tar Heels Surrender To Volunteers, 16-0

Terps Subdue Stubborn GW With 23-7 Win

Soph Quarterback Leads Maryland To Rainy Victory

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 4 (AP)—Understudy Bob De Stefano stepped into Maryland's leading quarterback role today and threw two touchdown passes to lay the groundwork for a 23-7 triumph over stubborn George Washington.

The 19-year-old sophomore from Providence, R. I., got his first real chance under the handi-cup of a wet field and a fourth period downpour that soaked 18,272 fans in Byrd Stadium.

De Stefano, who had played only four minutes previously this season, was called on to handle Maryland's split-T after John Scarbath, another soph and regular quarterback, suffered a shoulder separation this week in practice.

A deluge of rain fell appropriately in the fourth quarter when nine Maryland points, put the damper on George Washington hopes of an upset. The Colonials had just missed a tying 14-14 touchdown on the Maryland three when the Terps bounced back for a touchdown and safety to pull safely away.

Up until then it was almost anyone's ball game, which was as sloppy as the weather with numerous fumbles on both sides.

De Stefano started Maryland on (See MARYLAND, page 3)

Army Cadets March Over Penn, 28-13

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4 (UP) Polished Army, held to a one point lead in the first half, rolled with crisp precision and artistry to three second-half touchdowns today to defeat Pennsylvania, 28-13, and run its unbeaten string to 26 games.

Lightning fast Gene Filipski, a lightly regarded sophomore from Sacramento, Calif., supplied the second half punch for the Cadets by skipping through Penn's big line for 29 and 73 yard touchdown sprints.

Filipski's 29-yard canter gave Army a two touchdown working margin over a Penn eleven staggering along because record-breaking Francis (Reds) Bagnell was far off his customary pace.

Starts Tomorrow

Preregistration for General College students begins tomorrow and will continue through Wednesday, Nov. 22.

All students who have not made appointments with their deans should see Mrs. Helen Turway in room 308 South Building. Appointment books were removed from the lobby last week.

The registration office in Archer House will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 12:45 p.m. and from 1:45 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. during this entire period. It will be necessary for all students registering for the winter quarter to turn in their "green forms" at Archer House.

Duke Fires Up In Second Half To Throttle Engineers, 30-21

By Bill Peacock
DURHAM, Nov. 4—The Duke Blue Devils, led by Billy Cox, a one-man offense, made up a 21 point first period deficit to top Georgia Tech, 30-21, before a homecoming crowd of 30,000 here today.

The terrific Duke defensive line, and the running and passing of the senior tailback from Mt. Airy carried the Blue Devils back after the Yellow Jackets scored three quick touchdowns in the first 10 minutes of play.

Georgia Tech's first touchdown came after a minute and a half of play. After a line crack, Bob McCoy sliced off left tackle from the Tech 42 to the Duke 2. Bobby North scored on a center buck. Jim Patton kicked the first of three extra points.

Three plays later the Jackets had another touchdown when Patton took a pitchout from Quarterback Darrell Crawford on the Duke 40 and tossed to End Pete Ferris, who made a jumping catch in the end zone for the score.

Reserve Tackle Marion Akins made Tech's last touchdown when he broke through the Duke line and took an attempted punt off the shoe of Cox and went 50 yards for the score.

But the Blue Devils wouldn't give up. With Cox running and passing they made 16 points in the second period. Their first touchdown drive began on their 43. But a penalty, after two running plays brought the ball back to the 39. Charlie Smith went over left guard to the Tech 20.

Then three turns at the right side of the Jacket line put Cox across. The last scoring punch came from seven yards out. Mike Souchak made the first of his four extra points.

Fullback Jack Mounie made the second Duke touchdown, one of his three for the day. He went over from one yard out at the end of a 31-yard drive that was composed of an eight yard run by Cox and by a seven yard carry by Mounie, and a 15 yard penalty against Georgia Tech.

End Blaine Earon blocked a punt by Bob Robertson which rolled out of the end zone to give Duke two points on an automatic safety.

Passes by Cox and Tom Powers, good for 49 yards, set up the (See THRILLER, page 4)

It's Miserable To Think About Trip Back Home

Only Bright Spot In Day's Activities Comes At Halftime

By Chuck Hauser
KNOXVILLE, Nov. 4—It was cold, and it was miserable, and it was depressing to think of that long trip home over the mountains at the end of today's football game.

The only bright spot in the day's activities, for the Tar Heels, was at halftime. But even the Carolina Band had to yield the limelight to the Tennessee musicians, who proved they had a right claim to their title, "Pride of the Southland."

The Vol ensemble played the "Star Spangled Banner" in their standard orange uniforms prior to the game, but pulled a quick switch on the 38,000 shivering fans at Shields-Watkins Field during the half by appearing in cowboy togs.

Their western routine brought applause from every corner of the stadium, overshadowing the smoothly executed formations of the Carolina marchers who preceded them on the field.

In at least one field of endeavor today, however, the Tennesseans fell flat on their faces. Their card stunts, to put it bluntly, weren't worth the cardboard used in them.

Faded cards, lack of precision, and sloppy direction pushed the stunts into the "should have stood in bed" category.

A Carolina pep rally at 11 o'clock this morning in front of the Andrew Johnson Hotel brought credit to the Tar Heel colors. Three blocks down the street at the Farragut Hotel, a Tennessee pep rally also scheduled for 11 o'clock failed to materialize, although placards announcing the event were spread throughout the campus and town.

The Blue and White ralliers made up for the lack of Vol cheering by marching down the main drag to the Farragut. Traffic was tied up for blocks.

After the game the Tar Heel fans who made the long trek across the mountains reflected the (See GLOOM, page 4)

Hard-Driving Ground Attack Overcomes Hapless Tar Heels

By Frank Allston, Jr.

SHIELDS-WATKINS FIELD, Knoxville, Nov. 4—Carolina's gridders received an almost flawless lesson in the finer points of football here this afternoon as the University of Tennessee meted out a 16-0 defeat to the Tar Heels while 38,000 Homecoming fans yelled for blood.

A mighty Tennessee running attack rang up two first half scores and added a final period safety for good measure while the Tar Heels were virtually unable to move the ball except at widely-spaced intervals. The bigger, harder charging Volunteers took command of the contest at the very outset and the deepest Carolina penetration of

Virginia Tops The Citadel Easily, 34-14

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 4 (AP)—Virginia's Cavaliers cut loose with a powerful running attack, sparked by Fullback John Papit, to defeat The Citadel, 34-14, this afternoon before an estimated 5,500 football fans.

Virginia scored twice in the second period, added two more touchdowns in the third and another in the final quarter. Papit scored two of the touchdowns and accounted for 157 yards of Virginia's rushing gain for an average of 5.09 yards.

The Citadel scored single touchdowns in the third and final periods with an all-sophomore backfield furnishing the impetus. Dan Davis converted from placement after both Bulldog touchdowns. Charlie Harding kicked four extra points for Virginia in five tries.

Virginia moved to the Citadel's five yard line in the opening period but the Bulldogs held and took over when Center Sam Rubin crashed through and took the ball away from Quarterback Rufus Barkley, of Charleston, on fourth down.

As the second period opened, Virginia's Harold Hoaks punted into on the Citadel's eight yard line. When Jack Chandler punted out, Cavalier Quarterback Jimmy Lesane took the ball on the Citadel 40, picked up blocking and went the distance. The next time (See VIRGINIA, page 4)

Extra Point For Columbia Nips Cornell

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 (AP)—Underdog Columbia upset Cornell's defending Ivy League champs today, 20-19, on a dramatic last period touchdown by Fullback Howie Hansen and Al Ward's conversion.

Supposed to lose by 14 points, Columbia came from behind to snatch this tingling rain-swept contest from Cornell's grasp with less than five minutes to go.

Trailing, 19-13, with time running out, Bob Ott squirmed atop Rogeo Calvo's fumble to give Columbia its big break, on the Cornell 36.

After a Mitch Price-Don McLean pass was good for a first down on the 18, Hansen took over. Hammering the line five times in six plays, the stocky line-buster smashed over from one foot out at 10:32.

Most of the 20,000 Baker Field customers went slightly off base as Ward trotted out to add the all-important winning point by placement.

U.S. Lost Battalions Saved By Marines

TOKYO, Sunday, Nov. 5 (UP)—U. S. Marines threw Chinese Communist troops back three and one-half miles yesterday and freed two Leatherneck "lost battalions" in a bold lunge through the northeastern mountains to within 16 miles of Korea's vital Chosin Reservoir power center.

In the west, a U. S. 24th Division Battalion which had been cut off by enemy gun fire, battered its way to safety near the Chongchon River after what a division spokesman described as "a hell of a fight."

A third Battalion of Marines still was isolated west of Wonsan on the east coast, south of the new Leatherneck offensive. Still another group of about 1,000 men of the U. S. 1st Cavalry Division, had been trapped in the Unsan sector, in central Korea, and about half the men were lost.

A spokesman for the 24th Division said five companies—three Infantry, one Weapons and one Headquarters—had been caught by murderous gunfire from Chinese and North Koreans south of Unsan.

Two Companies had not been fully accounted for by 10 o'clock last night in the 24th's first account (See KOREA, page 4)

Irish Torpedo Unlucky Navy

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4 (UP)—Out of the despair of one of their bleakest seasons, Notre Dame and glory became working partners again today at wind-swept municipal Stadium where the Fighting Irish rose in their best tradition and twice came from behind to sock down high-pitched but unlucky Navy, 19 to 10.

Beaten three times by Purdue, Indiana, and Michigan State, the Irish were not to be denied today as 71,074 rain drenched fans cheered them on.

It was All-America Quarterback Bob Williams, Notre Dame's "passing fancy," who came through with two touchdown passes with a wet ball on the rain soaked field to direct the forces to victory.

The battle was bitterly waged all the way as both teams fought to salvage something out of their poor seasons, and it erupted into poor seasons, and it erupted into a fist fight before the final gun.

With the score 10 to 7 against (See IRISH, page 4)

Durham-Hill Dual Highway Plans Are Set

Special to The Daily Tar Heel
DURHAM, Nov. 4—The long-awaited new four-lane highway between Durham and Chapel Hill, which would trim about four miles from the present route, was one step nearer actuality yesterday with the announcement that plans for the project have been completed.

Mélie T. Adkins, right-of-way engineer stationed here, disclosed that he expects to let the first contracts on Nov. 27. He said some additional right-of-way work must yet be done, but that he expects to have it completed the end of this month. If so, the State Highway Commission then would act on the bids at its December meeting.

According to Adkins, the new road is to be graded for a dual highway most of the route, and when completed, the distance from the Durham City limits to the Chapel Hill city limits will be only 8,347 miles. The road now in use about 12 miles.

The engineer would not predict how long it would be before the new highway will be completed (See HIGHWAY, page 4)

Texas Sidetracks Rote To Humble SMU, 23-20

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 4 (UP)—Texas stopped Kyle (Killer) Rote today and smashed down mighty Southern Methodist, rated college football's top team, in a 23 to 20 upset thriller in the best wild and woolly tradition of the Southwest Conference.

The game had everything it took to amaze and entertain 66,000 spectators cramed into Memorial Stadium on a golden Autumn day for a look at the only two teams unbeaten in conference play.

Texas came out of the bruising struggle an odds-on favorite to wind up in the Cotton Bowl as host team for the conference on New Year's day.

Byron Townsend, the terror in the Texas backfield, did for the triumphant Longhorns what SMU fans had expected Rote to do for their previously unbeaten team.

Townsend had one of the best days of his football career, scoring a touchdown in the first period from five yards out and running four yards for another in the second period.

Rote's effectiveness should not be minimized, for he scored two touchdowns, but "the Killer" was not the invincible back of other days, when he was good for an "automatic" four or five yards whenever the pressure was on at midfield.

When Texas solved Rote, SMU turned to an air attack with Fred (the Needle) Benner starring. Twice he pitched for touchdowns—24 yards to Ben White who lateraled to Rote at the four yard line in the second period, again in the fourth period 26 yards to White.

Rote got a touchdown from the one yard line in the third period and the score hovered at 21-20, with the game still in the balance. But Bill Sullivan kicked wide on the try for point, his first miss in 21 tries this season.

DICK BUNTING

Miss. State Sophs Crush Auburn, 27-0

STARKVILLE, Miss., Nov. 4 (UP)—Held scoreless for two periods, Mississippi State called on an all-sophomore cast today for a second half offensive that flattened Auburn 27 to 0 before 6,000 ice-cold fans.

The game was a roughshod one marred by penalties and the second period ejection of State tackle Pete Walker for slugging.

It was State's second Southeastern Conference victory in a comeback campaign and Auburn has yet to beat anybody. Sophomore Tom Rushing, from Cleveland, Miss., the halfback who scored the touchdown in State's upset of Tennessee early (See AUBURN, page 4)

Injuries

Special to The Daily Tar Heel
SHIELDS-WATKINS FIELD, Knoxville, Nov. 4—Defensive Left End Glen Nickerson, who injured his left knee in a pileup shortly before halftime today, "may not play next week," according to Tar Heel Trainer Fitz Lutz.

Captain Irvin "Huck" Holdash, who was pulled out of the game twice because of injuries, will almost certainly be ready for action against Maryland in Kenan Stadium next Saturday, a team doctor said.

Holdash stayed out of the game after hurting his left shoulder late in the second half. During the first half, he limped off the field with a bruised leg.

Last-Minute TD Gives 'Bama Win

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 4 (AP)—Risky but brilliant passing by Ed Salem with a wet ball, and an intercepted pass by lumbering Guard Jesse Richardson with a minute to go gave Alabama a 14-7 victory over unbeaten Georgia today.

Georgia, a three-time tied team, scored in the second quarter after recovering a fumble on the Alabama three. From the indecisive way the heavyweight teams had been playing, that touchdown looked good enough to win.

Rain misted in and turned into a drizzle during the first half.

	Term	UNC
First Downs	11	6
Rushing Yardage	225	29
Passing Yardage	20	13
Passes Attempted	5	4
Passes Completed	2	1
Passes Intercepted	0	10
Punts	6	40
Punting Average	32	40
Fumbles	5	6
Yards Penalized	27	45

Tennessee territory came in the final period when the Tar Heels drove to the 25.

Big Fullback Andy Kozar and Speedy Tailbacks Herby Payne, and Hank Lauricella paced the Vol attack which pounded out 225 yards on the ground to Carolina's 40.

Payne scored both of the Tennessee touchdowns while "Pug" Pearman threw Dick Wiess deep in the Carolina territory when he was attempting to get off a pass to provide the safety insurance.

Bunting was Carolina's big ground gainer for the day, picking up 20 yards in 11 cracks at the Vol line. The little Tar Heel tailback also turned in the longest Carolina run of the day, a 49-yard jaunt down the sidelines with a fumble which he plucked out of the air.

The Tar Heel passing game was also way off form as the Boys in Blue completed only four of 13 attempted aeriels for 36 yards.

The 192-lb. Kozar led both teams in the rushing department, picking up 138 yards in 16 tries for an average of better than 8.6 yards per carry.

The first half was all Tennessee. Although Carolina won the toss and decided to take advantage of the wind by defending the north goal, the Vols started off with a rush. The first drive carried to the Carolina 46. After Carolina had failed to move the ball, the Vols drove back to the Tar Heel 35.

There Carolina held, but after a first down, Wiess fumbled the ball on the Carolina 33 where the Vols took over. Seven plays later Tailback Herby Payne smashed over right tackle for the game's first score. Pat Shires kicked good to make it 7-0.

Carolina couldn't make another (See BUNTING'S, page 3)

Grid Scores

Maryland 23	George Washington 7
Duke 30	Georgia Tech 21
N.C. State 7	Richmond 9
Tennessee 16	North Carolina 0
Alabama 14	Georgia 7
Virginia 34	The Citadel 14
W.M.I. 46	Davidson 6
Miss. State 27	Auburn 0
Kentucky 40	Florida 5
Wash. & Lee 25	Virginia Tech 7
Ohio State 32	Northwestern 0
Illinois 7	Michigan 9
Michigan State 35	Indiana 11
Iowa 13	Minnesota 6
Wisconsin 33	Purdue 7
Cincinnati 7	Ohio 6
Texas 23	Southern Methodist 20
Baylor 29	Texas Christian 14
Tulsa 27	Oklahoma A & M 12
Rice 13	Texas Tech 7
Notre Dame 19	Navy 10
Princeton 45	Brown 7
Army 28	Penn 11
Columbia 20	Cornell 10
Holy Cross 26	Harvard 3
Dartmouth 7	Kent 7
Colgate 15	Brown 13
Penn State 20	Boston College 13
Clemson 55	Duquesne 20
Boston 16	William & Mary 14
Pittsburgh 21	West Virginia 7