Bowers States He'll Continue Past SP Work

Candidate Works For Rec Rooms, More Telephones

Henry Bowers, Student Party nominee for president of the student body, said yesterday he would work for more dormitory social rooms, telephones, and better recreational and study facilities.

"It is my object in seeking this office to continue the constructive work done by the past two Student Party administrations and to work for the improvement of facilities pertaining to social rooms, telephones, recreation and study. I believe that very definite steps may be made to improve conditions in such areas if the proper experience, thought, and interest is brought to bear on these problems," he said.

The Assistant Attorney General asserted, "The work that can be done by the president of the student body is not entirely in the realm of physical improvements, however, but in the realm of student attitude, interest, and spirit."

"The president must not only carry out the duties of his office efficiently but must stimulate the student body to take a greater interest in its University and its government."

Bowers is currently a member of the Student Legislature and has been a member of the Bipartisan Selection Board. He served as orientation counselor in the fall and has been campus chairman of the North Carolina Symphony Drive. He comes from Hendersonville.

Bipartisan Board Begins Interviews Tonight At 7 P.M.

Selection Unit To Pass On Candidates For Men's, Women's Honor Councils

The first Bipartisan Selection Board to pick candidates for both Men's and Women's Honor Councils will begin interviewing candidates for Council positions from 7 to 10 o'clock this evening in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial.

The group will hold interviews during the same hours on Thursday night, and will continue next Monday if necessary. Applicants must have passed 40 hours of work with an overall C average for the last three quarters.

Any student may run for an Honor Council position, but candidates who appear and are approved by the Bipartisan Board will have that approval indicated on the official ballot.

The Board is made up of representatives from the Men's and Women's Councils and members of both political parties.

Positions open on the Men's Council include seats for three seniors, one junior, one sophomore, and one graduate student and one pharmacy student.

Women's Council positions include spots for three seniors, one graduate and one member at large. Coeds running for senior seats should be juniors at the present time, and a candidate running for the graduate seat may be a senior now, as long as she intends to return for graduate work next year.

Any student who appears before the Board and is not approved may run as an independent. Likewise, students not appearing for interviews may run as independents.

The Board is an unofficial nominating body instituted by the two political parties to make a non-partisan selection of candidates for judicial posts.

Greek Week Reaches Third Day; Pledge Suppers Highlight Evening

The third day of Greek Week will get underway today when about 300 pledges will assist Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, in the cleaning up of Battle Park.

Hey-Diddle-Dum-Dey

Twin Bill Operas Here Are Sharp In Contrast

By Pat Morse

From the "Hey-diddle-dum-dey" of the square dance group to the delicate "balance," "piquet" and "advancement" of the ballet. From the jubilant cries of the caller to the light sensitive strains of the unmistakable Mozart.

This is the contrast between Kurt Weill's folk opera, "Down in the Valley," and the comic opera, "Bastien and Bastienne" by Mozart, which are sharing a twin bill in Hill Hall Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

The rehearsals of the two operas are well underway. In each the dance is used as a means of intensifying the mood and giving background to the story.

"Bastien and Bastienne" employs the free ballet which uses no classic positions or elaborate forms. Instead it is free-moving and progresses eventually into the moderne.

Weill's "Down in the Valley" uses the folk dance sequences interspersed with a series of flashbacks to tell its love story.

Levant takes time out to make a personal appearance tour to personally contact the public.

SP Chooses For Council, PB Positions

The Student Party nominated Walt Dear, Sue Lindsey, Edd Davis, and Ken Penegar for Publications Board seats at a special meeting last week.

The party also gave Student Council nominations to Bill Wolf, Julian Mason, and Wood Smethurst.

The vote in the race for the two senior seats on the Publications Board was Sue Lindsey 18, Edd Davis 17, and loser Clay Johnson 9.

Walt Dear, SP editorial candidate, was nominated by acclamation for the junior seat on the Publications Board. Ken Penegar defeated Clay Johnson by a vote of 14 to 11 for the large seat.

In the Student Council nominations, the vote was Bill Wolf 25, Julian Mason 23, Wood Smethurst 21, and Jack Hopkins 21. Hopkins was eliminated in a runoff.

Dear issued a statement of policy to the party:

"In running for both the editorship of The Daily Tar Heel and a seat on the Publications Board, I feel that I can work better toward these goals. I would like to see The Daily Tar Heel back on a daily basis. I think that this could be done by a cut in size or, by working through the Publications Board and instituting a series of positive measures for solving some of the paper's financial headaches.

If elected, I also should like to work in conjunction with other members of the board toward settling the important problems facing Carolina publications."

The SP met in Graham Memorial last night to continue nominations for spring elections.

GM Film Tickets Close Sale Today

Today is the last chance to buy membership in Film Presentation's spring series. Tickets are available in the Graham Memorial main office until show time tonight when the remainder, if any, will be sold at the door.

Tonight's showing, to begin at 8 o'clock in Gerrard Hall, is "Adventures of Chico," the sensitive probing of the loneliness of a Mexican boy who turns for playmates to the animals around him. Recommended for a special award by The New York Times, the picture took more than a year to film. Accompanying it is the Jean Cocteau short, "Rhythm of Africa," with a commentary by the poet, Langston Hughes.

"Ivan the Terrible," written and directed by Sergei Eisenstein, with an original score by Prokofiev, is another feature of the series. An epic film biography of Czar Ivan IV of Russia by one of the world's greatest directors, it is of particular note in its use of sets and lighting to produce the sense of horror, its use of sounds builds up an oppressive atmosphere.

Other films this quarter are "The Lower Depths," based on the Maxim Gorky play; the French classic, "Zero de Conduite," with the surrealist film, "Mother's Day," and a group of experimentals. All pictures are in English dialogue or with complete English sub-titling.

Membership in Film Presentations, an organization sponsored by Graham Memorial, is $1.50. The films will be shown in Gerrard Hall at 8 p.m. on various Tuesdays.
