

Netters Down Michigan State, 5-4; Alexander Shines

Tar Heels To Meet MS Again Today

Game Heath Alexander, handicapped by a painful knee injury and kept in the game at all times, it seemed, by nothing but a fighting heart, overcame an almost insurmountable lead to defeat his Michigan State opponent and pull the Tar Heel tennis team through to a 5-4 victory over the powerful Spartan netters yesterday on the varsity courts. Alexander lost his first set, 7-9, to hustling Ken Kimble, and was behind, 2-5, in the second set when he staged a devastating rally to cop the next five games, the set, and eventually the match. The Carolina captain won the third and deciding set, 6-4, after breaking a 4-4 tie. Several times during the crucial second set, Kimble had Alexander fighting for match point.

When Alexander chalked up his victory, Carolina was leading Michigan State, 4-2, but the locals desperately needed another point to cinch their third straight victory of the season.

The visitors, who meet the Tar Heels again this afternoon, won two singles and two doubles matches.

Thus, the Alexander-Kimble match was the key to victory for both teams, with the Tar Heels showing superior strength in singles competition and the Spartans holding an edge in the doubles matches.

Carolina took an early advantage in singles play. Tar Heel Buddy Agar swept to a straight set, 6-1, 6-4 decision over Michigan State's number one netter, Len Brose. Del Sylvia followed by beating Spartan Wally Kav, 6-3, 6-4, and Bob Luxenberg added Carolina's third point by winning 6-3, 8-6, in a hard-fought match with John Sarratian.

Michigan State took its first match when Dave Mills came from behind to defeat Bill Izlar, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Keith Kimble posted a 6-3, 2-6, 7-5 win over Tar Heel Charles Lambeth in a hotly contested battle, but Alexander's close victory over Ken Kimble gave Coach John Kenfield's netters a 4-2 edge in the singles division.

The Spartans proved superior in doubles competition, winning two of the three matches. Only the Agar-Sylvia combination was able to win for Carolina, with the two Tar Heel aces taking a 6-1, 6-2 victory against Brose and Sarratian of the Spartans.

Kav and Mills joined forces to beat Carolina netters Izlar and Luxenberg, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3; then, in the afternoon's finale Dick Reiger and Keith Kimble won by default after taking the first set, 6-2, from Paul Keenan and Buck Buchanan.

The Summary:
Singles—Agar (UNC) defeated Brose, 6-1, 6-1; Sylvia (UNC) defeated Kav, 6-3, 6-4; Luxenberg (UNC) defeated Sarratian, 6-3, 8-6; Mills (MS) defeated Izlar, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2; Alexander (UNC) defeated Ken Kimble, 7-9, 7-5, 6-4; Keith Kimble (MS) defeated Lambeth, 6-3, 2-6, 7-5.
Doubles—Agar-Sylvia (UNC)

Track Opens With Princeton Monday; Tar Heels Favored To Repeat '50 Win

Carolina's defending Southern Conference track champions will open the home season here Monday afternoon, entertaining the strong Princeton Tigers. The meet is scheduled for Fetzer Field and will start at 3 o'clock.

The meet will be the ninth in the series which started back in 1931 when Princeton won an 80½-45½ victory over the Tar Heels. The next meet was run in 1937 and again the Tigers won. In 1938 it was the same story. Carolina, however, won in 1939 and by 1941 the series had been evened at three wins each.

During the years 1942-1948 the meet was not held, but was resumed in 1949 when Carolina won a 79-52 decision, the greatest Tar Heel margin of victory in the series. Again last year the Tar Heels won, piling up 77½ points to 52½ for the visitors.

The Princeton team is scheduled to arrive here over the weekend and will spend all next week here. After the Carolina meet on Monday, the Tigers will engage the Duke tracksters at Durham on Wednesday and then wind up their stay with the Carolina Relays here a week from tomorrow.

The Tigers are known for their strength in the field and distance events. In Carlton Jacobs, the Nassau team has an outstanding pole vaulter and javelin thrower.

For the sprints Monday the Tar Heels will have Dave Willis, Frank Scott and Bill Crimmins. In the quarter-mile Gene Brigham, Jimmy Hamrick and Mack Ray will run for the Tar Heels and will be joined by Clarence McLain in the relay.

Jack Bennett, Bob Webb, Gordon Hamrick, Bob Byrd, Otis Honeycutt and Philip Burkhalter will run in the distance events.

Bob House, Bernie Harris and Bob Payner will throw the javelin; House and Sam Jordan will pole vault; Billy Joyner, Dick Peebles and Bill Cornell will high jump; Frank Scott will broad jump and George Verchick, Roscoe Hansen, Turk Ogden, Barry defeated Brose-Sarratian, 6-1, 6-2; Kav-Mills (MS) defeated Izlar-Luxenberg, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3; Reiger-Keith Kimble (MS) defeated Keenan-Buchanan, 6-2, default.

Michigan State And Yale Baseball Teams Play Carolina Here Today And Saturday

Michigan State and Yale, both on extended Southern tours, will take on Carolina's baseball team here today and tomorrow. The Spartans meet Carolina today at 4 p.m. and the Elis play the Tar Heels tomorrow in a game beginning at 3 p.m.

Carolina will play another game with Yale on Monday, beginning at 4 p.m.
The Spartans, who knocked Duke from the ranks of the undefeated, will come here looking for revenge for the two losses they sustained last year. Michigan State will bring a good hitting team led by Bob Ciolek, Dick Blanchard and Captain Vince Magi.

Rizzo, Tom Higgins and Tom McAllister will compete in the shot put and the discs.
Ace hurdler Garrett Fitzgibbons will not compete due to a pulled leg muscle and Jim Woolcott, Romas White and Bob Bell will run the highs while Scott, Cecil Pless and Merle Neracross will run the lows.

Tar Heels Get Scrimmage As Spring Drills Continue

Carolina's football team went through a two-hour scrimmage session yesterday afternoon for its first rough stuff of the Spring practice. The gridders concentrated largely on running plays from both the "T" and single wing formations, with emphasis on the single wing.

Yesterday was the fourth day of spring practice, but the earlier part of the week was spent drilling fundamentals and learning individual assignments.

Prominent in yesterday's scrimmage were veterans Bob "Go-Go" Gantt, Ernie Liberati, Frank Wissman, and Carmen Annillo. Gantt broke clear for a 36 yard scoring run on one occasion yesterday. In the last play of the evening Wissman got off a 60-yard jaunt behind good blocking. Annillo and Liberati also made some sizeable gains during the session.

Several members of last year's freshman team turned in outstanding performances in the scrimmage. Bob White saw a great deal of action at the full-back position and Joe O'Brien worked the wingback slot for a time. Both handled their positions capably.

In the line veterans Dalton Ruffin and Joe Dudeck were back in their old form, and frosh Ken Yarborough gave them able assistance. Ruffin and Yarborough plagued the offensive team by getting in on a large number of tackles while playing defense.

SPECIAL CLASSES

Special classes in golf and tennis are being organized this week. These classes are for students who are not registered in physical education. Students interested in participating in the classes should report to 311 Woollen this week.

Holy Cross Golf Team Meets UNC

Carolina's high-flying golfers will be seeking their fifth consecutive win of the young season when they tee-off against a potent Holy Cross outfit at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Finley Golf Course.

Thus far, the Tar Heels have hung up easy victories over Davidson, Eastern Carolina Teachers College, Ohio University, and Cornell. They have yet to lose a match.

Frank Brooks, Bill Williamson, and Lew Brown have led the Carolinians in their early victories with able assistance from Frank Eckert, Bob Black, and Rodney McKnight.

Looking at the aggregate scores, Carolina has rolled up a total of 94½ points to 22½ for the opponents. The highest number of points scored against the Tar Heels in a single match is seven rolled up by the strong Ohio team that was paced by Don Finsterwald, an alternate on the 1951 Walker Cup team.

Another New England team, Amherst College, will come here Monday afternoon to meet the Tar Heel outfit. Carolina does not move back into Southern Conference competition until April 24 when the Wolfpack of N. C. State comes here for a match.

Columnist Retracts 'Choo' Story

Walter Winchell, who said in his column recently that Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice was seen in New York nightly with a young lady who wasn't Mrs. Justice, today retracted his statement.

At the time Winchell made his statement Justice was on a 12-day speaking tour for the University Educational Foundation. He did not go out of the state in the course of his tour.

Justice has not been in New York since last football season when he was playing for the Washington Redskins in their game with the New York Giants.

Winchell's statement was obviously a case of mistaken identity, since Justice could not have possibly been in the area where he was reported seen.

COURT RESERVATIONS

Tennis court reservations may now be made daily in the Woollen Gym basket room from 9 o'clock until 6. The telephone number is 9426.

I picked up a Carolina student who has been here for 3 years and hasn't visited the Clothing Cupboard. He wanted a pair of light blue flannel slacks. He priced same at two downtown stores at $16.00 and $14.00. I have the same slacks for $12.00, but he was so irritated at the so-called high prices prevailing in Chapel Hill he purchased his pants in his home town.

Ranson Agrees That 'Music Hath Charms'; Uses Records To Boost Track Drills

By Bill Peacock

Coach Dale Ranson has a theory that if "music hath charms to soothe the savage beast" it ought to do wonders for his track team.

William Congreve advanced that theory back in 1697 and Coach Ranson is going to see if there's anything to it. Each afternoon he has soothing recorded music played over the enlarged public address system at Fetzer Field as the team practices.

"The idea is that the music takes their minds off the practice and makes them forget how tired they are," explains Ranson. "All the boys seem to like it, so we'll keep on giving them music."

There was some difficulty over selection of the music at first it seems. Sprinter Frank Scott was partial to "Snatch and Grab It," but Weightman Turk Ogden found that the lyrics interfered with his train of thought. The solution was found by making Coach Joe Hilton the chief engineer and selector, and now semi-classics and marches are the order of the day.

Anyway, track is becoming more popular everyday, particularly among the freshmen who can have music with their physical education. Yesterday it lured a whole bus-load of ninth grade girls who came to Chapel Hill with the intention of visiting Morehead Planetarium, but chose to attend a concert instead.

The whole thing started last Thursday when the old public address system from Kenan Stadium was installed at the track. The amplifier controls include an automatic record player which handles the music.

The new outfit is much larger than the old temporary system which used to be down there. This has six large speakers directly in front of the stands and another at the swimming pool end of the field. When the volume is turned on full blast, it can be heard all the way across Navy Field.
