

Philosophical Meeting Set For Saturday

The North Carolina Philosophical Society will hold a one-day session in the Morehead Building Saturday.

The morning session will get underway at 9:30 with three members analyzing the following philosophies of history: Communist, Prof. Carroll S. Feagins, Guilford College; Christian, Prof. C. Gregg Singer, Salem College, and Democratic, Prof. Martha M. Pingel, East Carolina College.

Prof. Warren Ashby of Woman's College will follow with a summary and comparison.

A business session is scheduled for 12 o'clock.

The afternoon program, beginning at 2 o'clock, will feature a discussion of the morning's panel to be led by Prof. Shelton Smith, Duke University; Prof. F. E. Reynolds, Elon College, and Prof. C. Cavarnos, UNC.

Dental Dames Choose Head

Mrs. Dwight Clark of Asheville was elected president of the Dental Dame Society as the club's Tuesday night meeting held in Graham Memorial.

Mrs. Clark succeeds Mrs. Henry Lineberger of Raleigh. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Glenn Gaither, Statesville, vice-president; Mrs. Ludwig Scott, Burlington, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. L. P. Mercer, Jr., Shelby, publicity chairman.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

THERE WILL BE an important meeting of the Carolina Press Club tonight at 7:30 in the Graff Room. It is hoped that the constitution will be ratified at this meeting and officers elected.

THE FIRST MEETING of the student advisors for next year will be held at Gerrard Hall May 7 at 7:30 P.M. Students are asked to bring pencil and paper. Attendance will be required.

THE DEADLINE FOR applications for the NSA Travel Tours this summer is May 15. Mail to Suite 424, 127 W. 143 St., New York, N. Y.

DELTA PHI ALPHA, honorary German language fraternity, will hold its election of officers and initiation at 7:30 tonight at its meeting in Roland Parker Lounge no. 1. A German Language play will also be presented.

THERE WILL BE a very important meeting of the WAA Council in the Woman's Gym this afternoon at 5. All members are urged to attend.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION of University Professors will meet in the Faculty Lounge of the Morehead Building on Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p.m. This is an important meeting at which there will be progress reports from the chairman of AAUP committees.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS Robert Perry Hyatt, left, senior in the Swain county high school, Bryson City, and E. Osborne Ayscue, now attending Phillips Academy at Andover, Mass., have just been awarded the Andrew Borshak and Herbert W. Jackson scholarships, respectively. Both rated scholastically at the top of their class. They will enter the University as freshmen next fall.

Management Institute To Meet Here In July

Announcement of a second session of the Management Institute for Young Businessmen to be held at the University July 23-27, was made recently by Edgar Snider of High Point, State Jaycee president.

The Institute will be directed by Dr. Earl P. Strong of the Business Management Service of the University of Illinois, who conducted the successful 1950 Institute.

Dr. Strong will be assisted by a daily panel of North Carolina business leaders who will advise those attending on their particular business problems.

The purpose of the Institute is to enable managers and owners of new and smaller business

NSA Region Confab Here

The National Students Association spring regional conference will be held here May 4-8. Annulzberger, chairman of the regional conference, said 997 schools have been invited, but it is indefinite as to the number that will attend.

Four workshops, NSA on College Campuses, Regional Publications, NSA and Displace Students, and NSA and Scholarship for Foreign Students, will be held in order to help strengthen the North Carolina-Virginia region.

Plans for the National Conference this summer will be discussed along with other problems facing campuses represented.

Customers' Corner

How accurate can you be? In some manufacturing businesses, for instance, they have to allow for a slight margin of error. But when it comes to weighing a customer's purchase or adding up her bill we aren't satisfied to be "almost accurate" at A&P. Our skilled clerks know that they must give you full weight, full measure and charge the correct price. That is why we can mark the price plainly on every item as well as on your cash register receipt. You will help the men and women of A&P maintain their well-earned reputation for accuracy by promptly reporting any time we might be in error. Please write:
