

Sixteen Students Face Charges In Local Court

By Bruce Melton

Turning in a false alarm "might be called a prank, but it is a serious violation of the law," said Judge William S. Stewart in his first session of Recorder's Court yesterday.

Claude A. Boulware, 224 A dorm, speeding 70 in 55 mile zone. Costs.

David K. Schermerhorn, 111 Cameron Ave., improper license plates. Costs.

"When firemen go out on a false alarm it leaves the station unoccupied and would cause a delay in answering a real fire call."

Judge Stewart was referring to the case of Arthur Frank Greenbaum, Baltimore, Md., who pleaded guilty to reporting a false alarm for Spencer Dormitory. Greenbaum was fined $25 and costs.

Carmen Annillo, Jr., 116 C dorm, riding horse on sidewalk. Costs.

James W. Bower, 305 Mangum, peeping secretly. Fined $25 and costs.

John Boon Park, 111 East Rosemary St., reckless driving. Nol pros.

John Boon Park, 111 East Rosemary St., illegal possession of tax paid whisky. Fined $10 and costs.

Guy Mitchell Spanger, Delta Sigma Pi house, speeding in Carrboro. Fined $20 and costs.

Earl Wingo Brokman, Jr., 227 A Jackson Circle, crossing red light. Costs.

William Van Reeves, 322 C dorm, speeding. Fined $25 and costs.

Joseph William Trollinger, no operators license. Fined $25 and costs.

James B. Raymer, 202 Whitehead, reckless driving, Nol pros.

Charles P. Robinson, speeding 65 miles per hour. Fined $5 and costs.

James R. Connelly, 401 A dorm, speeding 75 miles per hour. Continued until May 29.

Paul Franklin Thomas, Jr., speeding over 55 miles per hour. Failed to appear, bonds ordered for his appearance May 29.
