

Harriers Race Cats Away Today

(Special to the Daily Tar Heel)

DAVIDSON, Oct. 11—Ten Tar Heel distance men and Coach Dale Ranson arrived here tonight for a dual meet with the Wildcat harriers tomorrow at 4 p. m.

The Tar Heels will attempt to give Ranson his second victory of the current season. In their initial meet, Carolina defeated Richmond 19-39, but N. C. State proved too much for them Wednesday as the boys from West Raleigh trounced the Tar Heels, 18-42.

Those boys who will carry Tar Heel victory hopes are: Captain Gordon Hamrick, Bob Barden, Bob Byrd, Russ Glatz, Mike Healy, Tony Houghton, Morris Osborne, Jack Bennett, Ed Vogel, and Bob Webb. Barden, a freshman from Newark, N. J., finished third in the State meet, while Hamrick came in seventh. Bobby Byrd, who was ineligible for the first two meets, will rejoin the team and bolster their chances for a win.

Heath Whittle, Davidson mentor, has a pair of fine performers in Tom and Dick Stockton. Tom placed first in last year's Davidson-Carolina meet, which the Tar Heels won 24-34.

Hockey Club Starts Play

It won't be long before Kenan Stadium will have coeds playing on the field besides football players.

The Field Hockey Club starts practice Monday and will practice every Monday and Wednesday, Manager Margaret Wilson said yesterday.

All girls who are interested are invited to try out for the team. The team, directed by Miss Doris Hutchinson, won all of its three games last year, defeating Duke, Guilford, and Elon.

Numeral Winners

All freshman numeral winners from last spring quarter are asked to drop by Sarge Kellar's office in Woollen Gym and pick them up. This includes all men who won numerals for track, tennis, baseball, and golf.
