

Tar Heel Rally Beats Terps, 51-47

Fight Mars Tilt; Carolina Tops SC Race

By Ed Starnes

A sustained drive starting midway in the third period gave the Carolina basketball team a 51-47 win over a scrappy Maryland five last night, and put the Tar Heels in a tie with N. C. State for first place in the Southern Conference.

Maryland built up a 15-10 lead in the first quarter and lengthened it to a 29-21 bulge at the half. The seven point advantage remained until midway in the third quarter when Jippy Carter narrowed it to 30-36 with a foul shot. Two more foul shots and a jump shot put the Tar Heels two points behind.

Guard Vince Grimaldi broke through and stole a Maryland pass at midcourt, dribbled in and tied the game up, 36-all.

Tar Heels Lead, 41-40

Howard Deasy finally put the Tar Heels ahead to stay early in the final period with a lay up that gave Carolina a 41-40 lead.

The Tar Heels accuracy at the foul line was the difference in the two clubs. Outscored 40 to 32 from the floor, Carolina hit on 19 of 29 foul shots to 7 of 17 for the Terps.

The last six Tar Heel points came on foul shots that stretched out over the majority of the fast quarter.

Freshman Al Lifson was high man for the Carolina cagers with 14 points. Howard Deasy was second with 11.

Don Moran led the Terrepins with 10 points. Lee Brawley followed with 9.

Carolina played a different brand of basketball the last half, and its tremendous height advantage began to show in the late drive. Maryland put in two centers at the beginning of the final period in an attempt to get some rebounds. They forfeited the play of the fine forward, Lee Brawley, who had 3 personal fouls, in order to get two tall men in the game.

Coach Mullis Chased

The game almost got out of hand near the end when some hot tempers among the players, and the squaking of Maryland Coach Bud Millikan caused two technical fouls to be called against Millikan. Carolina assistant coach Pete Mullis was removed from the floor.

Grimaldi was pinned to the floor by Maryland center Manis. The refs broke it up, but on the jump ball Deasy and Ralph Greco, a reserve guard, got tangled up.

Deasy swung his arms to get free, and Greco started swinging fists.

The win gives the Tar Heels a 4-0 record inside the conference and a 7-4 season record.

Carolina	FG	FT	PF	TP
Wallace, f	1	3	2	5
Grimaldi, f	1	5	1	7
Lifson, f	6	2	1	14
Carter, c	2	4	0	8
Lidkins, c	0	0	0	0
Schwarz, c	0	0	2	0
Deasy, g	4	3	4	11
Phillips, g	2	2	2	6
Totals	16	19	12	51
Maryland	FG	FT	PF	TP
Brawley, f	4	1	5	9
Shue, f	3	2	5	8
Brooks, f	2	0	1	4
Moran, c	5	0	3	10
Levin, c	1	1	0	3
Manis, c	2	2	5	6
Johnson, g	2	1	2	7
Koffenberg, g	3	1	2	7
Greco, g	0	0	2	0
Totals	20	7	30	47

Free throws missed: Maryland—Brawley, Brooks, Shue, Moran (4), Levin, Johnson, Koffenberg. Carolina—Lifson (4), Grimaldi (3), Deasy (2), Phillips. Officials: Arnold Heft, Curly White.

CENTED HOWARD DEASY was one of the principals in the ruckus which nearly turned the Carolina-Maryland basketball game into a bedlam. Deasy and Terp guard Ralph Greco exchanged blows in mid-court after a jump ball. Deasy was second high in scoring for the Tar Heels with 11 points.

Plan To Divide Conference Proposed By Max Farrington

A plan to divide the Southern Conference into two divisions for the football season, such as the system now used by the baseball teams, might be discussed officially in the conference's spring meeting the conference president, Max Farrington, said at his home in Washington, D. C.

Farrington, Director of Men's Activities at George Washington University said the idea has been kicking around in the back of my mind for some time."

Under Farrington's proposed plan the Conference would be split into Northern and Southern divisions and close the regular season with a game between the champions of the respective divisions.

A Bona Fide Champion

"One of the most important features is that it would decide a bona fide champion," Farrington said. Under the present system two or more schools might have a claim on the title while one of them, weaker than the others, might have played more small conference schools and get the crown.

The split would put all schools in the Maryland, District of Columbia and Virginia areas into one group, while the teams from the two Carolinas would be in the other.

This plan visibly hurts a big time football power like Maryland, for to make the Terps play the small schools in its division would dim Maryland's chances of getting national recognition.

The Idea Is Sound

"The plan is probably full of bugs, but they could be ironed out," the popular GW administrator pointed out. "I think the idea is sound."

A move that would precede the passing of Farrington's plan would be the readmission of the University of Virginia into the Southern Conference. With Virginia in fold, the conference would have 18 members, nine in each division.

One of the major assets of the plan would be the financial end. Farrington would follow the Big Ten plan for distributing gate receipts, each school in the conference getting a share, while the two teams competing in the game would get two shares.

3rd ANNIVERSARY SALE

We Apologize For Being Unable To Render Our Usual Personalized Service

MILTON'S CLOTHING CUPBOARD

Sale to Continue Through Saturday, Jan. 12

Conference Standings

The top game in the Southern Conference this week is the Duke—State clash tomorrow night in Durham. This will be the most severe test of the season for the champion Wolfpack team against the Dick Groat-led Blue Devils who are especially tough on their own floor.

Another top game pits Carolina a dark-horse in the conference race, against Clemson. The game will be played here tomorrow night at 8.

Duke will take a record of only three wins and two losses in conference play into the Wolfpack game, but the consensus of opinion is that the Blue Devils, rated one of the South's best before the season, could knock off State.

Duke got off to a fine start, winning four games by good margins until Furman clipped it by one point.

Teams	W	L	Pct.	PF	OP
Carolina	0	4	1.000	300	229
N. C. State	4	0	1.000	314	220
South Carolina	1	0	1.000	76	56
West Virginia	5	1	.833	463	334
Maryland	4	2	.667	316	276
Furman	3	2	.600	330	330
Duke	3	2	.600	434	338
Wake Forest	1	1	.500	137	121
George Washington	1	1	.333	216	266
William and Mary	1	2	.333	199	194
Davidson	1	3	.250	232	308
Clemson	0	0	.000	00	00
Virginia Tech	0	1	.000	53	73
The Citadel	0	2	.000	125	163
U. of Richmond	0	2	.000	128	145
Wash. and Lee	0	4	.000	221	256
Virginia Military	0	4	.000	193	314

BEST WISHES

FOR THE COMING YEAR!

Visit The

TAR HEEL BARBERSHOP

Under Ledbetter - Pickard

LAST TIMES TODAY

"THE STRANGE DOOR"

with

Charles Laughton - Boris Karloff

Varsity

LATE SHOW TONIGHT 11:15

NEW YORK FILM CRITICS say "Arthur Kennedy best actor of the year."

SHOCKING ADULT DRAMA

Bright Victory

Starring Arthur KENNEDY Peggy DOW

with James EDWARDS • WIL GEER

John HUDSON and Julia ADAMS

Plus

"FOOTBALL HEADLINERS OF 1951" The six top-ranking football teams of the nation as selected by United Press in action

REPLICRATS MAKE STRANGE CHOICE!!

OBSCURE PURPLE-LIPPED BUM NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT.

DEMNICANS PICK A. BUMM AS CANDIDATE

ACTUAL PHOTO OF ANNOUNCEMENT.

Candidate says "Thanks."

THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE ANNOUNCING ITS UNANIMOUS CHOICE.

SOUNDS LIKE RUSSIA... THE PUBLIC MUST VOTE FOR A BUM IF IT VOTES AT ALL!!

I'LL SOLVE ME COUNTRY IN DE OLD-FASHIONED WAY. I'LL PUT ALL ME PALS IN OFFICE — AFTER I SPRINGS 'EM FROM THEIR RESPECTIVE CLINKS, O' COURSE!!

IF I GIT INAUGURATED BEFORE "SLIMMY SAM" GOES T'DE CHAIR, I'LL MAKE HIM A JUDGE, ON ACCOUNT O' HIS WIDE EXPERIENCE IN DE COURTS!!

OH, MY COUNTRY—WHAT HAVE I DONE TO THEE?