

Tar Heels Meet Wake Forest Tomorrow In Loop Contest

By Ed Starnes

The Carolina - Wake Forest basketball game Thursday night will pit a quartet of talented Tar Heel performers against a one man Demon Deacon team.

Wake Forest's Dickie Henrick is one of the most efficient freshman to enter the Southern Conference in the past few years.

A 6 foot, 6 inch 210 pound center from Jonesville, N. C., Henrick tops the conference in two departments and is a close second in still another.

He is second in individual scoring, behind Duke's Dick Groat, with 272 points in 14 games for a 19.4 average. Henrick tops the conference statistics in the percentage from the floor with a phenomenal 48.0 percentage, hitting 85 out of 177 shots.

The big freshman also leads in another valuable department, rebounds. He has gathered in 204 in 12 games for an average of 17 per game.

The nearest Tar Heel to a number one position in a statistical department is Al Lifson who is second in the conference in free throw percentage. Also a freshman, Lifson has hit on 39 of 52 shots from the free throw line for a .750 average. Lee Terril of State leads in that department with a .776 average.

Carolina has three men in the top ten in individual scoring. Vince Grimaldi is fourth, Lifson ninth, and Jack Wallace tenth. Grimaldi with a 14.7 average is only .4 of a point per game behind number three men, Bernie Janicki of Duke who has a 15.1 average.

Lifson is fifth in field goal percentage with a .367 percentage. Howard Deasy tops the Tar Heels in that department with a .388 and third place in the conference.

Deasy is fifth in the conference in rebounds with 11.2 per game. Jack Wallace is fourth in the assist department with 39 in 12 games for an average of 3.2. Groat leads that department with 116 assists in 14 games for an average of 8.3 per contest, twice as many as his nearest competitor.

Gym Team Meets FSU Tomorrow

The Carolina gymnastics team, which opens a very difficult season here tomorrow against Florida State University, finds itself in the position of having an improved team, but one that may save a losing season.

The FSU team is the best in the country having won the National Collegiate and the National AAU meets. Others are with Penn State, alma mater of Carolina Coach Bill Meade and always one of the best in the nation, and Army and Navy, famous for their powerful gym teams.

Florida State will be led by Joe and Carmen Regna, who starred here last year in the Southern championships.

The Tar Heels have several top flight men back from last year's team which won one and lost five. Check Goodin, Andy Bell, Gerald Dorn, and R. S. White will carry the load for Carolina. Goodin is an all-round man, Dorn handles the rope climb and high bar, and White is a trampoline expert.
