

Tar Heels Edge Davidson 78-77

Wrestlers, JV Cagers Lose

The Carolina wrestling team was defeated by VPI, 22-6, and the Jayvee basketball team was beaten, 68-56, by the Duke Jayvees in Saturday night athletic events.

The only individual wrestling wins for Carolina were turned in by Tommy Stokes, who decisioned Leach in a 157-pound contest and Tommy Coxe, who decisioned Matthews in a 167-pound match.

Lifson Is Leading Scorer With Total Of 21 Points

By Ed Starnes

A rally in the last three minutes, topped off by Paul Likins layup shot with 1:30 left in the game, gave Carolina a hard earned 78-77 victory over a fighting Davidson team last night.

A crowd of near 4,000 jammed Woollen Gym and roared through the entire last half as the Davidson five came back from a 46-40 halftime deficit to give the Tar Heels more battle than they could handle until the last three minutes.

Then, with Carolina behind 72-68, Al Lifson scored five straight points to bring the Tar Heels to 75-73. Malcom McLean pushed in a onehander from the side to give the Wildcats a 77-73 edge. Wallace sank a foul shot, and Lifson pushed in a basket from the foul line to put Carolina one point behind, 76-77.

Likins then took a pass from teammate Howard Deasey, turned to his right and laid the ball in the basket for the winning point.

Davidson finally caught up with Carolina with about two minutes left in the third period when McLean scored on a set shot to put the Wildcats ahead 61-60.

The lead changed hands three times and was tied five times in the furious fourth period.

Carolina's margin of victory came at the foul line where it made good on 22 of 28 free throws.

Lifson was high man for the Tar Heels with 21 points. He was followed by Likins who scored 16, and Wallace with 15.

High man for the game was Davidson's Joe Dudley, 6 foot 4 inch center from Winston-Salem, with 25 points.

The lanky Likins turned in his best game of the season. He took in 21 rebounds for Carolina, 14 of them in the first half.

Score at half: 46-40, Carolina. Referees: Bello and Williams
