Tankmen Meet Davidson Here Today

UNC May Go For Two SC Records

The Carolina swimming team, which has two easy dual meet victories to its credit this year, takes on Davidson here this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. and Coach Dick Jamerson may send his Tar Reels after conference records in the 300-yard medley relay and the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Buddy Baarcke, Barry Wall, and Buddy Heins may be used in the medley relay and if they are, they will be shooting at the record of 2:57.2. Bobby Linker, Wall and Jack Edwards swam the event in 3:03.1 to win easily in the Duke meet this year.

The 400-yard relay team that might go for the record of 3:35.8 would be composed of Stan Tinkham, Jack Edwards, Buddy Heins, and Donnie Evans. This combination of swimmers has not swum in competition this year, with Coach Jamerson preferring to give his less experienced men a chance.

The Tar Heels have meets with Georgia Tech and Emory Friday and Saturday in Atlanta, so Jamerson may decide to hold his top men out of the relay events and save them for this weekend. Most of the Carolina entries in the meet will be Jayvees, with the top 14 varsity men going South tomorrow.

Jamerson is well satisfied with the progress of the team. "The whole gang is doing well. We'll have to be a lot sharper to beat which fought back to win with only seconds remaining in the game. "It was a great victory for the boys," he said.

Tar Heels Beat Davidson On Accuracy At Foul Line

The popular coach offered words of praise for his team the conference tournament.

"Likins looked good. He is improving right along. He had tough luck or he would have scored more points, but he is hustling well," he added about the 6 foot 9 inch freshman center that has done so well in the past two games.

"Vince Grimaldi is playing hard and gives us a good floor game. He's on a cold streak right Carolina's 78-77 victory over now and missing. That hurts us" we expected him to score more."
