

San Carlos Professor Starts U.S. Tour With Visit Here

Jose Rolz-Bennett, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities of San Carlos University in Guatemala City, Guatemala, arrived here Sunday, beginning his six-week tour of universities throughout the United States.

In an interview yesterday, Dr. Rolz-Bennett stressed his plans for faculty-exchange between Latin America and the United States, and expressed his desire University begin such a program. "This is a two-way street," said Dr. Rolz-Bennett. "An exchange of professors will be a real accomplishment towards mutual better understanding of the internal problems of each country," he continued.

During the next six weeks the Guatemalan dean will visit New York City, New Haven and Middletown, Conn.; Boston, Mass.; Ann Arbor, Mich.; Chicago, Ill.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Topeka, Kan.; San Francisco and Los Angeles, Calif. His tour is being made under the Department of State's program for the exchange of persons.

Dr. Rolz-Bennett is director of the Guatemalan National Committee for Cooperation with UNESCO and representative for the International Labor Organization in Guatemala. In 1944 and 1945 he was a member of a commission sponsored by the Guatemalan Lawyers' Association, which formulated the draft of the Constitution of the Republic. He was elected to the Constitutional Assembly which enacted the new constitution, serving as Secretary of the Assembly and as a member of the drafting committee.

During his stay here Dr. Rolz-Bennett has been observing and discussing with faculty members. He is particularly interested in the balance between the humanities and scientific and technical studies in the university program.

LET'S TALK ABOUT USED BOOKS

Next time you stop in the Intimate Bookshop, take a look at the old book corner, back by the text department.

You'll find the darrest hodgepodge of odd books you ever set eyes on. Prices range from a rare North Carolina history at $45.00 down to a big section of old stuff at 48c. In the latter group, by the way, several customers have assured us that they have nicked off rare treasures. Maybe, so. If they did, it was in spite of our efforts, and you may do the same.

While we are particularly proud of our North Carolina books, there are quite a few nice items outside of that field, priced reasonably considering that they are titles that only show up in a shop every two or three years. We'll leave you to find them for yourselves, because half the fun of old books—buying or selling—is the quality of treasure-hunting.
