

Deac Cagers Beat Carolina, 55-46

Cagers Drop Fourth Loop Tilt In Row

by Ed Starnes

Wake Forest's basketball team scored early and often last night to take its second win of the season over Carolina by a 55-46 score and hand the Tar Heels its fourth straight conference loss before a packed house in Woollen Gym.

Moving to a 35-22 halftime lead, the Deac cagers coasted home, and were never pressed but for a few anxious moments in the final period. Then with the score 49-45, and the Tar Heels on a scoring rampage, the Deacon five flipped in 6 straight foul shots to move out of Carolina's reach.

The Tar Heels failed to score until five minutes had elapsed in the first period, and by that time Wake Forest had a 6-0 lead. The Deacs built that margin to 17-10 at the quarter, and with Dickie Hemric, freshman center, and Ray Lipstas scoring 12 points between them, built up the half-time edge.

Vince Grimaldi and Al Lifson were the only Carolina players to score in the second period, Grimaldi hitting for 9, and Lifson for 3.

Hemrick shoved in 5 points in the third period to keep his team out in front, 48-36. But the Tar Heels finally found a scoring combination in the final quarter, and held the Deacs scoreless until halfway in that period when Brooks dropped in a foul shot.

Grimaldi started the final period with a foul shot, and Lif-

Jayvees Beat Deacs, 72-48 In High-Scoring Third Period

The University of North Carolina Junior Varsity jumped to a quick five point lead and never let up last night as they crushed Wake Forest, 72-48, on the Carolina floor.

Four Tar Heels scored in the two figure column during the evening, and forward Floyd Propts shared high man honors with Porter of Wake Forest, scoring fifteen.

Carolina led by 13 points at halftime, but Propts and Chuck Ellenwood went on a scoring spree along with Paul Brantly and Buell Moser early in the third quarter to give the Tar Heels a 56-22 lead. The quartet accounted for seven straight from the floor, and Moser and Brantly (See JAYCEES, page 4)
