

State's Only Woman Judge, UNC Grad Featured In Mag

Judge Susie Sharpe of Reidsville, first and only woman Superior Court judge in North Carolina and a University Law School graduate of '29, is one of 13 outstanding women in public office throughout the country who are the subjects of an article, "Women Like You and Me in Politics," featured in the February issue of the Ladies Home Journal.

One of a series of articles the Journal is running on women in public life, the author of "Women Like You and Me in Politics" points out that "scores of successful women in public office throughout the country were asked why they entered politics what they've accomplished, how they did it.

"We've chosen 13 who represent all the things women do in government," the article says. "Of the 13 women, six are Democrats, six are Republicans, one nonpartisan; they come from 12 different states; they are in city, county, state, national jobs; 10 are married; one is widowed; 10 are mothers; they have a total of 16 children; two are grandmothers. Besides—we think they are all very like you."

Writing of Judge Sharpe, it says: "Young, pretty Miss Sharpe is North Carolina's first woman superior court judge and she doesn't mind saying she's 'overwhelmed with the sense of my responsibility to the sex and haunted by the fear that I might let women down.' She's also not

Don '52 Tag Today, If Not—Don't Drive

Raleigh—The N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles today warned motorists who have not purchased 1952 license plates to do so at once. If 1952 license plates have not been purchased by the close of business today do not drive, as all drivers who have not obtained their new plates will be subject to prosecution. Special instructions have gone out to the Highway Patrol to begin strict enforcement after mid-night to-night.

Motorists have been unusually slow this year throughout the state in purchasing their plates, the Department pointed out, adding that long lines at the main office in Raleigh and the 71 branch offices can be expected on the last day of sale.

More than 1,226,000 motor vehicles were registered in the State in 1951. Approximately 665,200 plates have been issued to date.

a little surprised that people expect a woman judge to be 'fashion plate, legal encyclopedia and after dinner speaker' all in one . . .

"The public is more interested in what I look like than in what I know; the lawyers are mightily interested in both. I have done my best to present to the public and the bar a normal woman and to dress as any conservative businesswoman might," says the lawyer turned judge, who often wishes that North Carolina's judges wore robes."

Two Dental Profs Leave For Meetings

Dean John C. Brauer of the University School of Dentistry and Dr. William W. Demeritt, professor and head of the Department of Pedodontics, will speak at sessions in Cleveland and Chicago next week.

Dean Brauer will be guest speaker before the Cleveland Dental Society in Cleveland, Ohio, Monday. The Society there is celebrating "National Children's Health Day." Dean Brauer's subjects will be "Recent Advances in Research in Dentistry" and "The Child in Your Practice."

Dr. Demeritt will present a series of four lectures on prothetic dentistry for children before members and visiting dentists at the Chicago Dental Society's mid-winter meeting next week.

Dr. Demeritt, a nationally known authority on dentistry for children, addressed the Guilford County Dental Society in Greensboro Tuesday night.

Students Serve As Teachers In State

Fifty-three students in the University School of Education have entered "teaching internships" in 23 schools in the state, W. M. Jenkins, supervisor of student teaching here, said yesterday.

Dean Kemble Returns From National Site

Dean Elizabeth L. Kemble of the University School of Nursing has returned from New York where she participated in joint sessions of all national nursing organizations in preparation for the reorganization and merging of a number of groups.

Dean Kemble is a member of the board of directors of the National League of Nursing Education, one of the organizations which is to be combined with several other associations into the Nursing League of America. The other organizations are the Association of Collegiate Schools of Nursing, the American Association of Industrial Nurses, and the National Organization for Public Health Nursing.

All these groups, plus the American Nurses Association, held joint sessions in New York. The merging of the groups is expected to take place at the bi-annual convention in Atlantic City in June. The plan is to narrow the field of organizations down to two large groups, the American Nurses Association and the Nursing League of America.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR PAUL was having a fowl time. Even his best gal didn't give a hoot for him. "Wise she hate me so?" he asked his roommate. "Simple, you stuffy old bird—because your hair's always ruffled up! Better try Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. It's non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. And does tree things: Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Grooms hair neatly and naturally all day long. (Even limbers up your scalp. And helps you pass the Finger-Nail Nest-er, Test!) Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's a 'owling success. So why don't you take a taxi-dermist to any drug or toilet goods counter to get a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. It's your hair's best friend! And ask for it at your barber shop. Then there's no talon how the chicks'll go for you.
