Tom Scott Writes On Crowd Behavior

Carolina basketball coach Tom Scott has an article in the current issue of The Bulletin of the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

The Scott article concerns team and crowd behavior in basketball.

The Tar Heel mentor serves on the Rules and Editorial committees of the national group.

Scott came here in 1946 following a stint in the Navy.

UNC Cagers Play Groat & Co. Here Tonight

DUKE FORWARD BERNIE JANICKI is one of the big new stars of the conference, averaging better than 15 points per game. The sophomore from Ambridge, Pa., is also one of the best rebounders in the area, averaging more than 15 per game.

Both Teams Seek Berth In Tourney

By Ed Starnes

Carolina's basketball team will face its third Big Four team in a row tonight when it plays host to Duke's powerful Blue Devils at 8 o'clock in Woolen Gym.

Sparked by All-American guard Dick Groat, the Blue Devils provide a big hurdle for the Tar Heels who are striving for a position in the Conference tournament.

Duke has a high scoring team which is capable of playing extremely good games. The Blue

Devils are averaging 79.4 points a game, which places them third in the nation offensively. Groat is sixth in the nation in scoring with 413 points.

Groat, averaging 24.3 points per game this season, had a major hand in both of Duke's wins over Carolina last year, and scored 16 points in the Gerry Gerrard Memorial game this season which Duke won, 77-59.

There is no rest for the weary, and the Tar Heels, losers of their last three conference tilts, will run into Groat plus several other fine players.

Bernie Janicki, a sophomore forward from Ambridge, Pa., has teamed up with Groat to give the Dukes a double scoring punch. Janicki is third in the Big Five scoring race with a 15.7 average. Rudy D'Emilio, another sophomore from Philadelphia, Pa., is 13 with a 10 per game average.

Vince Grimaldi will probably draw the nod to guard the Duke ace. The Tar Heel's 6-foot guard did a good job in the Gerrard Memorial game against Groat. The 16 points that the All-American scored were the second lowest in his college career.

Al Lifson is Carolina's top scorer with 252 points in 18 games for a 14.0 average. Grimaldi is second with 244 points for a 13.5 average, and Wallace third with an 11.9 average.

Duke has been the biggest disappointment in the conference

Undefeated 1924 UNC Team Here For Reunion Tonight

By Jake Wade

The only Carolina basketball team to go through a season undefeated will be one of the four teams at the "Old Champs" reunion here tonight when the Tar Heels meet Duke in Woolen Gymnasium.

This was the 1924 quint, captained by Winton Green. Other lettermen that year were Cart Carmichael, Jack Cobb, Bill Devin, Bill Dodderer, Troy Johnston, Henry Lineberger, "Monk" McDonald, and Jim Poole. Norman Shepard was coach and Bretney Smith manager.

This talented team won 19 consecutive games during the regular season without a setback. Then it defeated Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Mississippi A. and M. and Alabama in the Southern tournament at Alabama to take the Dixie title.

The famous Helms Foundation later proclaimed Carolina's 1924 team national champions and Jack (Spratt) Cobb "Player of the Year." Both Cobb and Cart Carmichael were named on the Helms All-America team.

Other teams in the reunion are the Southern champions of 1922
