Other teams in the reunion are the Southern champions of 1922, 1925, and 1926. Several of the 1924 players were also members of those other title winning teams. In the Atlanta tournament, the Duke has been the biggest disappointment in the conference this year. Figured as the team to give State a battle for the championship, the Blue Devils have a 4-3 SC mark, and a 12-5 overall record. Carolina has a 6-4 conference record and a 10-8 overall record.

A victory for either team tonight would greatly enhance its possibility for tourney berth. A few weeks ago Carolina was considered one of the two teams in the conference sure of a place in the annual playoffs, but now the local five will have to improve to get in the tournament.

1924 Tar Heels won their finals game from Alabama by 26-18. Cobb was high scorer with 15 points. Cobb also was high scorer for the tournament with 59 points, with Carmichael second with 43.

The late O. B. Keeler wrote in his Atlanta Journal column that coolness was mainly responsible for the Tar Heels' win. "Not discounting the least bit in the world the superb mechanical ability of the Tar Heels, you understand, but in the final analysis it was coolness under fire that won the 1924 championship," Keeler wrote.

The Tar Heels of that era were among the pioneers of the man-to-man defense. Keeler was impressed with that, too. "Running in couples," he wrote, "stepping (See OLD CHAMPS, Page 6)

Be Happy—
GO LUCKY!

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

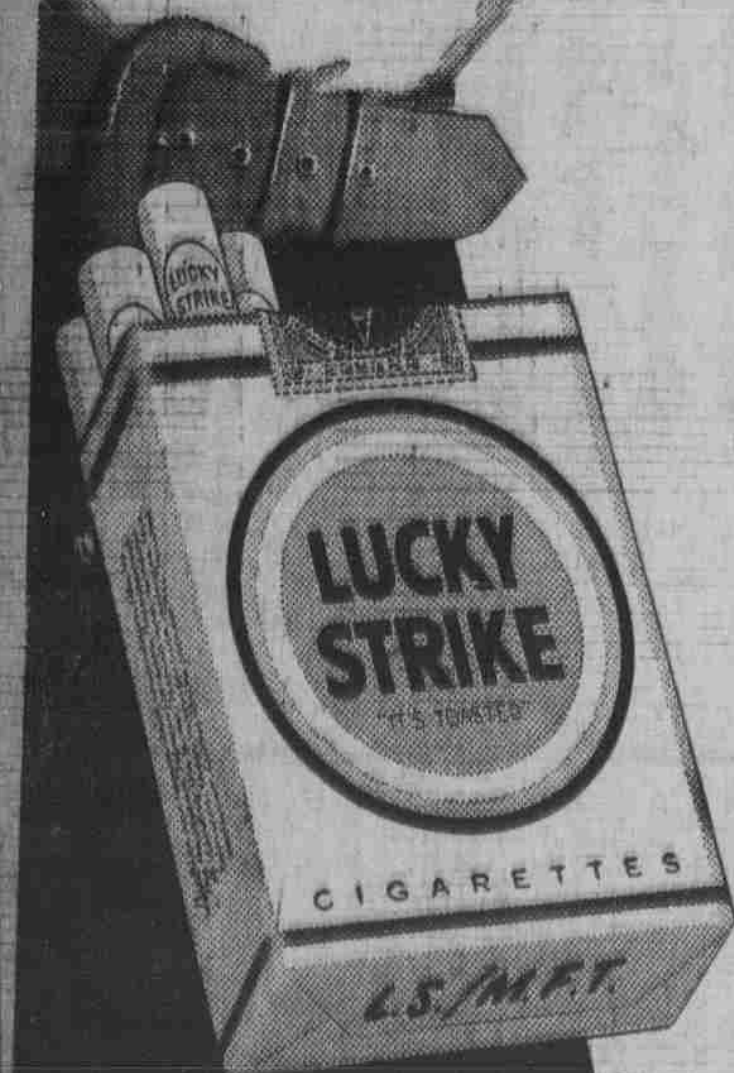

It takes fine tobacco to give you a better-tasting cigarette. And Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. But it takes something else, too—superior workmanship. You get fine, light, mild, good-tasting tobacco in the better-made cigarette. That's why Luckies taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky! Get a carton today!
