CAMPUS COLLECTIONS

By Mary Nell Boddie

According to the calendar it's February 2, and on campus comes the old, familiar cry "Operation Beach."

Leading the procession are the Dekes and Chi Phi's, who are welcome to the title of being "fustest with the mostest," Burr . . . Chi Phi's and dates will invade Myrtle Beach, while the Dekes have chosen Wrightsville as headquarters.

Beach, while the Dekes have

We'll give the Sigma Chi's credit for wanting to be first, anyhoo. Last Saturday the halls of Alpha Tau resounded with the 'beach' yell, but for numerous reasons the troops just couldn't make it. Instead they brought the beach to the Sigma Chi bar, and the remains of said sandpiles are still being tracked through the house.

New Sigma Chi pin-up is Bonnie Bondurant, Tri-Delt from Winston-Salem, who wears the white cross of brother Bob Ellington of Burlington.

Serenading of the week was done by the ATO's who traveled to Raleigh Tuesday night in honor of Laura Deane Matheson of Ahoskie. Laura is the pin-up of brother Roy Parker, former Editor of The Daily Tar Heel. Laura is a student at St. Mary's.

New initiates of ATO are Luke Stephens of Orrum and Harold Butts of Daytona Beach, Fla. Tom Stevens of Smithfield was installed as chaplain of ATO last Wednesday.

Chi Omega Aurelia Fulton of Walnut Cove is pinned to PiKA Freddie Stafford of Greensboro and State. The Chi O's entertained the campus fraternities with a "study-break — coffee hour" last Wednesday night.

The Chi Psi's were hosts to the Alpha Gam's for dinner and a party at the chapter house on Tuesday night. Tomorrow afternoon from 4:30 until 6 the Alpha Gam's will hold coffee hour.

Scheduled visitor of the weekend at the Alpha Gam house is Ann Birmingham, '51 grad and last year's chapter president.

New SAE pledge is Jeddings Crawford of Columbia, S. C., transfer from the Citadel. Following the pledging, the chapter gave a beer party in his honor.

The Pi Kappa Phi's were hosts to Tau chapter from State following the Carolina-State game last Saturday. New Pi Kap pin-up is Joyce Holms of Durham, who wears the pin of Jerry Womack of Spencer. Joyce is a nurse the Cerebral Palsy Hospital in Durham.

Actives of Pi Lam entertained their pledges last Saturday with a stag beer party at the chapter house.

Now wearing the SPE heart of Myron Banks of Raleigh is Nancy Hobbs of Rocky Mt. Nancy is an ADPi and junior at Dook's College.

Linn Garibaldi, president of Alpha Sigma of Chi Psi's alumni association, was guest of honor when the chapter held its annual pledge banquet Thursday. Preceding the dinner, cocktail hour was observed.

Chi Phi Buck Buchanan of Sylvia is pinned to Barbara Cox of Asheboro, junior coed.

Brothers of PiKA are having to split forces this afternoon in order to attend two weddings. Guy Rawls of Raleigh past president and fall quarter grad, and Mary Sutton, fall quarter grad, will be married this afternoon in Wilmington. Another PiKA fall quarter grad, Bill Craft and Joanne Brantly will be married in Greensboro this afternoon.

New pledges of PiKA are Terry Daughtry of Key West, Fla. and Chris Brunning of Greensboro.

Pledges of Lambda Chi will be initiated into membership in ceremonies at the chapter house tonight. Following initiation the new initiates will be entertained

Pledges of Lambda Chi will be initiated into membership in ceremonies at the chapter house tonight. Following initiations the new initiates will be entertained by the old actives at the chapter house.

Phi Kap pin-up of brother Guy Paul Dixon of Morehead City is Betsy Wade of Dook's Nursing School.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Kappa Sig Herb Spaugh and Barbara McAllister of Charlotte. Barbara was a student at Queen's College and is a member of ADPi.

The ADPi's will hold coffee hour for the medical and dental schools on Wednesday night following chapter meeting.

The PiKA's were hosts to the Kappa Delta's for a party on Tuesday night at the Carolina Club.

A special delegation from the PiKA house traveled to Nashville Tenn. this weedend. Why? To attend the Grand Olde Opry, no less.

St. Valentine's Day Theme Used For Alpha Tau Omega Formal

Cupid reigned supreme last night when Alpha Delta chapter of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity held its annual pledge dance at the Carolina Inn.

Two giant red hearts, wreathed with white-sprayed pine boughs and centered with the Greek-letters of the fraternity, were used at either end of the ballroom. Twenty miniature hearts bearing the names of the pledges were displayed around the walls. Completing the St. Valentine's theme were red and white streamers used on the chandeliers and bandstand.

Music for the formal dance, which was held from 9 until 12 o'clock, was furnished by Frank Settlemyer and his orchestra.

Invited guests for the evening included campus housemothers, and alumni of the fraternity. The fraternity was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Nell Justice, housemother.

White gardenia corsages tied with red and silver ribbon and miniature fraternity paddles were presented to the dates of the pledges.

Following the dance, actives, pledges and dates returned to the chapter house for a midnight breakfast. Pledge Weekend festivities will be resumed this evening with a banquet at the chapter house, and a party at Smith's Lake.
