Milton's 2nd Win Clinches UNC Victory

by Jid Thompson

Cecil Milton, Carolina co-captain, came through with his second win of the night to clinch a spine-tingling swimming meet for his undefeated Tar Heel team and hand the highly-touted Princeton Tigers their first loss of the season with a 43 1/2-40 1/2 score before a capacity crowd in the Bowman-Gray pool last night.

With teammate Donnie Evans out because of illness, Milton took command of the distance events and also the scoring honors, with ten points. In the next-to-last event clincher Milton churned through the 440-yard freestyle in 5:02.6, pressed by freshman teammate Larry Shannon. Earlier in the evening Milton had set a new dual meet record in the 220-yard freestyle with a time of 2:16.3. A mere length separated him and third-place Shannon in this event.

Bob Brawner, Tiger captain and world's record holder in the 200-yard breaststroke, won his specialty and set a new dual meet record of 2:25.7. This was 12.6 seconds off his world's record. Carolina's Barry Wall gave it his all in the last lay and trailed Brawner by only two lengths to the finish-line. Brawner also participated on Princeton's victorious medley and freestyle relay teams to become runner-up in scoring honors.

300-yard medley relay—1. Carolina (Linker, Wall, Edwards) Time: 2:55.2 (dual meet record)

Winless Gym Team Meets Blue Devils Here Thursday

The Carolina gymnastic team will meet the Blue Devils of Duke here Thursday night.

The Duke team this year is considerably weaker than last year's, but the meet should be exceedingly close. Both teams lost to Florida State, but the Tar Heels did better against them than the Blue Devils.

The outstanding man for Duke is Heckerd, who works on the mats, parallel bars, and side horse. Carolina will depend upon its reserve strength to back up Check Goodin and freshman Gordon Hudson.

Coach Bill Meade of the Tar Heels thinks that if the team does as well against Duke as it did against their northern opponents, Carolina will win.

The meet will begin at 7:30 in Woollen Gym. No admission will be charged. The lineup for Carolina:

Side Horse: Andy Bell, Gordon Hudson, Check Goodin; High Bar: Gearld Dorn, Andy Bell, Check Goodin; Rope: Rupert Phipps, Check Goodin, Gordon Hudson.

Rings: Check Goodin, Andy Bell, Otis Hartsell; Mats: Frank Williams, Bill Woods, Don Waddell; Tramp: Dick Hollden, Bill McCord, R. S. White.

The Tar Heels have a stronger team this year than last, but an exceptionally difficult schedule has left Carolina winless in the first three meets.

Florida State University, the NCAA and AAU champions, defeated Carolina, 83-29, in the opener and Penn State and Army took easy wins over the Tar Heels on a recent northern trip. The Nittany Lions won, 78-34, and the Cadets triumphed, 69-40.

Swimmers Top Wahoo

The Carolina swimming team, led by Buddy Baarcke, Farren Heeman, and Donnie Evans, won its 21st consecutive meet here Saturday, coasting to a 50-34 win over Virginia.

Baarcke won the 150-yard individual medley in 1:37.5. Newell Gill of Carolina was third. Heeman defeated teammate Smith Jewell in the 200-yard backstroke, doing the event in 2:18.9.

Evans won the 440-yard free style in 4:50.1. Charlie Wolf of Chapel Hill and Carolina was third.

The Tar Heels won all but three of the events and one of the losses came in the 400-yard freestyle relay where the Carolina team was disqualified. Other Carolina first places and times were: 220-free style—Cecil Milton (2:16.9); diving—Joe Kelso (101.8 points); 200-yard breaststroke—Barry Wall (2:30.4).
