

in as many starts for this season. Georgia will be out to preserve its undefeated season.

Meet A Toss-up

Carolina Coach Dick Jamerson said, "According to comparative times, our meet with Georgia will have to be considered a toss-up" This year the "Red and Black" has knocked off Florida, Georgia Tech, Emory, and Bainbridge. The Bulldogs and the Tar Heels beat the Bainbridge Naval Center, their only common foes by approximately the same score. Georgia's tie with Florida State marks an otherwise perfect season.

In the Thanksgiving Invitational swimming meet held here, the Bulldogs won eight-out-of-fourteen first places and set records in the 50-yard freestyle and the 200-yard backstroke.

Georgia is paced by such stars as Reid Patterson, one of the top college backstrokers, Charlie Cooper, SEC champ in the 50 and 100-yard freestyles, Charlie Co-Captain Cecil Milton has been impressive in the 220 and 440-yard freestyle lately, while his running mate Larry Shannon, a freshman, has shown considerable improvement during the last week or two. Froshs Warren Heeman has been taking firsts in the backstroke along with Buddy Baarcke, and Joe Kelso is yet to be beaten in dual meet competition.

Georgia meets N. C. State in Raleigh Friday and is considered the underdog in that match by Jamerson. Carolina will vie with State next Thursday.

A total eclipse of the sun occurs February 25, but is invisible in the United States. The path of totality crosses Africa and Arabia, and ends in central Asia. The maximum duration of totality (over three minutes) occurs near Khartoun, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

The 330-yard run, and Duke's John Tate, who won the 660-yard run, are two of the top conference quarter milers and will meet in the indoor games.

This meet is being run in two sections with the second part to be held tomorrow on the same track.
