

SPONSORING FOR THE KAPPA SIGMA'S Annual Black and White Formal pledge dance are, top row (left to right), Patti Arnette of Wooster, Ohio with Pledge Class Vice-President Dick Kane of Wooster, Ohio; Pat Noah of Chapel Hill with Parliamentarian Sam Emory of Chapel Hill;

center, Jane Sawyer of Terrytown, N.Y. with Pledge Class President Curtis Harper of Albany, Ga.; bottom row (left to right), Dawson Thompson of Goldsboro with Secretary-Treasurer Caleb Maddox of Goldsboro; and Sally Edgerton of Goldsboro with Sargeant-At-Arms Sam Donnell.

Black-White Formal Highlights Kappa Sigma Pledge Weekend

Pledges of Alpha Mu chapter of Kappa Sigma Fraternity will be honored at the fraternity's annual Black and White Formal, to be held tomorrow evening at the Chapel Hill Country Club.

Pledge weekend festivities will begin this evening with a buffet dinner at the chapter house and a party at the Club Sirloin.

Brunch will be served at noon tomorrow at the chapter house for actives, pledges and dates, and immediately following there will be a champagne party at the Chapel Hill Country Club. Prior to the dance dinner will be served at the Club.

Music for the Black and White Formal, which will be held from 9 until 12 o'clock, will be furnished by Bill Byers and the Cavaliers of Duke and Carolina.

The Kappa Sigma Star and Crescent will be formed, following the presentation of pledges and their dates. Dates of the pledges will carry bouquets of red roses.

Leading the figure will be Pledge Class President Curtis Harper of Albany, Ga. with Jane Sawyer of Terrytown, N. Y.; Vice-President Dick Kane of Wooster, Ohio with Patty Arnette of Wooster, Ohio; Secretary-Treasurer Caleb Maddox of Goldsboro with Dawson Thompson of Goldsboro; Sargeant-At-Arms Sam Donnell of Goldsboro with Sally Edgerton of Goldsboro; and Parliamentarian Sam Emory of Chapel Hill with Pat Noah of Chapel Hill.

Invited guests for the evening include Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith of Raleigh, Dr. E.J. Woodhouse, Dr. and Mrs. Sam Emory, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Calhoun.

Dates of both actives and pledges will be presented gold-cased combination suede and clothes brushes, bearing the Kappa Sigma crest.

Immediately following the dance breakfast will be served at the chapter house.

Pledges and their dates are John Banner of Mt. Airy with Margie Preisinger of Badin; Alban

Formal Dance Honors New Kappa Psi's

A theme of "Moonglow" highlighted the annual formal pledge dance of Beta Xi chapter of Kappa Psi, national pharmaceutical fraternity, held at the Carolina Inn last Saturday night.

Huckleberry foliage covered the balustrades of the ballroom and banks of palms were grouped around the stage. Carrying out the theme was a crescent moon, covered with gold dust, suspended from the ceiling. A tapestry, depicting a halfmoon with brilliant rays was used behind the bandstand.

Music for the dance, which was held from 9 until 12 o'clock, was furnished by Frank Settlemyer and his orchestra.

New initiates of Beta Xi and their dates were Pledge Class President Tom Kostic of Chapel Hill with Mrs. Kostic of Chapel Hill; Vice President Jack Friday of Dallas, Texas, with Helen Strawn of Roanoke Rapids; Secretary-Treasurer Bill Murray with Mrs. Murray, both of Chapel Hill; Social Chairman R. G. Smith of Pilot Mountain with Julia Harris of Raleigh; Sonny Fisher of Clinton with Katherine Britt of Clinton; Calvin Floyd with Nira Edwards both of Roanoke Rapids.

Woody Frostick with Catherine Carter both of Maxton; Graham King of Fayetteville with Barbara Gilliam of Sanford; Tommy Curtiss of Waynesville with Nancy Ader of Walkertown; Bill Stanton with Mrs. Stanton both of Chapel Hill; Ralph Ushworth with Daphne Adams both of Fuquay Springs; John McGinnis of Cherryville with Janet Merritt of Chapel Hill; Ed Jenkins of Burlington with Pat Corbett of Swansboro.

Dave Dowdy of High Point with Joanne Lewis of Waverly, Pa.; Al Mebane of Lexington, Ky., with Donna Blair of Winston-Salem.

Alpha Gam's Initiate 12

Twelve pledges of Gamma Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta were initiated in ceremonies held Wednesday night.

Initiated into membership were Dorothy Beals of Johnson City, Tenn.; Barbara Braxton of Whiteville; Rosalyn Brown of Elberton, Ga.; Jeanette Chance of Lumberton; Dolores Funai of Richmond, Va.; Shirley Gee of Johnson City, Tenn.; Jody Levey of Richmond, Va.; Jo Anne Lewis of Waverly, Pa.; Marilyn McKee of Wichita, Kans.; Anne Miller of Albany, Ga.; Jean Poland of Arlington, Va.; and Joan Carroll of Lawrenceville, Va.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON DANCE Concord; bottom row (left to right), Gloria McCollum of Fairmont with Secretary Bill Hamilton of Fairmont; and Mariam Tom Torgersen of Burlington; Swain of Winston-Salem with Louise Kiser of Statesville with Treasurer Martin Cauble of Winston-Salem; Vice-President James Teeter of

Carolina Inn Will Be Scene Of SPE Dance Tomorrow Night

Twenty pledges of Delta chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity will be honored at the fraternity's annual pledge dance tomorrow night at the Carolina Inn.

Music for the formal dance, which will be held from 9 until 12 o'clock, will be furnished by Dick Livens and his "Statesmen."

Garlands of ivy will be used on the balconies of the ballroom and crepe paper streamers will decorate the columns. A large Sigma Phi Epsilon flag will be used behind the bandstand.

Invited guests for the evening include Col. and Mrs. J. J. Moorehead, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wettsch, and Dr. and Mrs. L. C. McKinney.

Prior to the dance actives, pledges, dates and guests will have buffet dinner at the chapter house.

The traditional heart figure will be formed, following the presentation of pledges and dates. The couples will enter the ballroom through a large red cellophane heart. Dates of the pledges will be presented white carnation corsages.

Following the formation of the figure the 1952 Sweetheart of Sigma Phi Epsilon will be presented. She will receive a loving cup from the actives and pledges of Delta chapter. Also at this time presentation of the Outstanding Pledge award will be made by Pledge Trainer Gray Mattox.

Purple and red garters, bearing the letters of the fraternity, will be presented to the dates as favors.

Pledges and their dates are Leonard Barber, Hendersonville, with Beth Lloyd, Chapel Hill; Carl Furr, Concord, with Roberta Brower, Winston-Salem; Bill Grimes, Smithfield, with Daizy Wade, Bluefield, W. Va.; Don Hamilton, Fairfield, Conn., with Ann Browning, Brison City; Roger Harris, Pilot Mountain with Martha Dale Lewis, Fairmont; Dick Iobst, Allendale, N. J., with BuBudd Wilson, Wilmington; Reuben Leonard, Greensboro, with Sally Murry, Greensboro; Tom Morris, South Mills, with Janice Brady, Hickory; Burt Rathert, Winston Salem, with Sa-

(See CAROLINA INN page 7)

IN DURHAM —
HARVEY'S CAFETERIA
 — AND — BANQUET SERVICE
 Breakfast 6:30-9:15..... Lunch 11-2:30
 Supper 5-8:05
 103 E. MAIN STREET, DURHAM

