

Fund To Improve Relations Between Groups Announced

A fund dedicated to the improvement of intergroup and interracial relations and established in the name of Harry T. More, NAACP leader, killed Christmas Night by the explosion of an assassin's bomb, placed under his home at Mims, Florida, was announced yesterday. It is sponsored by 13 national youth organizations and administered by the Young Adult Council of the National Social Welfare Assembly (YAC).

Designed to improve human relations the Moore Fund will conduct seminars where community leaders will study methods and techniques for improving intergroup relations. The Fund will also make scholarship grants for study and research in race relations.

YAC is a coordinating council of youth organizations and is the recognized spokesman for American youth nationally and internationally. It is the U.S. member of the World Assembly of Youth.

The organizations sponsoring the Fund, all affiliated with YAC are: YMCA; YWCA; U.S. National Student Association; American Unitarian Youth; Collegiate Council for the UN; National Jewish Youth Conference; North American Student Cooperative League; Students for Democratic Action; United Christian Youth Movement; Universalist Youth Fellowship; and the youth and student sections of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, United World Federalists, and National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Murray Frank, chairman of YAC, said "We believe that the job of improving race relations is everyone's responsibility, and we are confident that many Americans will answer our call for help in creating the Moore Fund."

Dr. Fleming Returns To Join UNC Staff

Dr. William L. Fleming, who left Chapel Hill about five years ago to join the faculty of Boston University, has returned here to join the staff of the University Medical School. He and Mrs. Fleming, along with their four daughters, are living in Glen Lennox, where two regular apartments were made into one in order to make room for them.

U Of Vienna To Be Scene Of Session

The University of Vienna will have an international summer session this year at Schloss Traunsee, ni Salzkammergut, Austria.

Courses, conducted in English, will be offered in law and political science, liberal arts, and German literature and language. Tours and excursions to the Salzburg Festivals, to Vienna, and to other places of interest are offered together with the program of study.

The inclusive cost for three weeks at Schloss Traunsee will be $100, and for six weeks $185. The school is on the list of European institutions approved by the Veterans Administration.

Interested students in the U.S.A. should write for further information and application blanks to the Institute of International Education 2 West 45th Street, New York 36, New York. (After March 1, write to 857 Fifth Avenue, New York 21, New York.)

Speeding Is Chief Cause For Arrests

Raleigh — Nearly 4,000 North Carolina motorists faced court action for speeding last month the Department of Motor Vehicles reported today. In its first monthly summary of traffic violations for the new year the Department reported 3,851 speeding convictions; 2,206 convictions for reckless driving and 1,538 for driving without an operator's permit.

For failing to stop for a stop sign or red light 644 motorists were convicted; 305 answered charges for driving with improper lights; 228 were caught and convicted for passing on hills and curves; and 112 were convicted for failing to give a hand signal.

Failing to give right-of-way brought 104 convictions. Miscellaneous violations carried the month's total to 10,211.

Out of state drivers accounted for another 1,335 convictions, bringing the grand total to 11,566 persons found guilty of traffic violations on the streets and highways of the state during January.

Mrs. Fink Has Tall Fish Tale

Mrs. Ruth Fink, who heads the Women's Physical Education Department at Carolina, is telling the biggest fish tale in town this week but has documentary proof of a tremendous catch.

On a Florida fishing trip recently she snared a seven and a half foot sailfish.
