

Zeta Beta Tau Celebrates Their Silver Anniversary

Alpha Pi chapter of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity, which was established at the University on February 26, 1927, is celebrating its 25th anniversary this weekend.

Silver anniversary festivities will begin with a buffet dinner this evening at the chapter house, which will be followed by a get-acquainted hour.

The Chapel Hill Country Club will be the scene of a costume ball from 9:30 until 12:30 o'clock tonight. Red and white streamers and giant red cardboard hearts will be used in carrying out the St. Valentine's theme. Music will be recorded and the fall pledge class will provide intermission entertainment.

Master of Ceremonies Barry Kalb will introduce the couples and prizes will be awarded to the wearers of the most original costumes.

Following the dance, breakfast will be served at the chapter house.

Tomorrow at noon pledges, actives, dates, and guests will meet at Hogan's lake for a picnic lunch. Afternoon entertainment will include relay races and mock 'war' games.

A formal banquet will be held

Connor Dorm Party

Connor dormitory will entertain coeds at an informal dance tonight at 8 o'clock in their social room.

Intermission entertainment will feature an original skit and the music of a Barbershop Quartet.

All coeds are invited to attend, and Connor-men will be in the parlors of the various dormitories and sorority houses to escort the guests to and from the party at 7:45 p.m.

This is Connor's second social of the quarter. Featured event of the evening will be the unveiling of the dormitory's new console radio.

tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Carolina Inn. The speaker's table will be centered with a large white floral arrangement, featuring roses and silver leaves, and 25 candles.

Rabbi Samuel Periman will give the invocation and chapter President Ted Frankel will welcome the guests.

Presentation of the Silver Anniversary plaque will be made to the charter members by Ted Frankel. Norman Block of Greensboro, Alpha Pi president in 1927, will receive the plaque for his class.

Chancellor Robert B. House will introduce President of the Consolidated University Gordon Gray, who will deliver the main address.

Immediately following the banquet a formal dance will be held at the Inn with the music of Frank Settlemyer and his orchestra. Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the chapter's 1952 Sweetheart.
