According to Smith, confusion resulted because of the SEC advertisement which allows student wives to attend, and administration policy which says only colored students can sit down stairs.

"This policy is binding on the SEC," said chairman Charlie Brewer yesterday. Expressing his private opinion, Brewer said, "Individual student policy is subservient to administration policy when students are entrusted with University facilities."

With the German weekend here, the Dance Committee yesterday issued a reminder that students who drink shouldn't dance.

According to official Dance Committee rules "anyone showing signs of drinking or other misconduct shall be dealt with according to the discretion of the committee."

Other rules governing conduct on the dance floor: (1) persons desiring to leave the dance hall during the evening with the intention of returning must be accompanied by a chaperone during his or her entire stay from the dance, (2) anyone bringing intoxicating beverages on the dance floor is automatically suspended indefinitely, (3) no smoking whatsoever and no refreshments of any kind will be allowed on the dance floor at Woolen gymnasium.

YM Groups Attending Meetings

Four men from Carolina will leave for Atlanta today to attend an annual meeting of the Southern Area Student Council of the Area Student Council of the YMCA.

Bill Burkholder, vice-president of the Carolina YMCA, is president of the Southern Area Council which represents more than 100 student YMCAs in the 13 southeastern states. Bill Brown and Raeford Pugh have been elected by the Y as student delegates. John Riebel, associate secretary of the Y, will be the third voting delegate.

The Council has been in existence for more than thirty years and has responsibility for the Blue Ridge Conference and other area-wide activities of the student YMCA.

Several other YM members are attending another conference in Chester, Penn.

Jack Becker, John Colson, Robert Davis, Bill Hogshead, Robert Johnson and Earl Page left yesterday to attend a pre-ministerial conference which will bring together about 50 men from colleges in the eastern part of the United States.

Leaders in the conference will include Clarence Pickett, retired executive secretary of the American Friends Service Committee, Dr. Roy Burt, pastor of the Community Church of Columbus, Ohio, and Dr. Cranford, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Washington, D. C.

Bloodmobile Is Due Here April 1-2

When this National Blood Week, Feb. 17-23, draws to a close, the nationwide drive for blood donations will only be starting.

The promotional campaign on campus, sponsored by the National Students Association, is also only beginning, according to Joel Fleishman, chairman of the Carolina Campus Blood Committee.

Campus committee members were announced today by Fleishman. These are Jake Froelich, Bob Creed, Bill Rolfe, Thomas McDonald, Jane Jenkins, Bill Brawner, Gene Cook, and Ed Garbisch. Advisor to the committee is R. H. Wettach, past dean of law school and presently in charge of the blood campaign for the whole city of Chapel Hill.

"Coincidence of National Blood Week with National Brotherhood Week, also Feb. 17-23, was a planned feature of the drive," Fleishman stated. "Interrelation of the ideas is apparent," he said.

Before the bloodmobile comes to Chapel Hill, April 1st and 2nd, the committee hopes to impress the aims of the blood drive on every student possible and stimulate a mass turn-out of donors.

The National Blood Program is aimed at supplying the minimum necessity of 30,000 pints a month, needed throughout the United States as well as on the Korean battlefield. While the NSA is behind the local drive, the national campaign is jointly sponsored by the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts of America, and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Within the next few weeks promotional publicity and messages will appear in increased numbers. Messages are designed to carry the theme, "Answer their call", to the American public.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR SHEEDY was in the soup with a turtle named Myrtle. "I'm in a tortizzy," he wailed, "what shell I do?" "Well, it's your messy hare that parts you from all the girls," his roommate said. "Better get Wildroot Cream-Oil!" Non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's out turtle-necking all the time! So don't stick your neck out... get some terrapin-money and hurry to the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for it on your hare at your favorite barber shop. Then you'll really be in the swim.
