

Wolfpack Beats UNC Cagers, 71-52

Speight's 20 Points Lead State Victory

RALEIGH, Feb. 23—The Wolfpack basketball team, gathering speed for the conference tournament next week, turned the game into a rout here tonight with a fourth quarter scoring spree that handed the Tar Heels their 15th straight defeat at State hands, 71-52.

With only seven minutes left in the game State was leading, 57-52, but forward Bobby Speight got red hot and scored seven of his 20 points as the Wolfpack outscored the Tar Heels, 14-2, and all but blasted Carolina off the floor.

Speight was the game's high scorer with seven field goals and six free throws comprising his 20 markers. Al Lifson, who had averaged 23 points during the last two weeks of play, was held to 18 points, but was the Carolina GUARD BOB PHILLIPS, Carolina's top substitute made one point while relieving starter Howard Deasy last night. He's considered the Tar Heels' most improved player this year.

State's Second Half Surge Beats UNC Jayvees, 61-48

RALEIGH, Feb. 23—The Carolina Jayvees, playing without their high scoring forward, Floyd Propst, blew a two point half-time lead and allowed the unbeaten State Jayvees to win, 61-48, here tonight.

Coach Earl Ruth's team, which has improved in recent games and defeated Duke last week, was no match for the Wolflets in the second half without Propst. Propst was unable to play due to a cold.

The Tar Heels spurred to a 27-25 halftime lead, but the shooting of State's forwards, Jim Stevenson and Kim Buchanan overtook them. Stevenson got 13, Buchanan 18, and center Bobby Goss 12. All three players were demoted from the State varsity last week.

Carolina was led by guard Joe Moser who got 12 points. For-

Carolina (48)	Pos.	State (61)
Mosier (10)	F	Stevenson (13)
Prescott (10)	F	Buchanan (18)
Dittmar (6)	C	Goss (12)
Moser (12)	G	Lawrence (6)
Fincannon (4)	G	Adams (7)

Substitutions: Carolina—Dillingham (1), Brantley (2), Nielson (3)—State—Kincaide (5).
Halftime, Carolina 27, State 25.

wards Buell Mosier and Roger Prescott each got 10 points for second high scoring honors for Carolina.

UNC Chess Team Defeats Duke, 3-1

The Carolina chess club defeated the Duke Club, 3-1, in Durham Friday.

Kit Crittenden of Carolina defeated Duke's Bill Chapman on board one. Molina-Y-Vedia of Duke defeated Tar Heel Makens on board two and Evans of Carolina topped Bill Crowder of Duke on board three.

Douglas Kahn of Carolina defeated Bill Huntley of Duke in the decisive match.

Crittenden, Carolina captain announced that matches with Davidson and State are being planned and that the team will compete in the forthcoming Southern Intercollegiate Tournament.

Jack Wallace leads the Tar Heels in assists with an average of three per game.

UNC Stickmen Open Season Against Hoyas

Director of Athletics R. A. Fetzer has released a 12-match schedule for Carolina's 1952 lacrosse team.

The Tar Heels, coached by Alan Moore, open the slate here March 29 against Georgetown University. The contest will be the first of nine matches to be played on Navy Field.

The Tar Heels won only one match in six outings last season.

March 29 — Georgetown University here; 31 — Dartmouth, here.

April 2 — Williams College, here; 3 — Yale, here; 10 — Lehigh, here; 12 — Norfolk Naval Air Station, here; 18 — Washington College, here; 26 — Norfolk Naval Air Station, here. May 3 — Virginia Tech, here; 10 — Washington and Lee, Lexington, Va.; 12 — Virginia Tech at Blacksburg, Va.; 15 — Duke at Durham.

high scorer. Lifson was hampered when he drew his fourth foul at the start of the second half, but did not foul out.

The victory gives State a 11-2 conference record and makes Carolina 8-10 in loop play. Carolina has only one more game to play—against Duke next Saturday in Durham.

State did not have one of its good nights from the floor, but it topped Carolina. The Wolfpack hit on 26 of 88 shots for 29 percent while Carolina made 18 of 73 attempts for a 25 percent accuracy. Carolina made 16 of 31 foul shots and State hit on 19 of 35.
