Swimmers Finish Undefeated; SC Meet Next

The Carolina swimming team completed another undefeated season Saturday night by trouncing LaSalle, 53-31, in Philadelphia. The Explorers were victim number twelve for the on-rushing Carolina tankmen, who now are turning their attention to the Southern Conference swimming championships which will be held here Thursday through Saturday.

Warren Heeman turned in the outstanding performance of the night by winning the 200-yard backstroke in 2:19.5 despite the rough Germantown YMCA pool. This was a new pool record for the event.

Heeman had been previously honored at a banquet in Baltimore Friday night where he received a Junior Olympic Award for outstanding times in freestyle events turned in by seventeen-year-olds and under last year.

8 Teams Entered

Eight teams now entered in the conference division of the Southern Conference Indoor Games are: Carolina, Davidson, Duke, Maryland, State, Richmond, VMI, VPI.

Marshall College, last year's winner, heads a list of 12 entries in the non-conference division.
