 illegitimate child and a burial at sea, that have great emotional power.

Everyone in "Isle of Sinners" performs as though he sincerely believes in what he is doing, and this in a large part gives the film its feeling of utter conviction. But the movie belongs to Pierre Fresnay as the fisherman Thomas. His portrayal of a simple, devout man, showing great strength in emergencies, is truly a work of art. He very clearly conveys the inner struggle of a man torn between what he knows is right and what is specified by law. It is a memorable performance in a memorable movie.

Di Senate
 The Dialectic Senate will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in a closed Executive Session. No bill will be debated.
