Students already enrolled in graduate schools may be considered for deferment, so long as they remain in good standing.

These criteria are guides for the local boards. The boards are under no compulsion to follow them, but any local board classification is subject to appeal.

Anyone desiring further information about the test should see Col. Shepard in 315 South Building.

"Tommy takes wrestling very seriously and sets a good example for the other boys. He worries about all of his opponents. If his opponent is good, he's worried about winning, if he is a bum, he worries about making a poor showing."

Last week Coxe was pinned by Maryland's Bill Fischer, considered an Olympic prospect, as the Tar Heels lost 36-0 but he came back the next night to decision Bill Biggar of Virginia—the only victory as Carolina lost, 31-3.

Phi Mu Alpha Will Present GM Program

Phi Mu Alpha, music fraternity, will sponsor a program of chamber music Sunday night, March 2, in the main lounge of Graham Memorial.

The public will be treated to two ensemble groups not often heard by average listeners: the brass ensemble and the woodwind quintet.

The first part of the three-part program will consist of music by the sixteen-piece University brass choir. Under the leadership of Joseph Wood, Jr., assistant band director, the group will play two pavans by Melchior Franck, six pieces by Pezel, and two sonatas.

The second part of the program will be a Mozart piano trio for violin, violoncello, and piano.

The final part of the program will feature a Quintet for Flute, Oboe, Clarinet, Horn, and Bassoon by the Swedish composer Hamerik. All the members of this quintet are graduate students in music here at the University.

Bonowitz To Head Women's Orientation

Miss Saralyn Bonowitz has been chosen by the Women's Residence Council to head the women's orientation committee next fall.

She transferred to Carolina from Stevens this year and comes from San Matro, Calif. Since her arrival here she has been elected to the legislature, and has been chosen secretary of the Hill-el. She is also a member of Chi Omega sorority.

She will organize and direct the activities of the orientation program.

An editor for the Woman's Handbook to be used in the fall orientation program will be chosen next week. All junior coeds who are interested in applying for this post must submit their application to their house presidents by Monday at 6 p.m.

'State Of Campus' Meeting Postponed 'Til March 22-23

The "State of the Campus" conference originally scheduled for this weekend has been postponed due to the regional NSA conference here this weekend.

The new date for the conference has been set for the first weekend in spring quarter, March 22-23.

Six commissions have been inaugurated as a means of defining and investigating the different areas of campus life and will report at this conference.

Registration is now open at the YMCA and all students who can possibly attend are invited. The purpose of the Conference is to get student opinion on issues of the day and in turn bring back a healthier program to the campus.

The six study commissions and their leaders will be: Faculty-Student Relations—Donna Hauck, Educational Effectiveness — Bill Mallison, Student Apathy—Gene Oberdorfer, Student Honor and the Honor System—Bill Brown, Meeting the Social Needs of the Student Body—Harry Phillips, and Men and Women Relations—Jack Becker.

The idea of the Conference was two months ago by the following students who are sponsoring the conference: Jack Prince, Bob Simmons, Ken Barton, and Bill Wolfe; John Harris, Allen Milledge, Bill Burkholder, Bill Mallison, Jim McIntyre, and Donna Hauck are acting as advisors.

The conference will begin on Saturday afternoon and last through Sunday.

-Clark-

During the meeting, it is expected that trustee John Clark will comment on recent articles appearing in The Daily Tar Heel, and The Carolinian. Clark's brother, Dave, has supported a move to "punish" The Technician, State College paper, for printing an editorial requesting that a faculty member resign.

Besides a large State College delegation, attending will be several UNC students, including UNC student president Henry Bowers, Dick Murphy, former president John Sanders, and Ed McLeod. All three student editors will be on hand for the meeting.

Murphy has charged John Clark with "gestapo tactics" in his recent letter-writing campaign. Sanders and McLeod were the topics of letters sent to the students' home town mayors requesting comments on their upbringing.

The dean said he also pointed out to Focht that he is an out-of-state student and "therefore, benefiting more from attending State College than a North Carolina student. He said he advised Focht "to be a good citizen of the college and of North Carolina" while he is at State.

Focht declined to elaborate on Dean Campbell's statements, but said they were "as correct as I could recall the conversation."

There should be some red-hot competition in four finals of the SC swim met tonight. State's Sonia and Churn will oppose Carolina's Dick Levy in the 50-yard freestyle; Carolina's Warren Heeman and Baarcke will go against State's Tom Dunlap in the 200-yard backstroke; and the Tar Heel divers Joe Kelso and R. S. White will be trying for their second victory over the Wolfpack's Bob Stenburg.
