

UP AND OVER! Jay (Papa) Hall, Florida's national champion, is shown here as he broke the Southern Conference Indoor Meet record for the high jump Saturday. His leap was 6 feet, 6 1/4 inches, breaking his own record of 6 feet, 6 1/4 inches set last year. Gator coach Percy Beard said he would have done better had he not been bothered by a strained muscle.

Lentz Won Meet In High Jump—Terps' Kehoe

by Bill Peacock

"That tie for first in the high jump by Dick Lentz won the meet for us," grinned Maryland coach Jim Kehoe after his Terps had nailed down their first Southern Conference Indoor title here Saturday after 16 unsuccessful tries. The Terps scored 37 1/4 points to runner-up Duke's 31 3/4.

"We were awfully 'low' after Morty (Morty Cohen, Maryland's fine broad jumper) failed to place, but Lentz gave us just the lift we needed," explained Kehoe.

The 1-2-4 finish in the high hurdles by Tex Carter, Cohen, and Clarence Rakow gave us the lead we needed, and the firsts by John Tibbets in the two mile and Al Bushler in the 880 put us out front. I was especially proud of Tibbets, because it was determination more than talent that won the race for him."

Carolina coach Dale Ranson, whose defending champions finished behind both Maryland and Duke, was philosophical. "We didn't do quite as well as we had hoped, but that's no excuse; I know some of Kehoe's boys didn't do as well as he had hoped."

Ranson isn't gloomy despite the third place finish. "We'll get beaten this year, but we have a promising squad," he explains. "We have a lot of work to do, but they should develop. However, the other teams have more experience than we do this year."

A record was set in the 440, just as Ranson had predicted before the meet. Stu Johnson of VPI ran the event in 50.3, breaking the old record of 50.9 and Carolina's Gene Brigham finished third. "Brigham will do better outside; he runs a little too heavy for the board."

The Tar Heels open their outdoor season here April 3 in the Carolina relays. Carolina meets Maryland here in a dual meet three weeks later.

Miami Swimming Meet Canceled

The scheduled swimming meet between Miami and Carolina here today has been canceled, Coach Dick Jamerson announced yesterday.

The Tar Heels swimmers finished the season undefeated in 12 meets and were the Southern Conference dual meet champions. They were also the unofficial team winners in the conference meet here this past weekend.

Jamerson may take some of the swimmers to the National Collegiate meet March 24-26 at Princeton.

Coxe Only Winner As Duke Wrestlers Take UNC, 25-3

by Alva Stewart

The Carolina wrestling team ended its 1952 season by bowing to a potent Duke squad, 25-3, here last night. In 10 meets this year the Tar Heels earned only one victory, a win over Davidson in its first match.

Tommy Cox, 167-pound Tar Heel, gave Coach Sam Barnes' team its lone win by subduing Max Gross 6-1. Voted The Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the Week last week, Cox lived up to his title by easily outpointing his opponent.

Wrestling resolutely, 147-pounder Tommy Stokes nearly gave his team another win in his match with Otto Dieffenbach, the Blue Devil earned two points for riding time however, and defeated Stokes, 6-4.

Two of Coach Sam Barnes' men were pinned. In the 123 pound class, Duke's Greg Raimando displayed an exhibition of aggressive strength by pinning Tar Heel Earl Kendrick in 1:18 of the third round.

In the 130 pound class, Blue Devil captain Art Rowe conquered Austin Stevens by pinning him in 1:50 of the second period.
